Apperson and Quinn Burnett. The shingle supper was a decided success and a good social time was had. Owing to the absence of the W. C. T. elect, installation or officers was posts peoped partly. elect, installation or officers was postsoned until the next regular meeting. The remainder of the candidates, if present, with others will be initiated, and officers installed. Also the first issue of the Huckleberry, edited by J. I. Knight, will be read. The first issue of the opposing publication, edited by S. P. M. Briggs will be read at the next succeeding meeting. A general good time is anticipated for the rest of the winter.

LAURA BIGGAR.-Miss Laura Biggar sang here last night to a small but appreciative audience. Miss Biggar cannot fail to please all who may hear her. She has a voice highly cultivated and sings in an easy, graceful way which is very charming. Her solo "Brightly" was exceedingly well rendered. Miss Biggar's support is fairly good. The duett, "Hunter's Song" by Misses Sie-bold and Barron was very good. Miss Siebold has a very charming voice.
We have not space to give the entertainment a lengthy mention. The small audience present would have been more than doubled had Miss Biggar's appearance been thoroughly advertised. Should she ever return to McMinnville she will be greeted with a much larger audience.
