WAYS OF SHOPPERS.

MONDAY THE BARGAIN HUNTERS' DAY IN THE STORES.

Wednesday the Farmer's Wife Comes to Town—Thursday the "Lady Help" Comes Forth in Her Glory—A Rush on Saturday.

"Every day brings forth a different class of shoppers," said Inspector Knox, of Boston's police headquarters, to a reporter.

The officer has been long in the business to get caught napping in this way, and the thief will gradually come to believe that he has not been observed.

Monday, said Inspector Knox to the reporter, "is the bargain hunters' day."

WITH A TURTLE HUNTER.

CATCHING KENTUCKY SNAPPERS TO MAKE FREE LUNCH OF.

How the Snapper Lies in Wait and Pulls in the Quarry Mollard—Sweeping Up the Game—Steel Traps, Rifle and Fish Hooks.

A wild mallard duck with a curled tail and four wings, was quietly taking his breakfast in the bosom of his family the other morning along the creek.

Henry, who he thought he fastened on the west bank of the Licking river at the mouth of Bank Lick creek, Kentucky county.

"Holy smoke! That must be a big fellow," remarked French Henry, as he rowed toward the water where the ducks had been feeding.

"Then he loves cherries better than his mother?" "Five times as well." "He will come to some bad end, will he not?"

"No, my son. He will continue fat and healthy, get the first pick of all that's good, and live to be rich and respected."

FISHING FOR TROUT.

The Necessary Outfit—Skill Required to Make a Lucky Fisherman.

Trout fishing is of two kinds—bait fishing with earth worms in the ponds and streams and the casting of flies on the surface of the water.

When a sinker is used in bait fishing, as it must be, it should be fastened so that the loop in the gut or snail of the hook is above it.

A JAMAICA MORNING.

SCENES NOTED BY A TRAVELER WHILE IN KINGSTON.

Some Odd Characters About the Hotel, Victoria Market—Frites of Establishments, Beef, Mutton and Vegetables—The Danger of Night Air.

Early every morning there were curious scenes around Park lodge. In Jamaica the negroes have to some extent the unpleasant habit, common to the colored inhabitants of all the West India islands, of standing immobile by the quarter hour staring at anything that attracts their attention.

It was no uncommon thing to see four or five colored ladies and gentlemen, with loaded trays balanced on their heads, standing in front of the Park lodge gates at once fairly drinking in the Oriental magnificence.
