A number of reforms in existing laws governing the office of sheriff were discussed and bills drafted and sent to the legislature for action, at the meeting of sheriffs. Among other things the officers want a rogues gallery in each county and the legislature will be asked to appropriate $1000 for its establishment.

The Salem Statesman has developed into a satirical journal equal to a Peck or a Judge. The last Sunday issue contained several caricatures of prominent Oregonians. The portraits of Dr. W. T. Williamson and Miss Olive M. Capewell were especially fine. Star pliers work in not made a typo in a typo.

The military company is having a hard time of it. The officers of the state troops having the control are Portland men and want to go to earth. The petition has been placed before Gen. Siglin through S. A. Manning of the committee on military in Boise. McMinnville is up and she intends to have a company or know the reason why.

The case of state vs Gus Anderson, who was charged with shooting John Fletcher's thumb off in an attempt at robbery near McMinnville, has come up before Justice C. W. Smith at this place last Saturday, and after adjourning the case, the judge purely accidental, and so discharged the accused. The accident appears to have been caused about by a party taking looking too often down the long neck of a bottle that contained jigger commonly known as "forty-rod red-eye."

Lee Hoffman, the bridge builder, is in the city settling up with a balance of about $13,000, due him on the construction of the steel bridge across the Willamette at Salem. He has been near McMinnville and a conference with the county court of Polk, which refuses to pay any more toward the cost of the bridge, as the bridge is his purpose to ask the Mac county court for payment of the balance due, failing to receive which he will be obliged to enter suit against the two counties for the amount still due him.

Mr. Hiram Tucker is in a pickle of a strip of land on the north side of recent addition to the city. It is a strip of land about 30 ft. wide, on the north of his property and held a strip beyond that. Willis' addition is now placed on the market and the Bristlehead has given it to three north of the 13 ft. strip of Mr. Tucker's. This leaves Mr. Tucker owning a strip of land about 17 ft. wide, on the north of the 13 ft. strip, and the street is now in the middle of it. When this strip is condemned and given to the street there will be a 60 ft. street. He wants to sell or trade the strip and does not seem inclined to do either.

The new charter of the city of McMinnville now introduced in the legislature increases the city limits considerably. All the objectionable points were taken out and the limit will take in all of Oak Park excepting the last five blocks on the north. The old line is followed in John's addition. The new charter is taken in as well as College side and Chandler's addition. The new wards and electric light stations in the city. Two rows of blocks are taken on the east from the John Cook farm. The extension is satisfactory, it seems to all concerned as there is no remonstrance against it.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "I have it from good source that, in conversation with a well-known republican, Don Quay said in substance: 'I am, now, as I always have been, against the elections bill. It's bad politics, and would defeat any party passing it. I am satisfied that, if the bill should become a law in the present congress, we would lose New York in 1912 by fifty if not one hundred thousand majority. The bill is not only a bad political measure but to a large extent financially bad. There are hundreds of millions of dollars invested by New York and the North in southern interests. There is no good business man that does not know that the passage of such a bill would prove disastrous to the business interests of the north and the South, but the entire country.'

The West Side hotel under the management of Mr. Bowers is fast becoming one of the best known hotels in the valley. Good service, good meals and good sleeping accommodations must please everyone. The commercial men stopping at the house are all loud in its praise, and if a customer forgets to kick at his accommodations they must be good indeed.

A DAIRYMAN SPEAKS.

Words of Interest to People Interested in Dairy Products.

The following is taken from Hurd's Dairyman, written by John Gould, the subject being, "The profitable or unprofitable industry of dairying." "Dairy products are increasing and the price has not fallen off. There is no reason why the dairyman should not have a good and productive farm. All that is necessary are good cows and sense. Dairying pays intelligent men dollar for dollar as well as does any other investment. To make dairying a successful success, it must be the chief industry of the farm, not secondary."

Do you call to mind a first class dairyman who has made an assignment. If you do stand up and be counted. And there was no one to be counted. Do you call to mind a first class dairyman who has made an assignment. If you do stand up and be counted. And there was no one to be counted. Do you call to mind a first class dairyman who has made an assignment. If you do stand up and be counted. And there was no one to be counted.

