

was married on April 26, 1868, to Miss M. P. Spillman, daughter of Judge N. C. Spillman, of his native county. Returning to Oregon he engaged in surveying and engineering. Since August, 1876, he has resided in this city, and has followed the mixed occupation of architect, contractor and builder. Several large and important buildings have been erected and furnished plans for several of the fine buildings in this city, namely Garrison's Opera House, the I. O. O. F. Hall, the Presbyterian Church and others of less prominence. He has also been United States deputy and county surveyor, which last position he resigned when appointed postmaster by President Harrison. Several large contracts of surveying have been given to him and the work has always been performed to the satisfaction of the United States surveyors. He is a prominent member of the G. A. R. post of this city, and is also a prominent Mason.

W. M. GALLOWAY.
A President of the City Who is Interested in Several Industries.

Wm. Galloway whose portrait appears here is one of the prominent citizens of Yamhill county. He is interested in real estate and is the manager of the Galloway & Goucher warehouse, one of the largest warehouses in the county. His partner being Dr. E. E. Goucher, whose smiling face appears in another place in these columns. Mr. Galloway is foremost in all schemes for the advancement of the city. He is also interested in the creamery, the fair association, Fairlawn, Galloway & Goucher's addition to this city besides having property in Seattle, Port Townsend, Astoria and several other boom towns of the Pacific Northwest. He is a lover of fine horses and is the owner of several, one of them being Lady Beech, Oregon's phenomenal four-year-old. He also has several fine colts which are sure to make as good a record as Lady Beech. The property he is pushing now is "Fairlawn" you can see an advertisement of this property in another column. He is a democrat and has been before the people of this county several times and with the exception of once or twice has been successful. He was born near Dore, Oregon, June 19, 1845.

W. M. Galloway.

In 1852, his parents left for Oregon, crossing the plains with ox teams. The journey consumed some seven months. They settled in Yamhill within a few miles of this city and William first attended school at Amity. He is the youngest of five boys, all of whom made a success of life. In 1865 he was graduated at the State University and was elected to the Legislature and served his term. In 1878 and 1880 he was again elected. In 1872 he was defeated for the same honors. In 1880 Mr. Galloway was nominated by the democratic party as their candidate for county judge and suffered defeat. His opponent was L. Loughery, the present incumbent. Mr. Galloway is an influential member of the state board of agriculture having been appointed by Gov. Penoyer. His term expired in 1892. In September 1875 he married Miss Emma Baker of Lafayette. The result is three exceedingly bright children, two boys and one girl. For more extended information regarding the business of Mr. Galloway see other columns.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

A Complete List of the Business Houses in the City.

Several of the business men of this city have received a notice of their business on another page of this issue. The following list comprises every business house in the city:

A. J. Apperson.
The largest general merchandise house in the city is presided over by A. J. Apperson. It is situated at the corner of Third and B streets, the two principal streets in the city. The stock in the dry goods department is exceedingly fine at the present time as sales and boxes of goods direct from the east, have been coming in on every freight. The shoe department is large and comprises all the latest styles and makes of boots, shoes, slippers, etc. The grocery department situated in the rear of the building in a large room from the main store contains everything, in the grocery line. A large assortment of fine crockery, lamps, etc. is always kept in stock. The produce shipped during the year to Portland markets is astonishingly large. Mr. Apperson, the proprietor is one of the substantial citizens of this city and is interested in the McMinnville National bank and the Creamery & Cold Storage company. He is always one of the first to advocate a new order of things and always backs his propositions with the where-with. He has been a resident of the territory and state of Oregon since 1847, coming here from Missouri. He is a republican and is a person of influence in his party, his opinions when expressed, have great weight.

W. T. Booth & Son.
W. T. Booth & Son have just erected a large blacksmith shop and agricultural depot on Third street. General blacksmithing including horse-shoeing is done. Three floors are kept constantly busy. In horse-shoeing this shop excels all the shops in the county for artistic work. This part of the business is attended to by George Westcott, field who enjoys a reputation for horse-shoeing throughout the state. He has shod more fast trotters than any blacksmith in the state and at nearly all the great meetings George is requested to attend 'so as to be in readiness, should anything go wrong. W. T. Booth & Son are the agents for the Advance threshers and separators and are introducing a large number of these machines in this section. Patent harrows and cultivators are made by them which give good satisfaction.

