Ayers pills are the best cathartic for correcting irregularities of the stomach and the bowels. Gentle, yet thorough in action, they cure constipation, stimulate the appetite and digestive organs, and strengthen the system.

Almost miraculous are some of the cures accomplished by the use of Ayers Sarsaparilla. In the case of R. L. King, Richmond, Va., who suffered for 47 years with an aggravated form of scrofula, Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected astonishing results.

Information wanted of Benjamin M. Rothery. He has passed all the chairs in Odd Fellowship and the A. O. U. W. His postoffice ad-

Several parties from this city attended the G. A. R. convention which was held in Albany last week. Among them was W. T.
Booth and wife; A. J. Gault and wife and A. J. Peckham. Mr. Peckham met with a serious mishap while in Corvallis; seeing a man fall into the mud "Peck" said he would not fall like that for $100, in about three minutes he fell into the mud himself from the back seat of a hack. His mark is in the mud now.

W. H. James has bought the Baker Bros. farm, adjoining "Uncle Doc" Sitons place. Charley Cook of this city has sold him 2000 fruit trees of various kinds. Mr.
James will set out 40 acres of young fruit this spring. He intends to go into the fruit growing business, and will erect a dryer as soon as the fruit trees produce. Several parties from California have been in this vicinity looking over the country with the intention of raising fruit. Oregon will soon be a great state.

Wm. Galentine on Thursday evening was suddenly taken with a stroke of paralysis. For the past several years Mr. Galentine has been unable to do heavy manual labor on account of being troubled with rheumatism of the bowels, contracted while in the service of the government during the war of the rebellion. Application has been made by him for a pension; he has been examined and everything is favorable for a pension except the affidavit from the doctor who has attended him in this city during the attacks of this disease. It is reported that the medical man will not furnish the affidavit.

At the post mortem held on the remains of Rev. T. L. Sails, Dr.
Young of this city cut out a large tumor. Dr. Boyd assisted with Mrs. Calbreath, Goucher and Dukenfield in attendance. The tumor was cancerous in its formation and very large. Medical men differed on the cause of Mr. Sails death until the autopsy showed the true cause.

ton's nursery was received here Saturday. Go ahead gentlemen and improve your places of abode.

School meeting here should be attended by all voters of the district.
Some important business to be transacted.

Boys be careful, the law against trout fishing may be enforced, as we have a lawyer in the city.

QUIDAM.
TO AN ETERNAL REST.

On Sunday morning, Feb. 26, at 8:30 o'clock, the spirit of Rev. T.
L. Sails, of the M. E. church of this city, departed from this world to the world of eternal rest. Mr.
Sails has been sick for some time past with a malady of which the only end was death. He was born in Howden, Yorkshire, England on Dec. 29, 1840. He worked at his trade, that of a ship carpenter until 1863 when he was ordained.
Since that time he has been actively and earnestly engaged in the christian ministry the M. E. church.
He was a very zealous worker in the cause of christianity and it can almost be said that he was a martyr to the cause. For the last several years he has been engaged in evangelism throughout Oregon. He was a very emotional speaker, and the exposures to which he subjected himself for the cause of christianity, was undoubtedly the ultimate cause of his death. Several months ago upon the departure of Mr. Satchwell to a new pastorate, Mr. Sails was called here, at which time he was in bad health. Since then he gradually grew worse with a stomach trouble which medical men announced cancer of the stomach. Mr. Sails knowing that death was near requested a post mortem, which was held and a tumor was found as large as a man's fist was found at the lower extremity of the stomach. In its growth it had completely closed the passage leading to the intestines allowing no food to pass through. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his calling away to the land of eternal sunshine. Services were held at the M. E. church Monday, at 2 p. m., by Rev. Wm. Roberts of Dayton.
The remains were taken to East Portland where funeral services were held.

NEWS IN GENERAL.

Week, Interspersed with Scientific, and Other Entertaining and Sound Reading Matter.

GLEANINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES HACKED AND SAWED OUT TO FIT THESE COLUMNS.

Small pox is raging in Havana, Cuba.

The president and party returned from their southern tour Sunday morning. A delightful time was enjoyed.

Agnes Pennoyer, youngest child of Governor Pennoyer, died Saturday last with spinal meningitis.
She was buried Sunday.

The Southern Pacific steamship Julia was blown up Monday morning. There was 60 persons on the boat. Seven are known to be killed.

Two citizens of Red Oak, Iowa, spent a week digging for a treasure of $80,000, which a fortune teller had told them was buried near the city.

Commodore Samuel Barron of the late confederate states navy, died at his residence in Essex county, Virginia, Sunday, aged 80 years.

The Union square theatre in New York, burned Tuesday afternoon, during a rehearsal. The loss is estimated at nearly half a million dollars.

San Francisco wants a national quarantine established at that place owing to the numerous small pox cases brought in on steamers from China.

Senator Dolph has presented a petition to the senate from the citizens of Washington territory asking an appropriation of $50,000 for the improvement of Tualatin river.

The city of Mexico levies a tax on bull fights of 15 per cent. of the gross receipts, and thus far this season the city treasury has been enriched $40,000 from this source.

The American ship John F. Berry was burned on the high seas Dec. 9th. She was loaded with a cargo of petroleum for Japan. Only fourteen out of a total of twenty-one people aboard was saved.

A new disease which puzzles all the doctors has appeared in Raleigh, N. C. The guests of one particular boarding house have grown so fat since last Wednesday that their most intimate friends would not know them. They also suffer with a fever.

Austrian engineers talk favorably of Gieszi's pilot-engine for preventing railway collisions. It is worked by electricity, under the control of the engineer, and is run at any desired distance in front of the train, which it stops automatically on encountering any obstacle.

