

LOUISIANA LEPEBS.

How They are Treated in the Acadian Colony by the Mississippi.

The discovery of two lepers in Philadelphia and the excitement which this event seems to have caused, was a modified reproduction of a far more serious affair, which, indeed, reached the dignity of a panic in a Southwest Louisiana town last summer.

The existence of leprosy in the Louisiana district is well known, but the fact that the lepers held intercourse with those in good health, caused little alarm of their neighbors.

The rumor of leprosy was first heard last summer. The story gathered strength as it traveled, and within a couple of weeks had reached terrifying proportions.

This condition of affairs, which continued for a few weeks, became finally intolerable, and the citizens of St. Martinville requested the State Board of Health to send a committee to the town and investigate the alleged prevalence of leprosy there.

CLEANING SILVER.

Valuable Suggestions on a Matter That Puzzles Many Housekeepers.

Every housekeeper has her own way of doing her housework, and the cleaning of silver is no exception to the rule.

Do not use the same towels you wipe your dishes with for the silver. The coarse crash, though very nice for crockery, is not fit for silver or glassware.

The general cleaning use ammonia and whiting. This can be bought already mixed, or may be prepared at home by mixing in a dish ammonia and whiting to the consistency of cream.

No Cause for Complaint. "How are times, Uncle Jerry?" he asked an old colored whitewasher on the market yesterday.

RAMESES THE GREAT.

Thoughts Suggested by an Inspector of the Mighty Pharaoh's Mummy.

The mummy of Rameses the Great was discovered in 1881, in the tomb of the priest-kings at Dayr-al-Bahari, in the territory of Thebes.

The mummy was unwrapped in the presence of Khedive Toweek and a number of illustrious individuals.

It is a unique experience to stand repeatedly and for some time beside the mummified remains of the Rameses. The thoughts and feelings that come to a person in that position, looking upon that form and into that face, are strange and impressive beyond expression.
