In purchasing medicines, don't try experiments; the first and only consideration should be given to the latest style Sarsaparilla has stood the test of forty years, and to-day it is in greater demand than ever—a triumph proof of popular approval.

Mr. J. D. Tarrant, of Yamhill county, brother-in-law of R. E. Hood of this city, is here on a visit. His sister, Mrs. Crawford, whose husband lately purchased a house in the city, will remain here, accompanied by Tarrant, and will remain here—Mountaineer.

One of our city dames (the town cow) stepped into the engine house Monday and displayed her artistic talent by decorating the cow in the latest style of her art. We suppose some of the people who are kicking against the cow ordinance love to see that kind of decorating.

We are in receipt weekly of a large number of letters asking for a sample copy of this paper. It is always sent. Now let the people of this city do something toward bringing people here, not only costs you five cents to send this paper to a friend in the East; we will do the mailing.

Mart High when he left would not tell us where he was going but the following items from the Times-Mountaineer explain all: Mr. M. H. High, of McMinnville, spent Sunday in the city, and the heart of a young lady was made glad because thereof. He will return to the Dalles until Wednesday or Thursday.

Mr. Shuck returned from the mountains Tuesday and reported trout fishing fine. He caught 180 and Mr. Hayden had caught 147 up to the time of his departure. This was three afternoons fishing and is about the average. Uncle Andy says that Mr. Shartzler fishes on horseback and that gentleman does not deny it.

The daily Times-Mountaineer is before us, it is a neat 5 column paper filled with live local, telegraphic, and editorial matter. It is to be hoped that the people of the Dalles will not let it die. It seems to us that the Dalles ought to support a good daily paper, if she don't she will lack of business advancement. Send it along regularly.

Old settlers tell us that the outlook for Tillamook was never so good in a business point of view as it is at present. With the expenditure of $12,500 to make roads in the county, the prospect of a railroad to pass through it, the building of the light house, our fishing and game interests, we think our people have great cause of congratulation.—Headlight.

A parlor meeting is arranged to be held at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Galloway, on Tuesday evening, April 16th, at 8 o'clock. All persons interested in this topic which so agitates the public mind, are invited to be present.

Mrs. J. L. BOND, Mrs. F. S. WOODS, Committee of arrangements.

A STEAL.

A Publishing Company Trying a New Scheme to Introduce their Books.

The following letter from State Superintendent E. B. McElroy explains itself and the people of this county should fight shy of all such circulars:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, SALEM, OREGON, March 27th, 27.)

TO THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT:

DEAR SIR—I have just received a letter from one of the county superintendents in which he enclosed a printed slip that reads as follows: "Mugan's Graded Method in English Grammar has just been authorized by the state board of education for use in the 4th and 5th grades of the public schools of the state of Oregon."

2nd.—I wish to notify you that no such books have been introduced by the county superintendents in this state.

3rd.—The state board of education has not authorized the use of "Mugan's Graded Method in English Grammar," in the 4th and 5th grades in the public schools of this state, neither have they authorized it for use in any kind of schools whatever. The whole matter is a misrepresentation.

4th.—See to it that these books are not introduced into any of your public schools for so it will be an illegal introduction.

5th.—Many inquiries are coming here for school laws. I do not think the school laws can be published before May for the reason that several of the amendments do not take effect until the 21st and 22nd of May and therefore they will not be in force until that time. If possible I shall try and find time to prepare a circular letter to the county superintendents giving the list of the new amendments to the school laws. This will be of some service to you till the laws are published.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Rev. T. S. Miller a Resident of Lebanon, Expires Suddenly on the Street.

Wednesday afternoon just before the afternoon train arrived at Amity the people near the depot noticed an old man coming toward them, when within a few yards of the track he was noticed to fall and upon the bystanders going to assist him he was found to be dead. Word was immediately sent to this city for the coroner. Upon examination it was found that he was Rev. T. S. Miller of Lebanon and that he was canvassing for some religious work.

LATER.—We learn that Rev. Miller, of So, was on his way to attend the session of the Oregon presbytery of the Chamberland Presbyterian church. He was one of the pioneer preachers of Oregon.

How to Prevent It.

The barnyard editor of the Astorian is responsible for the following: "A Young's river chicken raiser says he has devised a way of preventing chickens from scratching up his garden. He crosses the long-legged Brahmans with the short-legged Bantams, and the result is a new breed of fowls with one long leg and one short leg. When they raise either leg to scratch they lose their balance and come to grief. After a few demoralizing attempts they desist."

Closing Out At Cost.

I am closing out the well selected stock of boots and shoes of the late firm of Harris & Hane, at Lafayette at cost. The stock consists of a general assortment of ladies', gents' and children's fine and coarse wear, most of which was bought of the best Eastern factories at the lowest rates. Will sell you boots and shoes 25 to 40 per cent less than you can get them elsewhere here.

MARY HUYSEY, Teacher.

Some of the fond mothers in this city should corral their cherubs and keep them at home. They are a nuisance to this office. Several little fellows not yet out of dresses congregate at the rear of this office and eat up all the old roller composition, pit, etc., which is thrown out. It may be healthy but we guess when the kid gets his hands all sticky together with compo, he will wish he had not monkeyed around a printing office. The youngsters are liable to get the devil and that would not be good for them. We have two in this office and they are good ones.

GRANGE ORGANIZATIONS.

Grand Lecturer Interviewed—Oregon has Eighty Granges—A Total Membership of 3200.

John C. Simpson, lecturer of the Oregon State Grange, was in Portland Tuesday on business connected with the field in Multnomah county. To an Oregonian reporter Mr. Simpson stated that since his appointment as state lecturer, last October, he has been constantly at work as lecturer and organizer in Linn, Marion, Clackamas, Benton, Polk, Yamhill, Washington and Multnomah counties. As to the membership of the grange he said:

"In this jurisdiction, two months ago there were eighty granges, with a membership of 3200. There has been a large increase since. The 8th of last October twelve new granges have been organized and four granges have been re-organized."

"No, all that work was not done by me. I have organized three granges and reorganized one. I am the only organizer in the field."

"I have not visited Washington territory in Eastern Oregon, but will visit Southern Oregon after the sessions of the State Grange in May next, as there are no granges in Oregon south of Lane county."

In reply to a question as to what counties have been greatly benefited by the grange, he said:

"The work of the grange is educational and practical. I think the work is manifest in the farming in Linn, Lane, Marion, Yamhill, Washington and Clackamas counties. I do not think the school laws can be published before May for the reason that several of the amendments do not take effect until the 21st and 22nd of May and therefore they will not be in force until that time.
