The kind of a friend the newspaper likes, is the one who subscribes for it, and not the one who comes in and wishes the paper's prosperity but contributes nothing toward its success, but on the contrary borrows his neighbor's paper to read.

The Portland Business college, of Portland, Oregon, has made for itself an enviable reputation for doing thorough work in all its departments.

Last Friday, at noon, the pupils attending Muddy valley school having gone upon the hill back of the school house to play, were attracted to where a dog was scratching in the ground.

Josef Heine, the wonderful blind musician, with his wife and daughter, was here Monday and Tuesday nights and gave our people entertainments that they can long remember.

Announces for 1889 are out. Did you ever notice the poor chap who has taken his position in the first picture in the almanac, with the fish and sheep and scorpions and bulls and lions and other animals about him?

Clark Braly has lost a very fine black and tan bitch. He will pay $2.50 for its return. A. J. Apperson will move into the Burns property, formerly occupied by F. W. Redmond.

Teeth extracted without pain by the application of local anesthetics. G. S. Wright, dentist. All the prominent business men of the city have given up their business to monkey with a new puzzle.

W. T. Booth began to pull down his buildings on Third street, Monday, in order to erect a fine 35x58 shop. I. A. Macrum of Portland, was in the city Monday, in attendance at the meeting of the McMinnville National bank.

Wm. Martin has opened the neatest bar in the city at Cook's hotel. It is stocked with the choicest wines, liquors and cigars. Wednesday Peder Moller and Kristian Nielson, natives of Denmark, declared their intention to become American citizens, before Clerk Hobbs.

All persons interested in the camp ground near Gant's bridge are requested to meet Saturday, 23d of this month, on the ground. W. L. Molloy. Elder Hanham of Hood River, and late of Illinois, will commence a series of meetings in the Christian church, in this city on Friday evening, March 1st.

The M. E. church south is having a nice little light on their lands. The Benton Leader is engaged in the fray for the opposition and blood flows every issue. The columns of THE TELEPHONE-REGISTER are open to the people of Yamhill county.

Since the clerk has been installed in the new court house he has issued three papers for divorces, and has issued three prospective ones. He has only issued one marriage license. Mr. Willis, of the Portland World, was in the city last week in the interests of his paper.

With feelings of gratitude towards the McMinnville Fire department, and admiration for their many efforts to quell the monster during our recent fires, and witnessing the inadequate or almost useless machinery with which they had to work, the ladies of the Coffee club have determined to give an entertainment to raise funds to help procure better apparatus.

To this purpose the club met at Mrs. N. H. Hodson's on the corner of Third and Third streets on February 22d, the anniversary of the organization of the fire department, as well as Washington's birthday. The literary entertainment is in charge of a very able committee.

Married in the Catholic church of East Portland, Feb. 4th, 1889, by Rev. Father Fahland, John J. Resing to Miss Dovie Hill, formerly of Yamhill county. The bride was well and favorably known in this county, being born and raised in Lafayette.

THE "HOME COMFORT" RANGE.

Menford Or., June 15th, 1888. The following is from the Medford Advertiser: This week we regret to note the fact that the superintendent and salesman of the Wrought Iron Co., who have been associated with us for the past two months, are soon to depart for a new field of labor.

For us these gentlemen came amongst us as strangers, we supposed they like a great many traveling men did a reckless business. We are pleased to say their business has been conducted here in a manner worthy of the respect and patronage of any community.

They have been at Medford they have sold and delivered nearly two hundred of their "Home Comfort" Ranges, dealing exclusively with the best citizens of this (Jackson) and adjoining counties, and we have heard a number of purchasers who have thoroughly tested the ranges, speak of them in the highest terms.

They have circulated considerably cash in this community and have always been prompt to meet every contract. Success will naturally follow any set of men who conduct business as the gentlemen representing the Wrought Iron Range Co. We, the undersigned citizens of Medford, therefore cheerfully recommend them to any community.

J. B. Riddle, proprietor Riddle house, B. E. Beatty & Co., real estate dealers, G. F. Morrison, leasing blacksmith, W. M. Crosby, deputy sheriff, John B. Wrisley, real estate and farmer, B. S. Persons will be thoroughly canvassed and every person will have a chance to see for themselves the true merits of the Range. TESTIMONIALS FROM PEOPLE NEAR US WHO HAVE USED IT WITH GREAT SATISFACTION. Below we publish a few of the many testimonials of people who are using and are highly pleased with the "Home Comfort" range, especially that of neighbors, as always the best:

SHERIDAN, Yamhill Co., Feb. 10th, 1889. Wrought Iron Range Co.—Gentlemen:—I purchased a Home Comfort range K some two months ago and the more we use it the better we like it. It does all that is claimed for it and more. It has proven indeed to be a "Home Comfort" to us. Yours respectfully, W. C. DAVIS.

STEVENS, Polk Co., Or., Nov. 26. The Home Comfort Range Co purchased of Mr. Bradshaw is perfect and my wife would not part with it at any price if she could get another like it. We have been using ranges for several years and pronounce the Home Comfort the best. Respectfully, A. H. COLLINS.

Home Comfort ranges are manufactured of the best wrought steel and malleable iron. The flues are all lined with asbestos, a material absolutely indisturbable by fire. They are made by the Wrought Iron Range Co., of St. Louis, Mo., and are sold by them exclusively to the people. Our Exchange.

The McMinnville TELEPHONE and REGISTER have consolidated under the hyphenated name and will be issued as a semi-weekly. It is a good combination. —Polk County Observer.