Last Friday night, at a social in Milledgeville, Ga., Mr. Bethune Jones, a popular young man, was seized with hydrophobia. He had been bitten by a mad dog four months ago, but as no ill effects followed had forgotten all about it.
Last night he died in horrible convulsions.

Two gentlemen of Norwich, Connecticut, have had a match at cribbage together nearly every day since Jan. 1, 1882, playing in that time nearly 15,000 games. One of them is now 20 games ahead of the other, and at no time has either had the advantage by more than fifty games.

One of the most extraordinary incidents in the whole record of longevity is reported from Pesth, in Hungary, where a beggar, aged 84, tried to commit suicide by throwing himself in the Danube because he was no longer able to support his mother and father, who are one hundred and fifteen and one hundred and ten years old, respectively.
When he told his story, after his rescue, it was laughed at, but a police inquiry showed it to be true.
The family are Magyars from the extreme south of Hungary.

The immense figure of William Penn, which is designed to surmount the dome or clock-tower of the new city hall in Philadelphia, is now fairly under way. The figure, the largest in the world ever designed or finished, will, when completed, be of bronze, thirty-six feet high, and will weigh thirty tons. It represents Penn in the full vigor of manhood, and on massive proportions at once massive and impressive. The face is taken from the original painting presented to the historical society of Pennsylvania by his grandson, Granville Penn, and his figure corresponds with Dixon's description of him: "Erect in stature, every motion indicating honest pride, in every limb and feature, the expression of a serene and manly beauty." He is represented at the age of thirty-eight years, and his costume is that in vogue during the last years of the reign of Charles II., the date of his first visit to this country.

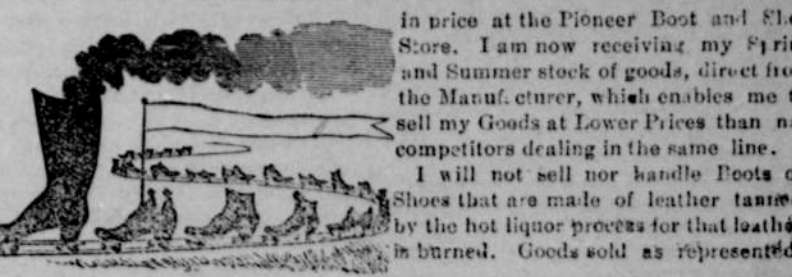

ACCEPTED.—Elder J. W. Webb has
handed in his resignation as pastor of the Christian church of Salem and has accepted the position of state organizer for the prohibition party.
He will shortly commence an active cavass of the state, beginning with Marion county.

EXHIBITION.
The exhibition at Pleasant Hill school house on Wednesday the 25th, was a complete success. The house was crowded to overflowing.
At half past seven o'clock the exercises began by singing a glee, "How beautiful upon the mountains," after which dialogues, recitations, reading, tableaux, etc., held the audience until after 10 o'clock. The tableau "Courtship" and "Matrimony" with the burning of red lights made a very pretty picture, but the burlesque by negro characters completely brought down the house. Mr. Evenden's comic comic songs "Weepin' Willer" and "Katie Kissum" was greeted with a storm of applause. Song, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," by M.
Morgan was highly appreciated.
The characters in all of the dialogues were well sustained, the singing was of the best. The song, "Good Night" was sung, after which the audience dispersed, all expressing themselves well pleased. The exhibition will be reproduced on March 17.

THE WEST SHORE.

The current number of The West Shore is accompanied by a large, tinted supplement, showing the famous Shoshone Falls, of Snake river, a cataract superior to Niagara in many respects, though carrying a smaller volume of water. These monthly supplements will continue a feature of the magazine for 1888, and will make a valuable collection, of large and spirited engravings of the most famous scenes of the Pacific northwest. The illustrations of the number are devoted to the cities of East Portland and Albina, and the Quaker settlement of New-berg, in the Chehalien valley. The literary features are especially entertaining, consisting of stories, sketches, poetry and much valuable descriptive matter. In the March number will appear the opening chapters of a highly interesting story of the great civil war, written by James P. Shaw, whose service in the army during the entire period of the rebellion qualifies him to write entertainingly of the scenes he witnessed. It is a romance of deep interest, as well to the younger generation as to those who participated in the stirring events of that period. Another feature of the March number will be illustrations of Tacoma, the city of phenomenal growth. A large supplement of Mt. Tacoma, the most magnificent snow peak in the world, will be furnished with the March issue.
The West Shore is published at Portland, Oregon, by L. Samuel, at $2.50 per year. Sample copy, 25 cents.

LITERARY AND MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—Next Friday evening at the College chapel there will be given the first of a series of a Literary and Musical entertainments, to which the public are cordially invited.

These entertainments are to take the place of the Friday afternoon Rhetorical Exercises, and the programme will be made much more varied and interesting.

The music will be furnished by the college students, assisted by Miss Bell Johnson's music class in town. At the close of the literary and musical exercises, there will be a social hour. Every effort will be made to make these entertainments both interesting and instructive.

They will probably be largely attended by the people of the city, especially by the young people.

They ought to be largely patronized by all who wish to see the college prosper, the prosperity of which means prosperity of our city.

LEPROUS CHINESE.—Multnomah county wants to get rid of her Chinese lepers. The county judge has been conferring with the officials of the Oregon & California railroad in regard to the advisability of sending the Chinese lepers now at the county poor farm to San Francisco, or some other California point, where they could be kept to better advantage. There are at present about fifteen lepers confined at the farm, and could they be disposed of it would be a great relief to a number of people.

ACCEPTED.—Elder J. W. Webb has
of the Christian church of Salem and
organizer for
