ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 24.-Several days ago the 11-months old daughter of Mrs. Schulz, while recovering from whooping cough, had a startling experience. She had a paroxyism of coughing, but Mrs. Schulz saw nothing very remarkable in that. When, however, she became aware that a live snake was coming from the little girl's mouth, she was horrified. The mother succeeded in capturing the reptile and placed it in a bottle. Louisa appeared perfectly well as soon ao the snake, which measured 124 inches was ejected. The mystery now is how it got into the child's stomach. The reptile was of a grayish white color and about half an inch in diameter.
