THE TRIAL OF MCKUNE.

The Evidence of the Bewley Shooting Affair.

A FULL FORCE OF LAWYERS.

The Jury Secured After Excusing Twenty-Two.

Wednesday morning, at the time appointed for the trial of Willard McKune for the shooting of Jas. F. Bewley during the smallpox quarantine last fall, found the court house full.

After the jury had been sworn Mr. Magers addressed them, setting forth the prosecution, after he had completed his talk, Mr. Hurley spoke in behalf of the defense.

Mr. Bewley was the first witness called. She stated that Mr. Bewley left his city on Thursday morning, September 25th, to attend to business both at Sheridan and at the farm.

off, but saw McKune come up, hold his hand up, pull his revolver and shoot Bewley; he immediately fired another shot, I supposed at James Bewley, but could not tell.

Live in Sheridan, was in McMinnville on day of shooting, and J. F. Bewley and Bellevue, Bewley said he was going to his ranch but not going through Sheridan, told Bewley of the quarantine, he spoke as though he knew all about quarantine and guards.

Resided in Polk county at time of shooting, was in Sheridan that day, saw Willard McKune enter drug store and then go to J. F. Bewley, saw Bewley get into cart and McKune also make a gesture, heard pistol shot and saw Bewley fall from cart.

Resided in Sheridan, post-master and was on sidewalk in front of office, Bewley sat in cart in front of stable, McKune came up and spoke to Bewley.

Beautiful weather. The grouse hooted but the boys can't shoot them. Miss Daisy Stott paid Carlton a visit last week.

Mrs. C. Hendrix visited her old friend, Mrs. Stott, at North Yamhill. Mr. Editor, please turn our red school-house children right side up.

Mr. Chas. E. Ladd, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Howe. Last Sunday night while Mr. C. Hendrix, wife and little boy were riding in a cart, by some unaccountable cause the cart was turned over, throwing its contents out, but fortunately no one was hurt and no harm done.

Mr. Chas. Buckingham, of Castle Rock, Oregon, is visiting friends in old Yamhill, and says in two years more he will come to live in this county. So you see if Yamhill should chance to lose an old settler he soon returns.

Mr. Wash Langhain placed on our desk a regular fruit moth, one no doubt, that destroys our fruit in some seasons by stinging the blossom, thereby causing the worm to appear in the fruit as we often see. The mode by which Mr. Langhain caught these insects was by placing beneath the fruit tree a basin of water with a little coal oil floating on top, then hanging a lighted lantern within a few inches of the water and allowing it to remain all night.

Pleasant weather. Miss Lizzie Gilbert left for Portland last Tuesday. Miss Mary Smith expects to go to Tillamook soon.

Mr. A. J. Kidder and C. Little visited McMinnville last week. Fred thinks there is no use for him to go to Puckerville now.

A party of young ladies visited the lake last week. We have not decided yet who will teach the next term of school.

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness.

Considerable fun is had in Stayton at the expense of a justice of peace. It is said that Saturday of last week John Giebler was arrested for assault and taken before his honor, who adjourned the case over for examination on Sunday, and on that day held court and bound the prisoner over in the sum of $200 to await the action of the grand jury.

Mr. Carpenter has purchased a lot and will erect a dwelling this summer. Dick Phillips was in town the other day, swapping talk with our citizens.

Several of our citizens have been called to attend circuit court this week. It seems odd for the Lafayette people to have to go away from town to attend court.

Mr. Editor, if you see any Lafayetteites up your way looking for the county seat, please inform them where it is located. Al. Morse and Marshall Poppleton took a spin on their bicycles last night to McMinnville, Sheridan, Ballston, Perrydale and Amity.

Last week was an unlucky one for the narrow gauge bridge carpenters working here. Two of them had their feet mashed, one quite seriously, and another had his hand hurt.
