DIED-James R. Miller,age about 32 years, died on the 5 inst at the house of his father in-law Robert McKune, in the town of Sheridan, Oregon, of consumption

The deceased was well and favorably known to a large number of people in this part of Oregon, as well as one dist ict of the eastern portion of this state, all of whom do, and will deeply regret to hear of his death.

His immediate family and family connections,-the latter being large,from the circumstances attending the cov-ry was almost impossible, and that death would sooner or later close the scene, were, when dissolution did take place, overwhelmed with grief and sorrow. For this bereavement the disonsolate widow and little orphan girls,
