His trade was a good one and afforded him a good living, but nothing more, and he has endeavored to increase his store of gold by wooing the fickle Goddess of Fortune by investing in lottery tickets. He paid his addresses more particularly to the good dame who presides over the drawings of The Louisiana State Lottery and has held one or two coupons nearly every drawing during the last three years. As the gamblers say, he has played in good luck and has nearly always won enough to give him a small prefit, so that lately he has been "playing with the money of the bank." A few drawings ago he came down town and as passed the Chronicle office he saw by the bulletin board that ticket 67,060 had drawn the capital prize of $150,000. He knew that his ticket was 67,000 and something and he rushed home to get it. His delight can be imagined when he found that he held a coupon of the winning ticket, which entitled him to $15,000. He went down to his shop, presented each of his assistants with a suit of clothes, made arrangefor them to carry on the business and last week he and his wife started on a trip to Europe. He expects to be gone about seven months and to spend from $3500 to $4000 on the trip. The remainder of the money he will invest in some safe security as a nestegg, and when he gets back will put it into some legitimate business.

A LETTER

From the Mother of Miss Jessie Bonesteele.

Rochester, N. Y., April 22, 1886.
GENTLEMEN:—It is with pleasure I add my testimonial to the many well-known cures which your most excellent remedy has effected. For more than two years I was a great sufferer with rheumatism, was a great sufferer with rheumatism, being scarcely free from pain during the time. I found no relief until I procured Dr. Pardee's remedy, and it cured me completely. It is now two years since I discontinued its use and I have had no symptoms of the disease since. I know from my own and from the experience of many others also, that it will cure any case of rheumatism or neuralgia.

I am, very truly yours, MRS. H. S. BONESTEELE,

GENTS:- 1 have been troubled with Rheumatism for three years, at times very badly afflicted; was in that condition about two weeks ago, when I got a bottle of Dr. Pardee's Rheumatic Remedy, and in three days time was greatly relieved, and have not been troubled with it since I finished this bottle. I feel like recommending it in the highest terms, as I believe it will do all that is claimed for it.

Yours truly, JOHN BLODGETT,

Lockport, N. Y. GENTLEMEN :- I think the medicine prepared by the Pardee Medicine Com-pany is in fact the best rheumatic medicine now on the market; its equal is not known. My boy only six years old was confined to his bed with rheumatism; I got a bottle of the medicine and n a few days he was out of bed and playing around the house. I can cheerfully recommend this medicine to all rheumatic sufferers.

I can work hard all day, or walk four or five miles a day, and stand it well; and when I began using the medicine I could carcely walk across the room, most of the time, and I did not think I could ever feel well again. I have a little baby girl eight months old. Although she is a little delicate in size and appearance, she is healthy. I give your remedies all the credit for curing me, as I took no other treatment after beginning their use. I am very grateful for your kindness, and thank God and thank you that I am as well as I am after years of suffering."