Ray & Todd.
This firm of clothiers and merchant tailors have received an extended notice on page seven.

L. T. Terry.
L. T. Terry, general blacksmith is located in the building on the corner of Third and E streets, opposite the Commercial hotel. Mr. Terry is a first-class horse shoeer and the trade enjoyed is good.

W. H. Logan.
W. H. Logan, barber, has a neatly fitted up shop on Third street the main thoroughfare of the city and is doing a good business. He is a Yamhill county boy and learned his trade in this city. The interior of his shop is highly decorated and contains two chairs. The finish being in antique oak.

Fletcher & Davidson.
Fletcher & Davidson, real estate agents, have their office on Third street and have a large list of valuable farm and city lands for sale. They are rustlers and several large sales of land have been made through them. People desiring circulars should write to them. Mr. Fletcher carries on an auction business also in the same building.

Jones & Co.
Jones & Co., proprietors of the Sash & Door Factory and dealers in hardware, have received a more extended notice elsewhere. A complete house can be purchased of Jones & Co., lumber, mills, locks, weights, etc. The business is extensive and the demand for their goods is so large that a new mill is being built.

R. Jacobson.
R. Jacobson, formerly of Sheridan, has opened a general merchandise store in this city. It is situated in the new Force block on Third street and contains well selected stock. The trade enjoyed is already large.

J. J. Collard.
J. J. Collard, the proprietor of the grocery store in the new Force block, is an old settler and is well known to nearly every resident of Yamhill county. Mr. Collard is an influential and conscientious member of the Baptist church. Heretofore Mr. Collard has been engaged in the freighting business. Upon the completion of the building in which he is now situated he purchased a large stock of groceries and started in with a good trade. The interior of the store presents a neat appearance and is lighted with electricity.

E. B. Fellows.
E. B. Fellows, undertaker and furniture dealer, is mentioned on another page.

Gafes & Henry.
Are the proprietors of the Commercial building and have a very finely appointed building which has just been completed. The carriages in use are all new having been constructed during the winter by the Force Bros. of this city. This stable compares well with the stables of Portland. The horses are all large fine looking animals.

Force Bros.
This firm has been in business in this city several years and have been engaged in the manufacturing of carriages, wagons and carts. The work turned out by them is excellent and is giving good satisfaction. The best of eastern wood is used in the construction of their work. Their shops are on Second street and at the corner of Third and B streets.

P. D. Glenn.
P. D. Glenn is the superintendent of electric lights and water for this city. His duties are many and arduous at the present time, made so by the large number of people who are putting in electric lights and water. No better man could have been found for the position. He has opened a plumbing shop and has on hand all the necessary tools and fittings to do the most elaborate work. He also has a large stock of electrical fittings and fixtures the latter being in many designs and suitable for the most fastidious.

Manning & Engerman.
Dealers in agricultural implements and general hardware have received an extended notice on page seven.

Galloway & Goucher.
Galloway & Goucher are the proprietors of one of the largest warehouses in the county. The building is conveniently situated near the railroad track, in fact being directly upon the siding. The latest improved machinery for cleaning wheat is within the building which contains bins and store rooms for sacked grain for 120,000 bushels. Mr. Galloway is the manager of this business. A portrait of him can be seen upon this page. The firm buy large amounts of grain each season and have loaded ships at sound points with Yamhill county grain. The farmers patronize this warehouse to its entire capacity. There is no reason why the building should not be enlarged.

THIRD STREET McMINNVILLE, OREGON.

W. D. Black.
Mr. Black arrived a short time ago from the East and immediately began the construction of a residence and at the building on the corner of First and I streets. When completed he filled it with a choice stock of groceries and provisions and opened the doors. Although situated several blocks from the business center of the city he enjoys a good trade.

