HARDING & HEATH. BUILDING'S NEEDED.

The sale of the Hartman property on the corner of Third and C Streets brings prominently to capitalists in this city the need of more accommodations for our business men. Mr. Apperson has an immense stock of goods and at present there is no suitable building to move his stock of goods into. There are several very sightly corners in this city which are vacant and they should be immediately filled with fine brick structures. The increase of business in this city during the past year demands vantage of every opportunity which "Put, I pray thee, thy hand under this date. presents itself for the upbuilding of this place, McMinnville will soon be away ahead of all the valley towns.
