THE CASE OF OHIO.

The elections of this fall have been generally a rebuke and a warning to the republican party. The election in Ohio has been a rebuke and a warning to the democratic party.

A year ago the democratic carried Ohio. This year they lost it. Why?

A year ago the current of popular favor in the nation generally did not set in the democratic direction with anything like the force it showed this sevening at The Christian Herald servers and the democratic party.

THE TRIUMPH OF THE CROSS But that standard of the cross only eemed to fall. It rides the sky today in triumph. Five hundred million souls, the mightiest army of the ages, are following it and where that goes they will go, across the earth and up the mighty steeps of the heavens. In the Twelfth century it seemed o go down, but in the Nincteenth century it is the mightiest symbol of glory and tri-umph, and means more than any other standard, whether inscribed with eagle, or lion, or bear, or star, or crescent. That which Saladin trampled on the plain of Esdraelon I lift today for your marshaling. The cross! The cross! The foot of it pointing to the heavens to which it will take you, and the outspread beam of it like outstretched arms of invitation to all nations. Kneel at its foot. Lift your eye to its victim. Swear eternal allegiance to its power. And as that mighty symbol of pain and triumph is kept before us, we will realize how insignificant are the little crosses we are called to bear, and will m cheerfully carry them.

> Must Jesus bear the cross alone And all the world go free? No, there's a cross for every one And there's a cross for me.

As I fall asleep to-night on my pillow in the tent on the plain of Esdraelon reach-ing from the Mediterranean to the Jordan, the waters of the river Kishon soothing me as by a lullaby, I hear the gathering of the hosts for the last battle of all the earth. And by their representatives America is here and Europe is here and Asia is here and Africa is here and all heaven is here and all hell is here, and Apollyon on the black horse leads the armies of darkness, and Jesus on the white horse leads the armies of light, and I hear the roll of the drums and the clear call of the clarions and the thunder of the cannonades. And then I hear the wild rush as of million of troops in retreat, and then the shout of victory as from fourteen hundred million throats, and then a song as though all the armies of earth and heavn which en were joining it, clapping cymbals, beat-But no ing the time—"The kingdoms of this world