The county court has made a contract with the Lombard company, through their local agent, Mr. Shurtless, for a complete abstract of title to all property in the county. The contract calls for fourteen large maps, one of each precinct, giving each piece of property and present ownership. In payment the company agrees to accept the taxes, minus the sheriff's fee for collection, for present year upon all the property found unassessed. Next year they will receive one-half the taxes upon this land minus the sheriff's fee, 5 mills school tax and the state tax, whatever it may be. The warrant for the payment of this money to the company is not to be drawn until the money has been collected, and the money deposited in the county treasury. Some time ago a contract of a similar character was made, but was not signed because of objections on the part of the company. This move is a timely one, as there are thousands of dollars worth of unassessed property. A complete abstract of all the land within the county would enable the sheriff to sell property on which there is a delinquent tax.

Excitement. Runs high at Rogers Bros.' drug store over System Builder, as every body is using it. For Catarrh of the Stomach, Dyspepsia, Constipation and Impure Blood, and to build up the system it certainly possesses wonderful merit when all speak so well of it.

Mr. Maxwell, of Tillamook county, was in the city Tuesday on his way to Salem on business. He will place before the legislature a road bill or so. The interesting part of his business to the Yamhill is the establishment of a free road from Jones' mill to the Tillamook road a distance of but a few miles. This will make a saving of some six hours in the time occupied in a journey to Tillamook from this city and vicinity. This road will have less hills and in various ways will be far better for travelling than the present road. The cost will not be much, as the road runs through a comparatively open country. The Yamhill legislators should support the passage of this bill, as it will give quicker access to the two great counties and hundreds of our citizens will receive a direct benefit yearly by its opening. Let us have the road by all means.

Only one in the United States. Out of 1300 of sugar syrup manufactured in the United States, only one has been found to be entirely free from opiates, and that is the California Positive and Negative Electric Cough cure, which is the best on earth for coughs, colds, croup, etc. Sold by Rogers Bros.

Mr. Findley, general merchant of Woods, arrived here Monday on his way to Portland for the purchase of stock, etc. He came over the mountains and back to look at the roads in a horrible condition. He also brought the welcome information that "that cow" is dead. Her death was caused by violence; in fact, she was assassinated. We are sorry to learn that she did not founder on our grub. Her death gives great satisfaction to W. E. Martin, F. E. Rogers and the writer. Plenty of ducks, geese and jacksnipe are now making the Nestucca country their home. Mr. Phelps, proprietor of the hotel has fled for pasture new, and his business is now in the hands of the sheriff of Tillamook county. The weather has been fine and the people are in a prosperous condition. This is a happy state of affairs indeed.

Enclosed's Analges Sale. Lock Out for Him. Monday a man of medium height, light hair, wearing a dove colored flannel shirt, without a tie, put up at Mrs. Breen's boarding house, and Tuesday morning when settling his bill tendered a $5 gold piece in payment. It was taken and $3.75 given him in silver. Soon after Mrs. Breen found that the $5 was a counterfeit, and so informed the sheriff, who immediately started in pursuit of the fellow, who had made himself scarce. He has not been found yet. The passers of counterfeit money have been hunted so much lately in the east that they have changed their location and are now plenty on this coast. It is reported on good authority that six secret service detectives are now on this coast looking after these fellows. But then the people should look out for them.

Money to loan upon real estate in Yamhill county, for a term of years. For terms write to or call upon F. W. Fenton, attorney at law, McMinnville, Oregon.

A Startling Affair.

We learn that the citizens of Forest Grove are considerably stirred up over recent developments in that city where certain prominent citizens have been violating the liquor law. The Grove is a prohibition town. No saloons are allowed within the incorporate limits—only a drug store or two with exclusive authority to slack the thirst of the initiated. The story goes this way: For sometime there has been evidence of illegitimate sale of liquor going on, so the "law and order" committee had a detective put on the trail of the offenders, and pretty soon found a large "mare's nest" was unearthed. It was discovered that a leading physician, a druggist and two drug store clerks, were the disciples of Esculapius fined $400, but let off on the payment of $250 in cash. The clerks were fined $150 and $75 respectively, and in lieu of the cash were incarcerated in the city calaboose; but the drug store man, being of sterner stuff, boldly demanded a hearing at the hands of his peers, so his case is to be tried before a jury.

