YOUR ATTENTION FOR A MOMENT

This week if personality is expressed in THE TELEPHONE, call it Heath-enism. For some time past our political friends on the opposite side have said that editorial work on this paper is not done in this office. We want the public to understand that it is; that the sentiments expressed in this paper are our own, and that parties having any kick to make against them are requested to call and interview us, and not some one else. People wishing the columns of this paper for a discussion on any subject which is clean, can have them, but we do not intend to be bulldozed into anything which our judgment says is not right. A few people in this city will understand the above items.

NOT A FRIEND TO LABOR.

When Gen. Dimond and Mr. De Young, of the Chronicle, warned the convention that the nomination of Harrison meant defeat for the Republican party on the Pacific coast, they undoubtedly knew what they were saying. Against Mr. Harrison's private character we have heard no complaints, but against his record as a friend to labor we have heard many. The most enthusiastic partisan Republicans can not call him a friend to labor. When the Chinese question was under discussion, Mr. Harrison, the present Republican nominee for president of the United States, came boldly out and stood flat footed against the demands of the Pacific coast for protection against Chinese labor. He is not a friend to labor.

TIT FOR TAT.

In the cry of "free trade" made against the democratic party we see the greatest of all misrepresentations of the facts by the republican press. The republican papers are very angry at the Democratic press for their labors in trying to show the people of America, Harrison's stand on the labor question. At the same time they make the statement that Democrats want free trade. It is false and they know it. The Democratic platform declares for a reduction of the present tariff and Democratic legislators are attempting it in the Mills bill. Tit for tat.

A SUPERHUMAN LABOR.

The Republican newspapers of the state are doing all in their power to overcome the unfavorable impression which has become seated in the minds of many owing to Harrison's Chinese record. These papers are publishing his best record. We suppose that all men have done at least a little good in their lives. Talk and blow over Harrison will not conceal his true record and his stand on all important legislation against the laboring people of this United States. They have a superhuman labor to perform if they win the day on the Pacific coast.

CHRISTIANITY vs. LIBERALISM.

Excitement between the Christians and Liberalists of this city, has been intense during the last week, owing to lectures given by Mr. S. P. Putnam, the Liberal and Mr. Clark Braden. Mr. Braden is a man of some prominence in the literary field and an advocate of Christianity as taught in the Bible. Mr. Putnam is president of the Secular Union and is also prominent in the literary and lecture fields. A good deal of bad feeling has been brought about by these two men being in the city at the same time. Mr. Putnam delivered a lecture at the Opera house, Saturday evening; after the lecture Mr. Campbell, pastor of the Christian church, made the announcement that the lecture would be reviewed by Mr. Braden, immediately at the Christian church and the crowd which attended Mr. Putnam's lecture went to the church and heard Mr. Braden review it. To an impartial judge, which THE TELEPHONE intends to always be in a religious discussion, it seems that Mr. Braden is too harsh, and that in the true acceptance of the word "gentleman," it does not become necessary to call an opponent an "ignoramus" because he differs with him, in order to have the honor of being a gentleman. Mr. Putnam undoubtedly read as much and read the same line of thought as Mr. Braden to come to his present belief. Mr. Braden, in the introduction to his book entitled, "Problems of Problems," states that his first success in the lecture field was attained by lectures delivered in favor of Liberal thought in other words he then was an "ignoramus" and only attained his present position by changing his belief. Is this logic. Mr. Braden, we are sorry to say, is not creating a favorable impression. He, as an advocate of Christianity, in its pure and perfect light, is not a success. But as a Christian debator, always ready, and spoiling for a fight, prepared at any time to furnish the necessary corpses for two or three first class funerals, (these are his own words) we are sorry to say he is a success.

THE "PECULIAR PEOPLE."

The London Daily News gives a summary of a lecture by F. D. McCatta on the Jews of the world. Whatever may be said against them, the Jews, as a people, are a subject of peculiar interest. Their tenacity, energy, shrewdness, cleanliness, racial peculiarities, strongly marked features, and their ability to compete successfully with any and every people on the earth, and the fact that they are scattered through every nation, present them from so many points of view, that they cannot be overlooked in any discussion, commercial, professional or religious.

In Great Britain and Ireland there are about 100,000 Jews, of whom seven-tenths are in London. In the British colonies there are less than 20,000. In Paris there are 40,000, and 30,000 in the rest of France. There are 600,000 Jews in Germany, and 500,000 in America. In the northern coasts of Africa and in Abyssinia there are many and 50,000 in Persia. It is said that they can be found in every state in South America. In Poland they are very numerous. Those in the Holy Land are not in a very happy condition. While the Turkish government tolerates them, it does not now favor immigration into Palestine, a circumstance attributed to fear of the inroad of European ideas. Of those who are there, many are devoted to Hebrew studies, while the rest eke out a miserable livelihood by small industries, aided by money sent to them from various countries, which is doled out to them in small sums.

Sam Randall has been quite sick but is now better. At one time he was dangerously ill.

