

WEST SIDE TELEPHONE.

McMINNVILLE, FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1897.

The commencement exercises at the college this week have been very stately attended by the people living in the city, especially during the day exercises.

Thomas F. Oakes, general manager of the Northern Pacific railroad, has created some excitement in railroad circles by addressing a communication to the board of railroad commissioners of this state, claiming that it had no jurisdiction over his line, and they could not dictate what rates he should make.

The increase of duties on iron and steel imposed by Canada is pronounced by the London Standard to be a selfish policy and can only tend to smother the colonies from the mother country.

The members of railroad commission, accompanied by Clerk Bell, are at Ashland, investigating the charge of unfairness of rates against the O. & C. The commission will visit Roseburg and Grant's Pass, and then return to Benton county, for the purpose of inspecting the bridges on the O. P., some of which are reported to be in a dangerous condition for traffic in winter time.

Portland seems to have gained an other important addition to her commercial importance, in the action of the Canadian Pacific in putting on the steamer Sardonix to ply between Portland and Port Moody, to carry Oregon flour to be transferred to that company's Hong Kong steamers.

The steamer Belgic, from the Orient, brought into San Francisco, Wednesday, 1,175 Chinese passengers in steerage. No smallpox was reported. During the voyage, to avoid any possibility of introduction of smallpox, the surgeon vaccinated 1,000 or more of the steerage passengers.

Monday was a fair day for taking off the heads of treasury clerks in the department at Washington. Several lost their places, among them one, Edward F. French, who had been chief of the division in the second comptroller's office, and had seen forty-one year's service.

Rev. C. C. Frost, who has been acting as treasurer of the Hope mine, in Butte, Montana, has been accused by the mine owner, Manager Haskell, of Norwich, Conn., with embezzling the funds. Rev. Frost is a prominent preacher in the Baptist denomination. Haskell undoubtedly has killed his influence hereafter.

James G. Blaine wife and daughters sailed from Southampton yesterday morning on the steamer Ems. The steamer Atlantic, with Wm. O'Brien aboard, also sailed yesterday morning.

NOTES AND NEWS.

W. A. Wheeler, ex-vice president of the United States was buried at Malone N. Y. Tuesday.

A French colony is said to have purchased a large tract of land in Sonora, Mexico, with the intention of settling there.

In the third trial the jury found Geo. H. Miller guilty of murder in the first degree of J. Manning Coleman and Wilbur Potter, at Seattle.

San Francisco will not celebrate the Fourth of July, owing to the intention of the National Guard to hold its encampment out of the city during that week.

A cloud burst in Ohio the other day, flooded the village of Trafion, washed out a culvert in the railroad, making a gap sixty feet wide, and tore out a bridge letting a freight train down, wrecking seventeen cars.

Major Murray, of the army, going under the assumed name of Victor Moret, having only a nickel in his pocket, committed suicide at the Brooklyn hotel in San Francisco Monday morning, by taking laudanum. He left his nickel and took the laudanum line for the other side.

Yesterday the town marshal of Morehead, Rowan county, Kentucky, attempted to arrest Jack and William Logan at their house. As he entered the house he was shot by them and fatally wounded. The fire was returned by two men who were with the marshal, which killed both the Logan boys.

Joy killed Mrs. Margaret Powell, of Samaria, Idaho. She was the widow of a soldier, and received notice that a pension of $12 per month, including $2.45 of back pay, would be sent her on her forwarding the proper vouchers. The news so overcame her that she dropped dead as she was preparing for church.

How McMinnville Lost Another Business House.

ED. TELEPHONE:

DEAR SIR:—Last week I arrived in McMinnville fully prepared to open a Drug Store in your enterprising city, but after looking the field over, I was convinced that it would be suicidal for me to embark in trade where there is a business house, so disgustingly aggressive and so lost to the interests of other houses as one you have located in your city. It is with surprise and chagrin that I notice that this particular house is steadily increasing its number of customers day after day, by employing methods that would make it very uncomfortable for me, if I were in business here. Just as it now does for competing establishments who are striving to combat the evil. I refer to GEO. W. BURT the PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST who is selling drugs, medicines, paints, oils, stationery etc. at such exceedingly low prices that I decided this is no place for me, and the other fellows may as well pull out, too.

Yours in Sorrow, H. I. PRICE.
