BROOKLYN, Cct. 19.—The widespread and absorbing interest in Dr. Talmage's course of sermons on the Holy Land and adjoining countries is demonstrated by the thousands who are turned away from the doors of the Brooklyn Academy of Music on Sunday mornings, and The Christian Herald services in the New York Academy Herald services in the New York Academy of Music on Sunday evenings, unable to gain even standing room in those immense auditoriums. Today the fourth sermon of the series was preached as before, in this feity in the morning and in New York at gity in the morning and in the New York at gity in the morning and in the New York at gity in the morning and in the New York at gity in the morning and in the New York at gity in the morning and in the New York at gity in the morning and in t orient as having neck "clothed with thunwhacked, they sometimes retort. To Americans and English, who are accustomed to guide horses by the bridle, these horses of the orient, guided only by foot and voice, estrianism an uncertainty, and the pull on the bridle that you intend for slowing up of the pace may be mistaken for a hint that you want to outgallop the wind or wheel in swift circles like the hawk. But they can climb steps and descend precipices with skilled foot, and the one I chose for our journey in Palestine shall have the praise of going for weeks without one stumbling step amid rocky steeps, where an ordinary horse would not for an hour maintain surefootedness.
