Sergeant at arms, ending April, 1st:

It does seem as though we ought to have a fair in Yambill county this year. Yambill is one of the finest counties in the state, and our agricultural products are second to no country, under the sun. Let every body be present at the meeting on April 23, and get to work. All that is necessary is to get a few good, live men interested, and we will have a permanent organization effected, and a good fair every year.