Senator Quay of Pennsylvania has been chosen chairman of the republican national committee. He also has a record and it is not one of truth either.

After the "granger candidates" were all killed, the convention selected Gen. Harrison, who is a railroad attorney himself and a partner of Steve Elkins in a cattle syndicate.—Chicago Tribune. (Rep.)

Benj Harrison voted against the bill which was introduced to keep the Chinese out of this country for ten years. Ben Harrison cares a whole lot about the people on this coast. Rise up and let him know by our votes that a few people on this coast see him in his true light.

We have received a communication from Willamina which we are sorry to say is altogether too long for publication. Space cannot be given it. It is an essay by Miss Sadie Wilson which gave a graphic history of the settlement of Oregon. The address was good and it is with regret that we say that space will not admit of its publication.

The republican convention which was held in Chicago, made a platform in which it is said that the republican party wanted protection but did not define its true stand. Does it want to protect labor or capital. It is our opinion that this point has been settled in the nomination of Benj Harrison. He is a known factor against the working man. If a man is nominated by the political bosses of any party who is in favor of driving the poor people to the wall, it stands to reason that the men who nominated him are inclined the same way. If these same bosses who helped to nominate him, work for him during the campaign, it publishes to the people that the republican party is not a friend of labor.

A citizen of Oregon who has visited Gettysburg says that nearly all legitimate industry in the community round about the battlefield has been abandoned, and the people live mostly on those who visit the famous locality. They sell pretended relics and poor photographs. Carriages are needed to go from place to place, for the battlefield covers an area of twenty-five miles, and the people take full advantage of every one who wants to hire a buggy or hack. Accommodations are meager, yet extortionate prices are charged for everything. Of course it is useless to protest, or to say it is a shame that money and cupidity should rule on holy ground. The almighty dollar is not in the least sentimental.—Oregonian.

COPP'S LAND REVIEW.

Women's Rights Under the Pre-emption and Other Land Laws.

Continuing the subject of last week's letter, I will give a few points respecting women's rights under several statutes, beginning with the

PRE-EMPTION LAW

A widow or maid over twenty-one years of age is entitled to land upon compliance with the statutory requirements respecting pre-emption. Full citizenship is not a requirement, declaration of intention being all that is necessary in that respect.

Any woman who is the head of a family, though less than twenty-one years old, if otherwise qualified, may secure land under these laws.

A married woman is not entitled to the right of pre-emption. A single woman who marries after filing her declaratory statement and before making any proof and payment, forfeits all rights as a pre-emptor and cannot acquire title to the land, though she and her husband continue to reside thereon.

In the event of the death of a pre-emptor before making proof and payment, the title may be perfected by or for the benefit of the heirs. Ordinarily widows are not heirs, and cannot make final proof and payment for their own benefit. In some states widows are by statute made heirs of their husbands, and where such is the case, there should be no other heirs, the widow may perfect and enjoy the title to the land. Should there be several heirs the widow as one of them may perfect the title for the benefit of all. Where the state allows the widow only a dower right—or life estate—in the property of her deceased husband, she cannot acquire title to his pre-emption claim, but may as guardian make proof and payment for the benefit of minor heirs.

UNDER THE TIMBER CULTURE LAWS, any unmarried woman over the age of twenty-one, or any single woman who is the head of a family, under that age may enter and perfect title to land.

No residence is required on timber culture entries, and marriage after initiating entry will not effect the rights of a woman to perfect title. The acts of cultivation, planting, etc., required by statute may be done by an agent as well as by the entry-woman in person.

THE DESERT LAND LAW,

authorizes any woman, whether married or single, who is a citizen of the United States, or of requisite age may be entitled to and has filed her declaration to become such citizen, to initiate entry and acquire title to land upon compliance with its requirements. She may employ an agent to perform the acts necessary to reclaim the land as well as herself. The wife's right to take land under this law is not abridged or interfered with by reason of her husband having exercised the privileges extended by the law.

THE STONE AND TIMBER LAND LAW, applicable to the states of California, Oregon and Nevada and Washington territory, extends the privilege of entry to the extent of one-hundred and sixty acres to every citizen of the United States or every person who has filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen, regardless of sex.

Married and single women stand upon an equal footing with men under this law.

Rights may be abridged only by the voluntary acts of the person. The law allows but one hundred and sixty acres to be taken by one person or association of persons. Of course any one who is a member of an association making entry under this act waives his or her individual entry right.

It is held that a married woman in California cannot make an entry under this act with community (family) money, if her husband has exercised his privilege of entry under the act. Under such circumstances the husband and wife are considered as an "association of persons," and entitled to but one entry.

THE MINERAL LAND LAWS, extend to women all the rights and privileges that men may exercise or enjoy, without regard to the marital relation.

AT PUBLIC SALES OF LANDS women stand upon equal terms with men, and further they may purchase as great a quantity of land as at PRIVATE ENTRY as they may be able to find subject to disposal in that manner or as they have the cash script or warrants to pay for.