McMinnville Mills.
These mills run night and day and are turning out 15 barrels of fine quality flour, which has gained a reputation throughout this state and Washington. The mills are situated near the railroad, on First street, from H to J. E. Barnickoff is the general manager. A more extended notice appears on another page. In connection with the mill a warehouse business is carried on. A considerable portion of the grain stored in the warehouse is used in the mill. Still the amount stored exceeds the capacity of the mill and it is shipped to Portland and Sound ports for shipment to foreign countries. The warehouse building was erected last year and is the finest in the county.

Elsia Wright.
Dealer in harness, saddles, etc., has received a lengthy notice in another column.

"The Yamhill Reporter."
The republican paper of this city has the above title and is owned by F. H. Barnhart, a gentleman late of the Osborn county Journal, Osborn, Kansas. Mr. Barnhart is a man well along in years and his entire life has been spent in the newspaper business. The Reporter is the oldest established newspaper in the county and its proprietors have been many. During the last three years the changes in its management have been four. The paper is printed upon a steam cylinder press. A job office is also run in connection. The office is situated in Elsia Wright's building, on the corner of Third and F streets, and immediately over the implement depot of J. G. Ballinger & Co.

Chauncy & Allen.
Liverymen and proprietors of the City stable, have a good business and are the owners of a large number of good horses and excellent carriages. The stable covers two lots on Third street, between the Commercial hotel and the Elsia Wright building. The horses and carriages are kept in good condition and their turnouts present a showy appearance.

The Commercial Hotel.
This fine brick building was erected by L. H. Cook, who carried on the hotel business for some time. A short time ago McCall & Holman secured a lease of the building, and a first-class $1.00 to $2.00 per day house is kept. The house contains between thirty and forty rooms, and it is the resort of commercial people. The hotel is near both livery stables, being situated on the corner of Third and E streets.

Davidson & Squire.
The millinery store on D street is presided over by the above ladies. Their trade is good and the stock is consistent and is composed of late style goods. A dress-making establishment is carried on in connection.

J. E. Magers.
J. E. Magers, attorney-at-law, receives a mention of more space in another column.

Mrs. Morris & Co.
The above are dealers in novelties of all kinds. A general stock of necessities is kept on hand. The store is a strictly cash one and enjoys a large trade because of the cheapness and good quality of the goods. It is situated on D street, in the Garrison block.

First National Bank.
This banking institution has its place of business in Garrison's block and is mentioned in another column.

James McCain.
James McCain, attorney-at-law, has his office in Garrison's block. A short biographical sketch of him appears elsewhere.

L. Loughery.
L. Loughery, attorney at law and county judge, has an office in Garrison's block, which contains a splendid law library. H. Ballinger, the deputy district attorney has his office with Mr. Loughery. A more extended sketch can be seen elsewhere.

Eggers Bros.
Proprietors of the City Drug Store have received a mention in another page.

Chas. Grissen.
Groceryman, baker and confectioner has received a mention elsewhere. His place of business is on Third street in the Garrison block.

W. H. Bingham.
The undertaking establishment and furniture store of W. H. Bingham is situated on Third street in a large brick building. The stock consists of furniture, carpets, blankets, wall paper, window shades, etc. It is all new, in the latest styles and is numerous in variety of design. Mr. Bingham is a prominent Mason and has been a resident of this city for many years.

F. W. Redmond.
Carries a stock of dry goods well selected to meet the demand of the most particular person. The show windows always present a beautiful appearance and are draped with the goods which can be found upon the shelves. He also carries a stock of ladies and gentlemen's boots and shoes. Mr. Redmond has been connected with the Smith & Redmond warehouse in this city for several years past. The warehouse is not in commission at present.

C. Fritz.
The artistic photographer of this city is C. Fritz and the photographs from which the cuts in this paper were made were taken by him. The work turned out by him equals, in quality, that of the best photographers in the state. He has been in the business here about a year and nearly all the people here have taken advantage of the chance to obtain fine work. His gallery is situated over F. W. Redmond's dry goods store on Third street.

J. Harvey Henderson.
The proprietor of the Red Front grocery store on Third street has received a notice in another part of this paper.

Mr. E. S. Foster.
The attractive windows of the millinery store on Third street were arranged by the above lady, who is the proprietor of the store. The stock consists of the latest style goods and novelties. A dress making establishment is also run in connection.

