What Some of Its Leafy Farmers Say.

Martin & Sanders. Dear Sirs:—I have used and handled a great many machines and I have found your Cutting Box and the best I ever handled or saw used.

North Yamhill, Or., Oct. 3, 1888. Martin & Sanders. Dear Sirs:—The Belle City Feed cutter I bought of you last winter gives good satisfaction, better than any other machine around here, it cuts very fast for a small machine. I would recommend the Belle City to any other.

C. Zimmermann. McMinnville, Or., Nov., 20, 1888. Gentlemen:—Yours of a recent date duly received. In reference to the Belle City Feed cutter, I would say that my No. 3 is all I could desire. I have speeded up to about 600 revolutions, and it is only a question of getting the hay in the machine. I am well satisfied in every respect. It has the only practical feed I have seen. viz: the two corrugated rollers.

A. M. Waddle. Mr. C. G. Scott, of Carlton, Or., writes in reference to the Belle City Feed cutter, it gives perfect satisfaction and can recommend it to any one that wants to buy a feed cutter.

Carlton, Or., No. 17, 1888. Messrs. Martin & Sanders. McMinnville, Or. Gentlemen:—Permit me to say that the No. 6 Belle City Feed cutter I purchased from you some time ago has given me perfect satisfaction, and in case I should ever require another I would buy one constructed on the same principle.

J. W. Wenderberg. Mr. C. C. Walker, a leading farmer of Polk county, writes of the Belle City Feed cutter, I am well pleased with the machine. I will say it is the best fodder cutter I have ever used, being far superior to the Baldwin.

GRANDE RONDE LETTER.

The Stewach Court Assembles. A Great time.

Grand Ronde Agency, Jan. 12, 1889. EDITOR TELEPHONE.—Doubtless many of your readers remember reading A. B. Meehan's account of the temporary suspension of the Thompson allotment in 1871. Another occurred here last Monday. On Saturday evening I left my surveying outfit at Litchfield's store where we quit work, with instructions for my assistant to meet me there at noon on Monday. I was there at the appointed time but no assistant. After waiting for an hour I rode over to the Agency to see what was wrong. When I came in sight I saw the fences lined with horses but not an Indian in sight. In explanation I will say there is a court house and an Indian court on the Grand Ronde which exercises powers not granted the county courts this court. It consists of three judges, a sheriff and prosecuting attorney and does a general probate business; tries cases both civil and criminal, and not only marries people but divorces them. This court house is used for general purposes.

It was in this building that Fenton disbanded his crew more than a year ago and a number of old cloth grub sacks are seen lying around with the remnants of their contents untouched to this day. It was "Hopkins choice" that induced Colonel Collins to select this building as his office, and as a natural consequence I first went to this office to ascertain the cause of detention. When I opened the door I beheld a crowd of Indians and one of my claimmen, eye-glasses on, book and pencil in hand looking very dignified occupying the chief justice bench with two associate judges, while my other claimman sat as sheriff. They were trying a case of scandal that would have gone unnoticed by the white man's court. One day was lost in the allotment of lands but justice triumphs on the Grand Ronde.

ALIEN CONTRACT LABOR LAW.

A Clause Which Provides for the Payment of Informers.

Collector of Customs Hyman Abrams has received from C. S. Fairchild, secretary of the treasury, the following copy of the section in the deficiency bill, approved October 19, 1888, authorizing the secretary of the treasury to pay to the informers a share of the fines collected under the act of February 26, 1885, viz: That the act approved February 26, 1885, entitled "An act to prohibit the importation and immigration of foreigners and aliens under contract or agreement to perform labor in the United States, Territories and the District of Columbia," be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to authorize the secretary of the treasury to pay to an informer who furnishes original information that the law has been violated such a share of the penalties recovered as he may deem reasonable and just, not exceeding 40 per cent, where it appears that the recovery was had in consequence of the information thus furnished.

Collectors of customs, commissioners of immigration and others, upon receiving information that immigrants have been imported into this country and allowed to land contrary to the provisions of the above act, will ascertain the names and addresses of all such immigrants, and the date of their arrival, and forthwith report the same to the secretary of the treasury, together with such facts and circumstances relating to their importation as may be obtained, and also the name of the importing vessel, or, if entering from an adjoining country, the name of the person, company, or corporation, contracting for the services of such immigrants.

IT WAS KELLOGG'S TREAT.

How His Generosity with Whiskey Got Him Into Trouble.

E. J. Kellogg and two friends who reside near the Grand Ronde Indian reservation celebrated New Years in a hilarious manner. Their way home led across the Grand Ronde Indian reservation, and in the journey Kellogg was the trusted custodian of the bottle full of whiskey bought by the party to prolong the spree. Indians were met, and on one or two occasions were kindly permitted to sample the contents of the bottle. Kellogg did not mind this, but would be so ungrateful as to accept a treat and then inform on the party who treated them, but he did not take the treacherous character of the aborigine into consideration. No wonder, then, that he was back turned that the noble red man informed the agent on the reservation, and a warrant was issued for Kellogg's arrest. Yesterday United States Deputy Marshal H. C. Myers brought Kellogg to this city and he was committed to the county jail to await trial on a charge of disposing of liquor to Indians.—Portland News.

A NEW HOTEL WANTED.

The accommodations in the city not large enough.

Wednesday night every hotel in this city was filled, so that people coming in on the 8 o'clock train had to rustle pretty lively to obtain a bed. The business done in this city has increased during the past year enormously and is growing greater every day. The need of more accommodations for the traveling public is being felt and our hotel men should increase the size of their houses or there will be a new hotel put up. A large hotel is needed and the best place in the city for it, is the vacant block on the corner of Third and D Streets. It is the center of the city and if a large building was erected on it to be used as stores below with an hotel office on the first floor and sleeping rooms above, it would be a paying investment to the builder. This idea is being talked of considerably and will we hope amount to something.

The Popular Vote.

Cleveland's majority on the popular vote, according to returns as published in the New York Tribune, is 99,355 or 50 per cent greater than in 1884, when he was chosen president by having a majority in the Electoral College. The New York Tribune is especially industrious in this direction. In order to maintain its assertion that Harrison has a majority of the popular vote, it "goes back of the returns" from the South, and re-arranges the vote on the basis of 1876. Louisiana and South Carolina, it contends, cannot have increased their majority of 55,000 for Cleveland, the Tribune places them in the Harrison column. This is a harmless amusement, says the Louisville Courier Journal, and might be recommended to the keepers of asylums for the feeble minded. If it is to be taken seriously, we fail to see what is the use in having an election at all. It would just be as well to refer the whole matter to the Republican National Committee, and let that body of distinguished patriots make up the returns to suit themselves. All such claims are absurd. Under the forms of the law, Harrison will be elected President of the United States in January. No one is disposed to dispute his election, but if it depended on the vote of South Carolina, that vote would be counted as returned, and not as revised by the Tribune. If we are to go back to 1886 for figures, we will take those for the whole country, and show a popular majority for the Democratic candidate of 250,000.—E. O.
