The chairman explained the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of devising such means and measures, as in our judgment may seem just and proper, to prohibit the influx of stock from this and other counties, which is now being and has been for years driven into this immediate vicinity to roam at large through the country.

Upon motion to appoint a committee to report preamble and resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the meeting the chairman appointed R. L. Booth, John Long and Charles Nash said committee, with orders to report at once. In the absence of the committee on resolutions, the meeting was addressed by Hon. Ed. Wood, T. H. Gilbert, A. J. Switzer, B. Kleindenst and others, urging a hearty co-operation in the prevention of the imposition.

Upon motion the chairman appointed Ed. Wood, A. J. Switzer and P. R. Fendall a committee on finance, whose duty it shall be to audit, collect money and pay all expenses incurred in carrying out the meaning and intent of the meet-forward and reported as follows, viz. That whereas it has ever been our ain and purpose to encourage and solicit im-migration of actual citizen setlers in our midst, believing as we do, "that the wealth of a country is its population we have at the same time witnessed with admiration and delight the advent of large families who bravely pierced "the Martha S.