G. O. Hudson.
Dealer in general hardware and manufacturer of galvanized iron, cornice, etc., has received a notice upon another page.

F. W. Fenston.
F. W. Fenston, attorney-at-law has his office in the bank building and the clients who climb the stairs each day are increasing in number. A large business in the settlement of estates is handled by him.

C. H. Fleming.
C. H. Fleming is the proprietor of the oldest barber shop in the city. The shop is lighted by electricity and furnished with black walnut furniture presents a pretty appearance. Good baths are always ready with hot and cold water and the trade is large. Mr. Fleming is popular being a bachelor with a fine residence. He is a native of Michigan but prefers like all others to live in this beautiful city than cold Michigan.

B. F. Fuller M. D.
B. F. Fuller M. D., proprietor of the Prescription Drug Store arrived here only a few weeks ago and purchased the business and residence of Geo. W. Burt. He is also pastor of the Christian church of this city.

McMinnville National Bank.
This popular bank is deserving of the confidence of the people and it is fast "getting there." Substantial citizens, all of whom are interested in and are actively working for the upbuilding of the city, are interested in it. Look at the extended notice on page two.

A. Dielschneider.
The Opposition boot and shoe store is presided over by A. Dielschneider, who has been a resident of this city for several years. His entire business is devoted to boots and shoes and he enjoys fair prices. The stock consists of a general line of watches, clocks, etc. Several thousand dollars are invested, and the stock presents a very showy appearance when displayed. Two workmen are kept constantly employed on repairing. Mr. Holl is a prominent citizen and has held the position of councilman; he is a member of the Masons and Odd Fellows.

C. W. Talmage.
C. W. Talmage is the Wells, Fargo express agent and the business of the company in this city has increased wonderfully since Mr. Talmage has had charge of the office. Beside the express business he handles several of the first-class fire insurance companies and has written a large number of policies. Mr. Talmage is a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity and served as deputy clerk under Clerk Spencer.

L. Bettman.
L. Bettman is the proprietor of the general merchandise store situated upon the corner of Third and B streets. The stock comprises dress goods, etc., and groceries. Mr. Bettman has been a resident of this city for several years and before entering business for himself was the manager of the Grange store. The goods are selected by Mrs. Bettman who is an expert in this business. The selection shows good taste and the people seem to be satisfied as the business done is large.

C. D. Johnson.
Mr. Johnson's place of business is on B street and a general carriage and wagon repairing, horse-shoeing business is carried on. You have no doubt read the notice given him on another page.

Nelson & Gramstrom.
Run the wagon and carriage shop in connection with C. D. Johnson's blacksmith shop. The work turned out by them is lasting and persons who purchase them are customers for all time. Mr. Gramstrom is a cabinet maker, and furniture is also made when ordered.

The Grange Store.
The farmers of this vicinity have one of the best appointed grange stores in this state. The manager of the business is Alex. Reid, who conducts it upon business principles, and has made a success of it. The stock is varied and everything necessary upon a farm can be purchased here, from a sock to a self-lander.

Miss Thomson.
The dressmaking and millinery establishment on B street is carried on by Miss Thomson, who has had experience in both branches. The stock is equal to the demands made upon it and is stylish and shows good taste.

P. F. Brown.
The Pioneer boot and shoe store, owned by P. F. Brown, is, as the name indicates, the pioneer establishment of its kind in the city. The trade is good and the stock extensive. A line of clothing is also carried.

The McMinnville Hotel.
This house has retired from business to a certain extent. Mr. McGuire, the proprietor, being in poor health, the house is only opened when there is a rush of people, as during court week. When running, one of the best tables in the city is placed before the guests.

St. Charles Hotel.
This popular resort has received its quota of mention upon another page, with a portrait of its proprietor.

Rhodes & Rhodes.
This is a real estate firm which is just entering the field, and its prospects are good. They will do a real estate, loan, collection and insurance business. Their office is over the music store of Hewitt Bros., on Third street.