The new consolidated Yamhill paper is to be called THE TELEPHONE-REGISTER, Harding & Heath, proprietors. They propose to do big things and as the Register is bulging ahead, we may expect to see and hear of more vigorous newspaper work in that county than ever before. —Times.

THE TELEPHONE and REGISTER, two democratic papers at McMinnville, have done the sensible thing of consolidating under one management. Harding & Heath, proprietors, are good newspaper men and will dish up pabulum to the democrats of Yamhill in tip top style. —Salem Statesman.

The McMinnville TELEPHONE and the REGISTER have been consolidated, and will hereafter appear as the TELEPHONE-REGISTER. The proprietors promise a fine paper for its patrons, and a large outfit will be added, including a steam power press. The new paper will be democratic, as were the old ones. —Benton Leader.

The McMinnville TELEPHONE and REGISTER have consolidated and will whop upon the democracy of Yamhill in good power press. The new paper will be democratic, as were the old ones. —Benton Leader.

Several days ago the village of Albany, situated on the Willamette river, in the southern portion of the state, had a sensation. It was the marriage of a gypsy queen to a dusky youth of the gypsy camp. These people have been camped near that town for some time.

For two days they were conspicuous on the street, sometimes on ponies and sometimes walking in a procession. The bride was attired in a most extravagant manner. Her bridal train was made by a fashionable milliner and dressmaker of Albany, and she was accordingly bedecked with $5 worth of pieces being suspended from her shoulders. A license was duly obtained and they were united with religious ceremony. They made it a gala day and ended by getting drunk in the evening.

One brood mare, one span of good work horses well matched, one yearling colt, one three-year-old gelding. The above can be bought on easy terms, for further particulars call and see me at McMinnville National Bank, time will be given until October 1, 1889. CLARK BRALY.

CARLTON.

Beautiful weather. Good time now to sow your early garden sassa. Mrs. F. F. Blood is now recovering from quite a sick spell. Prof. Griffith is this week giving a course of lectures here on phrenology.

Farmers are improving these fine days and soon there will be a number of acres sown. Mrs. Maggie Shadden of McMinnville, was a guest of Mrs. C. Hendrix this week. Come again Maggie. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Edson has been quite sick but am glad to say is fast recovering.

Last but not least Carlton is the place to buy goods cheap. Call on W. A. Howe and be convinced of the fact. He stayed until about 12 o'clock, and when he heard the words "I'll start for young man," took a B line for home. Fox.

SOUTH PRECINCT. Most all of the farmers are plowing and many of them are sowing. Joel Martin has been very sick, but is able to attend the house. James McPhillips is staying in town this week, and is gradually improving in health.

Neighbor B. McPhillips has gone to Big Neck, where he will spend the summer. Many apple trees are yet loaded with apples. Who ever saw that at this time of the year? The wheat and wild oats are very thick, as there has been no freeze to kill out the latter.

Mr. Vernaake, formerly of Kansas, but of late one of our neighbors, will soon move to Forest Grove. Elsie Wright is draining his farm with tile. It is a good idea and many of our farmers should do likewise. Mrs. Rennie Mulkey is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Mulkey was very ill, but is now better.

Mr. J. T. Jolly is being visited by his father, Dr. Wm. Jolly, of Portland. Miss Rose, his granddaughter, will accompany him home. PROBATE COURT. Elmira Olds estate; fourth semi-annual account approved.

FUCKEYVILLE. Farmers are busy plowing. Dick still hangs on that front gate. The mill will be ready for work in a few days. Puckerville is rejoicing over the prospects of a wedding soon. Lewis Gilbert will move into the house formerly occupied by Pierce Ashery. We are sadly in need of new sidewalks, the old ones are becoming dangerous.

Miss Mattie Gilbert has gone to McMinnville to visit her friend, Mrs. Lu Austin. Luther Newman of McM spent Sunday in our burg. The attraction seems to be at the mansion. Our worthy citizen, Fred Little, bade us farewell Monday and started for Seattle, where he will reside in the future.

The party at Mr. John Stallop's on the 1st inst, was an enjoyable affair. Quite a number was present, and all seemed to have a good time tripping the light fantastic until late hour. Among those present we noticed Miss Emma Smith, Misses Manie, Lina and Lizzie Gilbert, Miss Alice Kidder, Mr. Luke Morris and wife, George and James Anderson, Dick, Will and Sam Smith, Fred and Geo. Balmer, Mel Woods, James Pierce, Barr Kidder, Mr. Balby. BLUE EYES.

COUNTY COURT.

The County Buildings at Lafayette conveyed to that Town. The county court of Yamhill county began its session on Feb. 11th. A long list of bills were allowed for which we have not the space this week to publish. L. H. Baker, county superintendent, was allowed to choose a room, suitable for his use any where in the court house and to purchase a secretary for the use of his office and also a suitable table. The county court ordered that a conveyance be made to the trustees of the town of Lafayette, in trust, for all the county property at Lafayette, save and except the iron work in the jail and except the vault in the old clerk's office. Howard Succumb.

Frank Howard, the desperate five year convict who cut his hand off to avoid work, has relented and now says that as soon as he is able he will go to work. His arm is paining him considerably now, but W. W. Saunders, in the absence of medical attendants, carefully looked after the handgates, and sees that all goes well. Howard until this morning declared that his right hand should follow his left before he would perform labor, but calm afterthought and painful meditation have brought the convict to a realization of his position and he has decided to succumb. —Journal.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury. As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucus surfaces. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced to bed, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and had no return of the disease.
