The Oregon Universalist convention will meet in this city on Thursday June 9, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The street commissioner is just "getting in" on B street. And it needs all his persuasive powers too.

A large number of the old students of McMinnville college are attending commencement exercises this week.

M. L. Edmunds of North Yamhill was in this city Saturday and we acknowledge a pleasant visit at this office.

W. E. Martin met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon. He took a header from a bicycle and dislocated his wrist.

Col. J. C. Cooper returned from the Dalles Thursday evening. He was unable to begin work on his contract owing to the high water.

Will Price the artist, photographed the college yesterday, so that the students could have a reminder of the pleasant time spent in McMinnville.

The youngsters of this place went to Lafayette Saturday, and defeated the Lafayette club by a score of 24 to 22. McMinnville has not yet been beaten.

Will Price, the photographer, captured a fine trophy, in the shape of a cougar's skin, while up on the Willamina, last Sunday. The animal measured six feet ten inches.

The rite of confirmation will be administered at St. James church McMinnville by the Rt. Rev. B. Wistar Morris, D. D., on Friday, June 10 at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

Our streets are being fixed up in a good substantial manner. Yesterday a force of thirty men were at work on B street and when their work is completed it will be one of the best pieces of road in the county.

Why don't the owners of some of these fast horses, hitch up and go out on the new driving park and pack it down. Ben Hartman says that is all that is needed to make it a first-class track for our fast roadsters.

W. E. Martin has sold out the bar and billiard hall of the new Cook hotel to Tom Fields who took charge yesterday. Tom will run things in style and the billiard hall will be as popular a resort as ever.

Considerable work is being done on the road from Willamina to Netarts bay, and the parties having charge of the work expect to have it ready for travel by August. It is an easy route and when finished will be a very popular one with pleasure seekers.

It is said that some prominent supporters of Lafayette in the county seat fight who reside in that "village," have made a canvass of the county and found that McMinnville will have a majority of 400 votes, judging from the present feeling among the tax-payers. It was not their intention to make this fact public, but such things will leak out somehow.

The bird's eye view of Oregon and Idaho issued with the May number of the West Shore, is a fine piece of work and is commendable not only for its artistic merit but for the energy and push of its publisher. It certainly is a living representation to the people of this northwest coast that lithography is advancing "way out west" as much so as it is east. The only thing which we notice that is wrong, is that McMinnville is on the wrong side of the river.

PIIONEER'S REUNION.—The men and women who toiled across the plains and over the mountains to settle this country forty years ago, are now venerable with years and few in number. They are people of heroic character and nobility, and deserve more credit and respect than they get from a generation given up to interests of the time. They sought out the way, and with infinite courage and at infinite cost of labor established civilization in this remote country. They did a prodigious work and did it well. In the years to come they will occupy the same place in the history of Oregon as do the Pilgrim Fathers in the history of Massachusetts and they will have as high a place in the affections of the people. The annual reunion of the pioneers of Oregon will meet in Portland one week from to-morrow, and the memories which it will recall ought to make the occasion one of exceptional interest.

FOR SALE.—200 acres of land three miles from Amity and near Briedwell's station on N. G. R. R. 200 acres in cultivation. Good house, barn and fencing. Fine young orchard. Will sell, or trade for city property or business. Price $25,000. Terms reasonable.
 C. W. Talmage & Co.
 McMinnville, Oregon.

NOTICE.—As I have disposed of my business at the Cook hotel, I want those who are indebted to me, to come and settle up immediately and thereby save trouble.

Derereted Sealers.

The following from the Astoria, is an account of the trials and rough experience of the lost sealers, that our correspondent from Tillamook mentioned in our last issue. E. T. Humes and five other wrecked mariners are in the city and leave this morning (Saturday) for Victoria. They are sealers from the schooner Lilly L., the captain of which says they deserted him off Cape Foulweather, May 11. Humes and his comrades tell a very different story. They say they left the vessel under orders that morning in two boats to cruise south by east, and night coming on, no sign of the vessel which should have picked them up and they being short of provisions they had to make shore to get something to eat. They beached the boats at the mouth of Salmon river 25 miles below Nestucca on the 12th amid great dangers, losing guns and personal effects and after considerable suffering reached Nestucca, where they were kindly cared for and carried here on the Queen of the Bay. Humes says it was bad enough to be cast away and made to struggle for life on a lonely and surf beaten coast, without being charged by his captain with being a deserter. The owner of the vessel telegraphed him funds from San Francisco last Monday, and instructed him to join his vessel at Victoria.

All Aboard!

A well established, straight-forward, healthy newspaper is a sort of railroad train itself. It is a common carrier for the business surrounding it on the same terms with any other carrier, namely, "you pays your money and you takes your choice." It cheerfully welcomes its patrons to get on and ride out the full extent of the money they may choose to invest, in the journey of enterprise, and no other transportation line on the globe brings out side by side and continually holds in business, intellectual and social associations, so many characters as does this newspaper carrier system of the world. The many old faces become just about fraternal to the conductor, and he puts forth his best efforts to accommodate, to interest, to instruct and advise for the best advantage, amusement and comfort, of all those on his train, no matter whether they are on for a "long or short haul." Now and then a hair brained, narrow gauge crank turns up, whose fancy seems imbued with the hallucination that "nothing goes" that he can't run, and failing in his effort to assume control of the train, he spitefully resolves to stop it by getting off. Kindly he is vouchsafed the privilege. Nobody pats him on his little back and offers him a sugar plum if he will only withhold his bolt of vengeance a little further. He steps right down and out, and that is the end of it. Fizz ding-dong! slam! thunders on the train with all on board but the spiteful crank and as he turns his eyes upon the expected scene of stagnated ruin, he stares with chagrin at the vacant scene around him, and gradually wakes up to the realization that he is the only one, after all, that got badly left.—Ex.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery

Capt. Coleman, sch. Weymouth plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly effected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free Trial Bottle of this Standard Remedy at Rogers & Todd's Drug Store.

How McMinnville Lost Another Business House.

ED. TELEPHONE:
 "DEAR SIR:—Last week I arrived in McMinnville fully prepared to open a Drug Store in your enterprising city, but after looking the field over, I was convinced that it would be suicidal for me to embark in trade where there is a business house, so disgustingly aggressive and so lost to the interests of other houses as one you have located in your city. It is with surprise and chagrin that I notice that this particular house is steadily increasing its number of customers day after day, by employing methods that would make it very uncomfortable for me, if I were in business here. Just as it now does for competing establishments who are striving to combat the evil. I refer to Geo. W. Burt the PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST who is selling drugs, medicines, paints, oils, stationery etc. at such exceedingly low prices that I decided this is no place for me, and the other fellows may as well pull out, too.

Yours in sorrow,