F. W. Martin.
F. W. Martin is the proprietor of Martin's addition to this city. The addition is situated on the east bank of the Yamhill and is laid out in acre tracts. This property is choice and has nearly all been bought up by people who intend to do market gardening and persons who like to reside near town but not in it. He has about concluded to throw the balance of the tract owned by him upon the market in small parcels.

The Saylor Addition.
This addition is nearly all sold and numerous houses have been built upon it during the past year. It is well drained and slightly and will make when thickly populated, one of the finest residence portions of the city.

Baker's Addition.
Granville Baker is the proprietor of this addition to the city which is situated on the west side of B street within the city limits. It is slightly and well drained. It is selling quickly.

Chandler's Addition.
Situated on the south bank of Cozine creek is being built up rapidly and will soon be taken within the incorporation. The water works are situated in Mrs. Chandler's second addition which you can see in the plat on the first page.

The Brady Farm.
This farm is situated just outside the city limits and consists of 916 acres of the finest land in this section. It is nearly all under cultivation and immense crops of grain are produced. It will soon be sold. Mr. Brady offering the entire tract for $45,000. A company is now being organized to purchase it and cut it up into city lots and small farms.

The Star Mills.
Messrs. Stout, Hibbs, Martin and Hentz have purchased the Sax mill property which has been idle since the fire of two or three years ago and will put in the latest improved roller machinery, with a capacity of 125 barrels per day. The power will be furnished by water taken from Baker creek. This magnificent power has been idle long enough and it is a satisfaction to know that still some have energy enough to take hold of a sure thing.

YAMHILL FAIR ASSOCIATION.
Large Grounds With one of the Best Mile Tracks in State.

The Yamhill County Fair Association is one of substance, having one hundred acres of ground enclosed in a neat fence. Large buildings for the display of the products of the county have been erected and stable and sheds for the live stock. The grounds contain one of the best mile tracks in the state also a large grand stand. The fair held are well attended, the displays and premiums are large. The grounds are at present leased to Chas. Woods, the trainer of trotting horses, who has a large number of horses under his care the year around. No better track exists in the state for the development of speed. The horses of this county are exceedingly well bred and speedily as their record of last year will show. A fine stream of water runs through the grounds, making it as convenient as could be desired.

Wm. Holl.
Wm. Holl, the jeweler, has been located in this city for a number of years and has gained a reputation for good work and the sale of choice goods at fair prices. The stock consists of a general line of watches, clocks, etc. Several thousand dollars are invested, and the stock presents a very showy appearance when displayed. Two workmen are kept constantly employed on repairing. Mr. Holl is a prominent citizen and has held the position of councilman; he is a member of the Masons and Odd Fellows.

C. W. Talmage.
C. W. Talmage is the Wells, Fargo express agent and the business of the company in this city has increased wonderfully since Mr. Talmage has had charge of the office. Beside the express business he handles several of the first-class fire insurance companies and has written a large number of policies. Mr. Talmage is a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity and served as deputy clerk under Clerk Spencer.

L. Bettman.
L. Bettman is the proprietor of the general merchandise store situated upon the corner of Third and B streets. The stock comprises dress goods, etc., and groceries. Mr. Bettman has been a resident of this city for several years and before entering business for himself was the manager of the Grange store. The goods are selected by Mrs. Bettman who is an expert in this business. The selection shows good taste and the people seem to be satisfied as the business done is large.

C. D. Johnson.
Mr. Johnson's place of business is on B street and a general carriage and wagon repairing, horse-shoeing business is carried on. You have no doubt read the notice given him on another page.

Nelson & Gramstrom.
Run the wagon and carriage shop in connection with C. D. Johnson's blacksmith shop. The work turned out by them is lasting and persons who purchase them are customers for all time. Mr. Gramstrom is a cabinet maker, and furniture is also made when ordered.

The Grange Store.
The farmers of this vicinity have one of the best appointed grange stores in this state. The manager of the business is Alex. Reid, who conducts it upon business principles, and has made a success of it. The stock is varied and everything necessary upon a farm can be purchased here, from a sock to a self-lander.

Miss Thomson.
The dressmaking and millinery establishment on B street is carried on by Miss Thomson, who has had experience in both branches. The stock is equal to the demands made upon it and is stylish and shows good taste.

