W. C. Hembree, a Good Choice For President.

Saturday afternoon the stockholders of the fair association assembled in the council chambers and elected officers for the ensuing year. For president they selected W. C. Hembree a man who is well qualified for that office and in the opinion of THE TELEPHONE no better could be found; he is energetic, a farmer and will take hold of the management with a hand that will make a success of the Yamhill fair.

S. A. Manning was elected vice president; C. W. Talmage, secretary; C. P. Bishop, treasurer. For directors a good choice was made. They are C. Braly, W. A. Hlyaw, E. Wright, J. M. Hulery, Rob. McDonald. This association would receive the hearty support of the people of this county.

The Tramp Nuisance.

The Evening Telegram of Portland says: "The Albany authorities have discovered a novel way of ridding that town of tramps. The tramps are confined in the rickety old jail, then some one gets behind the building, tears off a few boards and gets the tramps out. Of course if the fugitives were captured, the additional charge of jail breaking would be added, and as they only care to remain in jail for the short time that the charge of vagrancy would permit, they prefer not to be captured, and consequently make tracks for other parts. The plan can hardly be said to work successfully however, as the jail is full of tramps nearly every night, and the same fellows are often incarcerated one night after another. The only effectual remedy seems to be hard work on the streets, and some such light diet as weak tea and dried apples."

MARRIED.

Saturday night at the residence of W. G. Henderson the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Nettie Henderson to W. W. Estabrook was performed by Rev. G. F. Round. Among the presents were a china tea set, silver fruit dish, silver teaspoons, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Henderson; carving set, Mr. O. H. Adams; quilt, Mrs. O. H. Adams and Miss Inez Adams; silver knives and forks, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones; set napkins, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Scott; silver gravy spoon, Mrs. R. White; water pitcher, Dr. J. F. Calbreath; silver napkin rings, Mr. Oscar Williamson; silver napkin rings, Mr. Dick Johnson; silver tabbiespoons, Mr. Frank Adams; silver pickle caster, W. H. Logan; silver pie spoon, Miss Hattie Sweet; silver sugar spoon, Miss Aggie L. Johnson; fruit basket, Miss Kate Johnson; melon platter, Mrs. M. Died.

On October 27, 1888, in the city of Portland, Allen B. Baker died. Mr. Baker was born in Thurston county, W. T. on June 24, 1855. Came to Yamhill in 1874. He was interested in the drug business while here and made many friends. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and I. O. O. F. He was appointed railway postal clerk between Portland and Tacoma and was one of the most efficient. He was buried with the rites of the I. O. O. F., at Lafayette. A wife and one child mourn for him.

A CHALLENGE.

I hereby challenge Jan Long of North Yamhill to run a foot race of 100 yards for the championship of Yamhill county and any man he wants to put up. If an am beaten I will also give him the medal for the championship of Oregon which I wear at the p. cent time. Wm. MARTIN.

MONEY WANTED.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to us are requested to call and settle by the first of the month, and greatly obliged.

CALBREATH & GOTCHER.

THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY

Will Nominate a Ticket This Evening.

THE ISSUE IS CLEAR OUT.

And All in Favor of Improvements are Requested to be in Attendance.

The need of waterworks and general improvement in the condition of this city is very apparent to every stranger who enters this city. THE TELEPHONE has agitated the question and will keep on doing so until something is accomplished. The following is a notice which has been handed in for publication. It explains itself:

NOTICE.

A convention for the nomination of candidates for city officers will be held in Garrison's opera house, Friday Nov. 2nd, 1888, at 7 o'clock p. m.

All persons interested in the prosperity of the city and especially those who favor the immediate construction of suitable works to supply the city with water are earnestly requested to be present and assist in nominating a progressive ticket.

O. O. HOPSON, A. J. APPERSON, GEO. W. BURT, E. B. FELLOWS, Wm. GALLOWAY, G. F. TUCKER, Jno. J. SPENCER, H. L. HEATH.

From the above we arrive at the conclusion that men are desired on the ticket who will pledge themselves to needed improvements in the city. This party is in for improvements, but do not advocate the expenditure of money recklessly. The issue is clear and clear cut and all who array themselves on the opposite side are not desirous of seeing the city prosper and become the best town on the west side. It has the foundation for this and with the right council we can begin the march toward that goal now. Let us begin Friday night by nominating a ticket of good wise and respectable men, who are in favor of improvements. Let us nominate a ticket in whose integrity there can be no fraud; one in which the people have confidence; one whose object will be to advance the growth of the town; one which will enforce the ordinance passed.

YAMHILL IN THE EAST

A Letter From Chas. Fleming who is in Michigan with a Display of Yamhill Productions.

Grande Ledge Mich., Oct. 24.

EDITOR TELEPHONE: Dear Sir,

As you requested me to let you know what the people of Michigan thought of the display of Yamhill fruits, grains, grasses and woods, which I brought with me, I will try and give you something of an idea. I shipped my display by express on the same train I took, by way of the N. P. R. R. The box weighed over 500 pounds. I left Portland on the 12th, and arrived in Lansing, Mich., on the 18th, where I found my box safe and sound. Upon opening it I found the contents in as good condition as when I started for the east.

The next thing in order was to have the box taken to the fair grounds, where I found that the managers of the fair had reserved one of the finest corners in the large fruit hall for my display. Here I arranged the specimens in fine shape and then set the whole off by placing the four Oregon mountain views on each side, making it very attractive. When all was arranged I retired to see if the exhibit would attract the attention of a Michiganander, but it did not take me long to make up my mind in regard to that, for as soon as the crowd began to come in, you could see them crowd around the corner and Yamhill was soon the center of attraction to the large number of people in attendance. As they crowded around you could hear all kinds of expressions of surprise at the wonderful exhibit. Among them we heard the following remarks: "Why! Can they raise fruit in Oregon? I did not know that apples would grow there. Can they raise grain like that in Oregon? How much does it go to the acre? What part of Oregon was it grown in? Where is Yamhill county? What kind of a place is McMinnville? How large is it? Do you have mountains like that in Oregon? Can you see them from McMinnville? Is that some of your timber? What kinds of timber do you have in Oregon? What are those plums? Did those peaches grow in Oregon? etc. etc. Everything I had was far ahead of anything Michigan could bring up, and from the time the gates were open in the morning there was a crowd and jam around the Yamhill display. It was just the same at the Charlotte fair, Yamhill eclipsed every thing. The display is now in Grand Ledge daily. The weather here is cold and rainy and has been ever since I have been here, and it is just the weather to make a Yamhiller think of home and don't you forget it. Well I will bring this to a close. Hoping to be in McMinnville soon, I remain in love with Yamhill. CHAS. FLEMING.
