A NEW CHINESE BILL.

Morrow of California has drafted a new Chinese bill. The one introduced in the house by Belmont is not considered satisfactory by the Pacific coast delegation. Morrow's bill is offered for consideration only in the event that the new treaty is ratified. It provides that all Chinese laborers shall be absolutely prohibited from coming to this country. It allows ninety days after the law takes effect, for all Chinese, who are entitled to come to this country, to return. After that Chinese laborers are entirely shut out, except those who are allowed to land under the provisions of the treaty. All shipmasters are liable to a fine for bringing Chinese men to this country, and it also provides for the arrest and the sending out of the country all Chinese who are not entitled to be in this country. The bill has been carefully drawn and considered and will effectually carry out its intent.

IT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED.

The horse show Saturday brought a large number of people into McMinnville from all parts of the county. These annual horse shows are a feature of Yamhill county. The business men of this city should give their hearty support to the show of next year and make it one in which all classes of stock can be exhibited. No better advertisement for this town can be found than a well supported and well represented stallion show. It brings our merchants a large business and benefits them more than anybody and they should be willing to contribute to the success of the next one. It should be considered by them and all other people interested in the advancement of this city. Another thing: we should all enter heartily into the work of making our coming county fair a success. Talk it over, tell your friends to enter stock, do everything in your power to advance the interests of Yamhill county and McMinnville.

MEMORIAL DAY.

Will the people of McMinnville fly celebrate memorial day? During the war large numbers of the sons of our country laid down their life for the nation's cause. The people of to-day can show their appreciation of those great deeds by no other means than honoring the memory of the noble dead. We have in our midst an order comprised of the brave and valorous sons of our country who passed through the war and are active to-day; we should honor them while alive not let the honors be deferred until they have passed away. With a good will let the people of this city advocate exercises in cooperation with the G. A. R. to fittingly pay honors to the dead soldiers, on the day set apart by the nation for that purpose, Decoration Day. What honor can we pay the dead which is more solemnly sweet than strewing their graves with beautiful flowers. Their memory cherished without bringing up sad and bitter thoughts. With good will and a general effort this community should celebrate Memorial day.

JESSE APPLEGATE.

Hon. Jesse Applegate, the "Sage of Yoncalla" died in Huntington, Sunday evening. He was a prominent man in the history of Oregon, and was a member of the constitutional convention that framed the constitution of Oregon. He was born in Kentucky, and at his death was in the neighborhood of 87 years old. He was taken with a pain in the stomach Sunday night and died in a few minutes. He emigrated to Oregon in 1843, and was one of the old pioneers, of the class of Col. Nesmith and others, whose name is held in high esteem by the people of Oregon to-day. He was universally well liked. Although eccentric he was a man of ability, not a fluent talker but a good writer on all subjects. His name is being honored by all the prominent men of Oregon in articles appearing in the newspapers of the state.

Ex-senator William H. Barnum chairman of the Democratic national committee, says Cleveland will be nominated by acclamation. There will be no other name presented or thought of.

A FATAL CONFESSION.

The following letter written by congressman Binger Hermann and apparently intended for Edward McPherson of Washington D. C., the Secretary of the Republican National committee, was with absent mind addressed by the gentleman who seeks to succeed himself to Edward McPherson of Salem, Oregon, and by him made public. The screed will be repaid careful perusal.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, WASHINGTON, D. C., APRIL 9, 1888.

Hon. Edward McPherson, Dear Sir: Many of our people are feeling very sore over the long delay in the matter of the payment of that $1,000 advanced by Hon. Joseph Simon, of Portland Oregon, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee at our last election, on the sixty days promise from you as to payment. Nearly two years have elapsed. They are out of principal and interest. The Senator of Oregon as well as myself who were parties in some sense, are appealed to by Mr. Simon and friends who think great injustice has been done him. We cannot afford to have any misunderstanding at this time in Oregon, as at the best we shall have a narrow escape from defeat, if we do not suffer it. Our election on the 11th of June involves the election directly of one Senator and indirectly of the other, and of my successor, in Oregon who is to be voted for at that time. Oregon is in danger.

The Democratic State Convention has met and put in the field a strong ticket. The prohibitionists have also assembled in large and respectable numbers. They have presented a full ticket and on it are excellent men. Their candidate for Congress is an able man and will address the people of the State. Besides this they, have legislative tickets in all the Republican counties. You will observe from this that the Republican State and electoral ticket in Oregon is in peril.

Yours truly, Binger Hermann.

Sunday Welcome.

By this letter it is easily seen that Hermann is afraid and admits that his chances are slim for re-election. Gearing is the boy to make em hump. Our Gearing don't want greasing, it will run well without it.

The Republican press have repeatedly said that no mud slinging would be done by them during the campaign. They have commenced it already. It is their nature.

THE CELEBRATION AT SHERIDAN.

A Lively Day--A Large Number of Brethren Participated.

Previous to 11 o'clock on Thursday a large number of Odd Fellows had assembled in Sheridan. At 11 a. m. the Narrow Gauge train arrived bringing large delegations from Lafayette, Dayton and McCoy. The McMinnville band met them at the depot and escorted them to the hall, where regalia were put on and the procession formed for the march to the pavilion: headed by the band, the third degree men of the order following with the Rebecca behind them. Following them came members of the grand encampment, with the speaker and the president of the day following. The band played several fine airs on the way to the pavilion. At the pavilion, (the warehouse) seats had been prepared and the Odd Fellows filed in, 110 of them, and took seats. The remaining space was soon filled by visitors. The number of people present were about 600.

Lafayette, North Yamhill, Dayton, Amity, Sheridan, McCoy, Dallas and McMinnville were represented.

SCROFULA

Do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a cure for Scrofula, Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh.

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a cure for Scrofula, Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh. I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for several years, and know, if it is taken faithfully it will thoroughly cure this terrible disease. -W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn. For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried various remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking one bottle I was completely cured, and I feel it my duty to state that my cure was effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I had a few months ago been afflicted with Catarrh, and had lost my sight. I was unable to see, and I was in a very bad state of health. After taking one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I was completely cured, and I feel it my duty to state that my cure was effected by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. -M. J. Pease, S. Broad St., Boston, Mass.