P. F. Brown.
The Pioneer boot and shoe store, owned by P. F. Brown, is, as the name indicates, the pioneer establishment of its kind in the city. The trade is good and the stock extensive. A line of clothing is also carried.

The McMinnville Hotel.
This house has retired from business to a certain extent. Mr. McGuire, the proprietor, being in poor health, the house is only opened when there is a rush of people, as during court week. When running, one of the best tables in the city is placed before the guests.

St. Charles Hotel.
This popular resort has received its quota of mention upon another page, with a portrait of its proprietor.

Rhodes & Rhodes.
This is a real estate firm which is just entering the field, and its prospects are good. They will do a real estate, loan, collection and insurance business. Their office is over the music store of Hewitt Bros., on Third street.

F. W. Martin.
F. W. Martin is the proprietor of Martin's addition to this city. The addition is situated on the east bank of the Yamhill and is laid out in acre tracts. This property is choice and has nearly all been bought up by people who intend to do market gardening and persons who like to reside near town but not in it. He has about concluded to throw the balance of the tract owned by him upon the market in small parcels.

The Saylor Addition.
This addition is nearly all sold and numerous houses have been built upon it during the past year. It is well drained and slightly and will make when thickly populated, one of the finest residence portions of the city.

Baker's Addition.
Granville Baker is the proprietor of this addition to the city which is situated on the west side of B street within the city limits. It is slightly and well drained. It is selling quickly.

Chandler's Addition.
Situated on the south bank of Cozine creek is being built up rapidly and will soon be taken within the incorporation. The water works are situated in Mrs. Chandler's second addition which you can see in the plat on the first page.

The Brady Farm.
This farm is situated just outside the city limits and consists of 916 acres of the finest land in this section. It is nearly all under cultivation and immense crops of grain are produced. It will soon be sold. Mr. Brady offering the entire tract for $45,000. A company is now being organized to purchase it and cut it up into city lots and small farms.

The Star Mills.
Messrs. Stout, Hibbs, Martin and Hentz have purchased the Sax mill property which has been idle since the fire of two or three years ago and will put in the latest improved roller machinery, with a capacity of 125 barrels per day. The power will be furnished by water taken from Baker creek. This magnificent power has been idle long enough and it is a satisfaction to know that still some have energy enough to take hold of a sure thing.

YAMHILL FAIR ASSOCIATION.
Large Grounds With one of the Best Mile Tracks in State.

The Yamhill County Fair Association is one of substance, having one hundred acres of ground enclosed in a neat fence. Large buildings for the display of the products of the county have been erected and stable and sheds for the live stock. The grounds contain one of the best mile tracks in the state also a large grand stand. The fair held are well attended, the displays and premiums are large. The grounds are at present leased to Chas. Woods, the trainer of trotting horses, who has a large number of horses under his care the year around. No better track exists in the state for the development of speed. The horses of this county are exceedingly well bred and speedily as their record of last year will show. A fine stream of water runs through the grounds, making it as convenient as could be desired.

Wm. Holl.
Wm. Holl, the jeweler, has been located in this city for a number of years and has gained a reputation for good work and the sale of choice goods at fair prices. The stock consists of a general line of watches, clocks, etc. Several thousand dollars are invested, and the stock presents a very showy appearance when displayed. Two workmen are kept constantly employed on repairing. Mr. Holl is a prominent citizen and has held the position of councilman; he is a member of the Masons and Odd Fellows.

C. W. Talmage.
C. W. Talmage is the Wells, Fargo express agent and the business of the company in this city has increased wonderfully since Mr. Talmage has had charge of the office. Beside the express business he handles several of the first-class fire insurance companies and has written a large number of policies. Mr. Talmage is a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity and served as deputy clerk under Clerk Spencer.

L. Bettman.
L. Bettman is the proprietor of the general merchandise store situated upon the corner of Third and B streets. The stock comprises dress goods, etc., and groceries. Mr. Bettman has been a resident of this city for several years and before entering business for himself was the manager of the Grange store. The goods are selected by Mrs. Bettman who is an expert in this business. The selection shows good taste and the people seem to be satisfied as the business done is large.

