

WEST SIDE TELEPHONE.

McMINNVILLE, FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1887

The report of a revolution against King Kalakaua has been confirmed by news brought by the steamship Mariposa. The revolt began on June 25, a committee of the people assuming jurisdiction over the island. Resolutions were adopted at a meeting on June 30, declaring as follows: "The administration of the Hawaiian government has ceased, through corruption and incompetence, adequately to perform its functions and afford the protection to personal and property rights, for which all governments exist."

The meeting formulated the following demands on the King: "First that he shall at once and unconditionally dismiss his present cabinet from office, and we ask that he shall call one of these persons, namely, William M. Green, Henry Waterhouse, Godfrey Brown, or Mark P. Robinson to assist him in selecting a new cabinet, which shall be committed to the policy of securing a new constitution. Second, that Walter M. Gibson shall be dismissed from each and every office held by him under the government." The third and fourth demands were that the King should make restitution for $71,000 of opium bribe money and dismiss Junius Kaal, register of conveyances, who was implicated in the bribery. "Fifth, that we request a specific pledge from the King that he will not in future interfere, either directly or indirectly, with the election of representatives, and that he will not interfere with, or attempt to unduly influence legislation or legislators."

The king complied with all the demands and appointed a new ministry consisting of the following: Wm. L. Green, Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, who completed the cabinet as follows: L. A. Thurston, Minister of the Interior; Godfrey Brown, Minister of Finance; C. W. Ashford, Attorney-General.

A few interesting developments are liable to grow out of the lynching of Oscar Kelly, at Dallas. The investigation of the matter is moving quietly along and the results thus far point to a number of people who had something to do with the lynching. Judge Butler is chief investigator and is very active in sifting the slightest evidence to hard facts. It is generally supposed that arrests will be made during the coming week, which possibly may lead to the arrest of all those who had anything to do with the affair. The people not only in Polk county, but all over the county are aroused over the affair. Especially Polk county ought to do all that is possible to bring her hitherto fair name into repute again. Until justice is done the lynching of Kelly, the finger of scorn will be pointed at Polk county. Her justice will be commented upon until she becomes in the minds of many a non-energetic community. The people who are opposed to mob law are determined and swear that the Kelly affair shall not go forth to the world as a specimen of Polk county justice. No matter what Kelly deserved for the brutal killing of his wife; the fact of a mob at defiance of the law, should be condemned by all the good thinking people, not only Polk county, but everywhere. It is to be hoped the better element will win and that the participants in the brutal lynching will be brought to justice. If there is a law let it be used. There is no doubt but what Kelly would have been hung, had he had a fair trial by jury.

It makes us "tired all over" to use a vulgar expression when we see the infinitesimal amount of brain and the large amount of "midnight oil" and "faber" that is used by our republican cotemporaries trying to make out for a fact, that the presidents "battle flag" order was only a scheme to get votes from the south. The south has always been solid and it will always be, despite the large amount of republican prevarication, in order to gain for that party a few of the solid votes of the south. The energy with which the fact is taken up and criticised reminds us of the time when the republican papers seized with avidity, the idea that originated in James G. Blaine's brain; of turning the whisky tax over to the states. Even that did not secure his election, and all the time and energy devoted to the much talked of battle flag order will not make one atom of difference, in the election of Grover Cleveland should he be nominated for a second term.

The United States senate will stand, after the 4th of March, thirty-seven democrats and thirty-eight republicans. Dawes of Massachusetts and Mitchell of Oregon, were elected by democratic votes. Riddleberger, of Virginia, by voting with the democrats, ties the senate. The next senate will be democratic, as Riddleberger will be succeeded by a democrat, and if Oregon does her duty as we hope she will, a democrat will succeed Senator Dolph. There is no probability of the democrats losing any senator whose time expires on the 4th of March, 1888.—World.

At Washington Congressman Wilkins of Ohio, who has just arrived there from the Buckeye state, says ex-Senator Thurman will be nominated for re-election by acclamation at the Democratic Convention next week.

Republicans are talking of nominating a colored man, of California, for president. It would be a good thing if they did. It was a "sack," and is free in the name of it. The wire pullers might make a few dollars out of the arrangement and at the same time help the democratic party, in the nomination of him for the presidency.

The San Francisco Chronicle prints a long article charging Herbert F. Beecher collector at Port Townsend, with gross crimes, and intimates that he is guilty of a knowledge of the mysterious death of A. L. Blake, who died at Chicago from unknown causes, while on his way to Washington to prefer charges against Beecher.

The San Francisco Alta rises to announce that Mr. Blaine is to go around the earth. He has always wanted the earth, and wanted it fenced, but when he wanted the fence painted red the people drew the line and Mr. Blaine has been out of a job ever since.

In Oakland July 7, Mrs. Dutea, 22 years old, from Berkeley, appeared before Judge Gibson and told a pitiful story of desertion by her husband. She prayed for a divorce, and her wishes were granted. She had hardly been allowed to resume her maiden name of Amelia Walker before she desired to change it again. This time she would make it permanent by marrying James Melchisedech, who came from Chiti to make his home in Berkeley. Her decree of divorce and her marriage license were given her in the same envelope. Last night she celebrated her second marriage and succeeded in being known by three names in one day.
