McMinnville is becoming scared about the west side road cutting off at White's station and running down through Lafayette. They are beginning to see that there is a good chance to be side tracked, and consequently they sent a man down to Portland, not long ago, to make inquiry to the proposed change, and of course he was filled fuller than a goose, with "taffy." He made a very full report to that lobby, the so called board of trade of McMinnville that all was O. K. Surely that board of trade is a wonderfull organization.—Oregon Reg-