C. H. Fleming.
C. H. Fleming is the proprietor of the oldest barber shop in the city. The shop is lighted by electricity and furnished with black walnut furniture presents a pretty appearance. Good baths are always ready with hot and cold water and the trade is large. Mr. Fleming is popular being a bachelor with a fine residence. He is a native of Michigan but prefers like all others to live in this beautiful city than cold Michigan.

B. F. Fuller M. D.
B. F. Fuller M. D., proprietor of the Prescription Drug Store arrived here only a few weeks ago and purchased the business and residence of Geo. W. Burt. He is also pastor of the Christian church of this city.

McMinnville National Bank.
This popular bank is deserving of the confidence of the people and it is fast "getting there." Substantial citizens, all of whom are interested in and are actively working for the upbuilding of the city, are interested in it. Look at the extended notice on page two.

A. Dielschneider.
The Opposition boot and shoe store is presided over by A. Dielschneider, who has been a resident of this city for several years. His entire business is devoted to boots and shoes and he enjoys fair prices. The stock consists of a general line of watches, clocks, etc. Several thousand dollars are invested, and the stock presents a very showy appearance when displayed. Two workmen are kept constantly employed on repairing. Mr. Holl is a prominent citizen and has held the position of councilman; he is a member of the Masons and Odd Fellows.

C. W. Talmage.
C. W. Talmage is the Wells, Fargo express agent and the business of the company in this city has increased wonderfully since Mr. Talmage has had charge of the office. Beside the express business he handles several of the first-class fire insurance companies and has written a large number of policies. Mr. Talmage is a prominent member of the Masonic fraternity and served as deputy clerk under Clerk Spencer.

L. Bettman.
L. Bettman is the proprietor of the general merchandise store situated upon the corner of Third and B streets. The stock comprises dress goods, etc., and groceries. Mr. Bettman has been a resident of this city for several years and before entering business for himself was the manager of the Grange store. The goods are selected by Mrs. Bettman who is an expert in this business. The selection shows good taste and the people seem to be satisfied as the business done is large.

C. D. Johnson.
Mr. Johnson's place of business is on B street and a general carriage and wagon repairing, horse-shoeing business is carried on. You have no doubt read the notice given him on another page.

Nelson & Gramstrom.
Run the wagon and carriage shop in connection with C. D. Johnson's blacksmith shop. The work turned out by them is lasting and persons who purchase them are customers for all time. Mr. Gramstrom is a cabinet maker, and furniture is also made when ordered.

The Grange Store.
The farmers of this vicinity have one of the best appointed grange stores in this state. The manager of the business is Alex. Reid, who conducts it upon business principles, and has made a success of it. The stock is varied and everything necessary upon a farm can be purchased here, from a sock to a self-lander.

Miss Thomson.
The dressmaking and millinery establishment on B street is carried on by Miss Thomson, who has had experience in both branches. The stock is equal to the demands made upon it and is stylish and shows good taste.

P. F. Brown.
The Pioneer boot and shoe store, owned by P. F. Brown, is, as the name indicates, the pioneer establishment of its kind in the city. The trade is good and the stock extensive. A line of clothing is also carried.

The McMinnville Hotel.
This house has retired from business to a certain extent. Mr. McGuire, the proprietor, being in poor health, the house is only opened when there is a rush of people, as during court week. When running, one of the best tables in the city is placed before the guests.

St. Charles Hotel.
This popular resort has received its quota of mention upon another page, with a portrait of its proprietor.

Rhodes & Rhodes.
This is a real estate firm which is just entering the field, and its prospects are good. They will do a real estate, loan, collection and insurance business. Their office is over the music store of Hewitt Bros., on Third street.

F. W. Martin.
F. W. Martin is the proprietor of Martin's addition to this city. The addition is situated on the east bank of the Yamhill and is laid out in acre tracts. This property is choice and has nearly all been bought up by people who intend to do market gardening and persons who like to reside near town but not in it. He has about concluded to throw the balance of the tract owned by him upon the market in small parcels.