"UNCLE Tom's CABIN."-The Opera cuse was crowded last evening at the performance of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" by the Ewing company. The play was well received, and gave satisfaction. It has been almost entirely remodeled and is different from that given by other companies in this city. A feature was the jubilee singers, and the blood-hounds. The different characters of the play were in good hands, especially De-Lano, who was "Marks, the lawyer." "Cassy," by Imogene Eberle, was well played, as was also "Legree," by Caine. "Uncle Tom" could hardly be better played than by W. O'Day. "Aunt Ophelia," and 'Topsy" were ably sus-tained. "Eliza" was one of the best played parts in the play.—Sania Cruz. played parts in the play.—Santa Cruz Sentingl.

New Mail Loure .- Hereafter letters and other mail matter intended for Willamina, Sheridan, Bellevue and ther points above should be mailed at his postoffice before 9:45, a. m. as all nail for that route will go via narrow guage from Wintes station. This new arrangement will be an inconvenience o many living along the former stage road. Many farmers and others on he tage route were in the habit of sending o this city for any thing needed, and having it left at their doors by the mail arrier. Now they will be obliged to do away with that privilege. The mai will also be several hours later reaching Bellevne, which gives the inhabitants of hat place the right to grumble.

TIN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY .- Friday last was the tenth anniversary of the redding of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henderon. In the evening friends to the numer of about twenty coupie gathered at heir residence in response to a kind invitation, to assist in duly celebrating the event. The evening passed very pleasintly. Supper was served at 10 o'clock, ifter which the presents were displayed. these were numerous, useful, and hand some. The guests soon after dispersed leaving their hearty wishes for many more anniversaries of the happy day in the calender of the bride and groom of ten years ago.

CLEAN UP .- The sanitary condition of our city at present is anything put perfect. We have very poor drainage. The water and slime in the low places and gutters about town are prophetic of marking laria and fevers. There ought to be a general cleaning up. If the people do not bestir themselves in the matter the general clean up will be made by death and the doctors. As between the latter two, of course we should prefer to see the doctors walk off with the palm, but the doctors walk of the doctors walk of with the palm, but the doctors walk of the doctor to be plain and honest we would rather see good health predominate. Clean up and saye on undertaker's and doctor's bills.

THE NARROW GAUGE MAIL SYSTEM .-To-day postal clerks will commence operations on the narrow gauge system. One will start from Portland and the other from Coburg. The train from Portland will connect with the eastern mail, so that residents along the narrow gauge system will receive their mail the same day that Portland receive the same mail. The mail coming from Coburg however, will lie here one day, but due course of time the schedule will be arranged so that this delay will be obvi-