Dr. Large was fined $250 and Messrs. Sticheome and Hollister, $75 and $150 respectively. The party who made the complaint was also said to be guilty of selling liquor, but the recorder refused to issue a warrant.

After Unassessed Property. The county court has made a contract with the Lombard company, through their local agent, Mr. Shurtless, for a complete abstract of title to all property in the county. The contract calls for fourteen large maps, one of each precinct, giving each piece of property and present ownership. There is no doubt about oil being at Hubbard. When water is pumped out of the well on the place of Mr. Mills the oil can be plainly seen on the stream that comes from the pumps. Oil can be scooped off the top of the water and Hubbard night they struck another and better lead further up the creek, from which the oil pours out in a stream. Indications of oil have been found east of Gervais and around Woodburn. Two miles south of Salem on the bottom road leading to Hall's ferry, where a small stream runs through the place of Mr. Bennie, oil has been discovered. It spurts up the top of the water from the bed of the creek.—Woodburn Independent.

At a point about a quarter of a mile west of Hubbard other strong indications of petroleum are found. It is reported that a man visited the place near town and sank rods in the soil and upon withdrawing them gas was found to be flowing out, which ignited readily and burned brightly. It is said that indications of petroleum are found at several places in the vicinity of Hubbard and also near Aurora.—Gervais Star.

An Investment Company. The young men of this city are attempting to organize an investment company. The idea is to incorporate with a capital stock of $15,000 divided into 50 shares at $300 each. The stock is to be paid up by a monthly payment of $5 and the proceeds to be invested in McMinnville real estate. No salaries are to be paid and the management of the funds is to be placed in the hands of a board of directors elected by the stockholders. Only a certain number of shares can be held by one person and no capitalist can purchase stock. This is a good thing for the town and a safe investment. After purchase of ground the erection of a building will begin as soon as finances will permit.

THE NEW THIRD PARTY.

Some Pertinent Suggestions as to Its Financial Doctrines.

The Kansas Chief declares its adhesion to the doctrines of the alliance party, as far as they have got, that is to the financial part of them, and then goes after them as follows: "We want more money; and, as is customary in such cases, we demand it with a loud voice. If the government has not got the money, why let it make it. We shall be satisfied with an increase of $10,000,000 per month, for the present, to continue until there is enough to go around. We may not be able to get enough of it after it is made; but that must also be provided for. No class legislation for us, if you please. Treat all alike. The government must loan this money to all the people who want it. Right here and now we must put our foot down on the proposition to loan money on real estate security, or on grain deposited in a warehouse. This is but a repetition of the present monopolistic system. A man who has land for security can borrow money now of the mortgage companies; or if he has grain, he can borrow money of it by giving a chattel mortgage. The man without property cannot borrow money; he could not borrow it under the proposed alliance plan. The money that the government would be the ones who could not get it. That doctrine must be improved upon, and that is what we propose to do. The government should loan this money on individual promissory notes. The question of interest is another important item. This money should be loaned for a series of years at 1 per cent interest, payable annually, and if the interest is not paid when due, it shall become a part of the principal, bearing the same rate of interest. If ordinary money lenders wish to come down to these rates and terms, we are in favor of buying of them as well as the government. But as the taxes will be from 3 to 6 per cent, according to locality, it may be objected that the capitalist could not afford to let his money at 1 per cent. We, the people, are looking out for cheap money and lots of it. He could borrow money of the government to pay his taxes. But then that is a question yet to be tackled.

But suppose the borrower is not able to pay the interest. An abundance of cheap money begets luxury, extravagance, and idleness, and even 1 per cent. would become oppressive. In that case, government could afford to cancel the debt. Who or what is the government, anyhow? It is the people, and we are the people. It is our money, and why should we pay for what is our own? Did you ever think of that? It is the simplest thing in the world. A man can borrow money of himself, and give himself his notes for it. He can object to the security, and has no right to growl if the interest is not paid. It is like a dog running around after his tail.

The more we think of it the better we like it. This is the true financial theory; and when the new third party is organized, let it be called the national dog's tail party.

A Wonder Worker. Mr. Frank Hoffman, a young man of Hubbard, Or., states that he has been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case incurable and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, cough and colds, and at that time he was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found before he had used half a dollar bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, that he was able to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any throat, lung or chest trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at Rogers Bros' drug store.
