McMINNVILLE, FRIDAY MARCH 4, 1887.

The deadlock still prevails in two legatures, West Virginia and New Jersey. The democrats have a majority in body, but cannot agree upon the they want for senator.

Prospects are flattering for large appropriations for Oregon this year by congress. This is due in a great measure to energy displayed by Senators Johnson and Mitchell and Representative Hermann.

Latest dispatches from Helena say reports of extreme cold weather in Montana this winter have been greatly exaggerated; that the winter has been milder than usual, and that the weather is now moderating.

The Oregon and Transcontinental railway will try to control the next North Pacific election. The lease of the Oregon railway and navigation to the Union Pacific will not be made, because congress has not given the Union Pacific right to make the lease.

The immigration board exhibits before the property of the state, Governor Snodgrass can take charge and turn over to the live real estate men of the state who have so long been slandered by the ex secretary of the board. These gentlemen will place them where they will do the most good.

The Hesperian Gazette's new letter reads as follows: Ink-shop of Hesperian Gazette J. W. Redington, ink-mer. A paper that goes fishing on Sundays without regard to weather learns its bread by the creek of its outpouring press. Headquarters planted on the ground. No stairs to climb. Up to the left and right thereof appears the portraits of "Hon. S. L. Moraw, godfather of the country." "Hon. Henry Heppner, stepfather of the city." Redington is nothing if not original.

The freight brakemen on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio railroad and yard crews are on a strike and the right traffic on the line is nearly suspended. The employees had a meeting and were informed that Superintendent Brien had given instructions to enforce the order taking the third brakeman off from each crew. Acting upon this information, the men quit work. They assert that when the strike was settled last fall it was agreed that each train should have three brakemen.

The Macon Telegraph, a democratic paper, rises to remark: "The protective tariff is a great institution for the whole country, and we are proud to say it includes the booming south. But when the free traders complain that it does not enable everybody to live in wealth without paying taxes or feeding babies, we are forced to admit that they have grounds for complaint. Scientific as the system is, it still leaves patriots of all classes and conditions chances to distinguish themselves in the fields of labor and statesmanship. This must not be overlooked."

Every unsuccessful strike should cause the strikers to examine carefully and intelligently into the causes of their failure, and to profit from that examination. After every strike also, unsuccessful as well as successful, the employer should make an equally thorough and conscientious examination into its causes, and see whether a greater degree of wisdom or humanity on his part would not have prevented it, to his own profit as well as to the advantage of his employees. What is done can't be helped, but much good may come in the future in consequence of a little experience.

The New York Sun says in a ringing double-leaded leader. The United States will not indulge in persuasion; it is contrary to the order of human events, as they forever keep at a distance those painful appeals to arms, with which the history of every nation abounds. It is a rank due the United States among nations which would be withheld if not absolutely lost by a reputation of weakness. If we desire to avoid insult we must be able to repel. If we desire to secure peace—one of the most powerful instruments to our prosperity—it must be known at all times that we are ready for war.

Sarah Bernhardt will appear at Washington soon and Manager Abbey has not sent a box to the president for the season. This is a marked exception to the usual programme of visiting theatrical managers. All the boxes are sold for the week. If the president occupies a box at the theater this week, it will be through the courtesy of those who have already purchased their boxes. Abbey says that last year when he was at Washington he sent a box to the president in answer to his request for one, and that he did not make the slightest acknowledgment of the favor granted. He says the boxes are worth money, and that the box given to President Cleveland at his own request, was at least worth a plain ordinary "thank you." It is proper to state that the story that the president asked Mr. Abbey for a box in the theater is not generally believed.

TELEGRAPHIC.

LOS ANGELES, March 2.—Mayor Workman says there has been no new cases of smallpox in this city in the past eight days. Of those sent to the hospital four died, eight are convalescent. Twelve cases occurred altogether.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The senate appropriation committee has increased the number of new cruisers, authorized to be built in the navy appropriation bill from six to nine, and added several million dollars to the bill that was passed by the house.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The attorney-general informed the representative of the anti-Mormons, Judge R. N. Baskin, this morning that the Mormon bill would be signed to-day. The delay has been due to the desire of the president to give the bill his careful consideration.

DUBLIN, March 2.—A mob at Ballyhaunis attacked a force of police last evening and rescued some prisoners whom they had in charge. The mob stoned the police and partially wrecked the barracks. The police fired a number of shots at the crowd, but without hitting any one. Several policemen were injured by the stones.

ALMA, March 1.—Yesterday afternoon W. A. Bishop, a rancher living near here, accidentally shot his little girl, aged four and a half years. He was trying to shoot a hawk and the child came around the corner of the house just as the gun was discharged. Several shot took effect in the side of her head. Medical aid was summoned from Los Gatos and the child is pronounced out of danger.

NEW YORK, March 1.—The cooper's strike seems to be on the verge of collapse. The employers assert they are getting all the help they need from non-union shops. The announcements from Jersey City that the strikers employed in one of the leading refineries over there, had returned under pledge to sever all connections with the Knights of Labor, has had a depressing effect on those who still hold out.

NEW YORK, March 2.—There is some doubt as to whether the Dauntless and Coronet will be able to start on their race across the Atlantic on Saturday, as expected. In that case their departure will be delayed until Tuesday. The delay is on the part of the Coronet. The other boat is reported ready to leave at an hour's notice. The stakes are $10,000 a side and the interest in the contest is wide-spread.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—General Superintendent Nash has issued the following: A postal clerk in the seventh division of the railway mail service has been removed for violation of section 758 of the instructions to railway postal clerks. He allowed an unauthorized person to enter his car, and that person stole from the mail four registered letters. Any clerk permitting a violation of section 758 will be summarily dealt with.

NEW YORK, March 2.—There is scarcely a trace of the recent strike of the longshoremen visible now along the wharves of either river. The fact is, the foreign exports this week are $8,000,000, or about $2,000,000 over the recent weekly average, and shows there is no longer any impediment to the free handling of cargoes. All the companies report that they are well satisfied with their new hands, who have now acquired sufficient experience to enable them to handle goods with as much facility as their predecessors.

What we Guarantee for the Dress Goods of our Manufacture:
To be made from the very best material, by skillful workmen, with the latest and most approved machinery, and to be the cheapest goods in the market when service is considered.
Are so thoroughly finished that they can be worn in damp weather or a shower, without fear of being ruined by curling or shrinking.
The manufacturing, dyeing and finishing is done in such a manner, that the goods can be washed if desired, without the least injury to the fabric.
Our goods are wool dyed, and the colors are as fast as the purest dyes and greatest care and skill can make them.
Goods show just what they are and will be until worn out, as there is no weighting, stiffening, or artificial lustre used to increase the weight or finish; as is the case with a large class of goods in the market, but which disappears after a few days' service.
As manufacturers we have taken great pains to supply an article in every way reliable, and unsurpassed by similar goods, either foreign or domestic, and would respectfully ask an examination of the various styles and shades to be found on sale by merchants who are agents for the goods.
All goods of our manufacture should bear the name and trade mark of
