It was their integrity that put Joseph in the pit, and Daniel in the den, and Shadrach in the fire, and sent John the Evangelist to desolate Patmos, and Calvin to the castle of persecution, and John Huss to the stake, and Korah after Moses, and Saul after David, and Herod after Christ. Be sure if you have anything to do for church or state, and you attemp strike you INTEGRITY ALWAYS BRINGS ABUSE. The world always has had a cross be tween two thieves for the one who con to save it. High and holy enterprise has always been followed by abuse. The most sublime tragedy of self sacrifice has come to burlesque. The graceful gait of virtue is always followed by grimace and travesty. The sweetest strain of poetry ever written has come to ridiculous parody, and as long as there are virtue and righteou world, there will be something for iniquity to grin at. All along the line of the ages, and in all lands, the cry has been: "Not this man, but Barabbas. Now, Barabbas was a robber.

And what makes the persecutions of life worse is that they come from people whom you have helped, from those to whom you have loaned money or have started in busi ness, or whom you rescued in some great crisis. I think it has been the history of all our lives—the most acrimonious assault has come from those whom we have benefited, whom we have helped, and that makes it all the harder to bear. A man is in danger of becoming cynical. A clergyman of the Universalist church went into a neighborhood for the establishment of a church of his denomination, and he was anxious to find some one of that denomination, and he was pointed t a certain house and went there. He said to the man of the house, "I understand when to buy, when to sell, when to trust and to what amount of credit, what will be the effect of this new invention of machinpeculiar kind of Universalism." "What is that?" asked the minister. "Well," re-plied the other, "I have been out in the world, and I have been cheated and slan-dered and outraged and abused until I be lieve in universal damnation!"

The great danger is that men will be come cynical and given to believe, as David was tempted to say, that all men are liars. Oh, my friends, do not let that be the effect upon your souls! If you cannot endure a little persecution how do you think our fathers endured great persecu tion? Motley, in his "Dutch Republic," tells us of Egmont the martyr, who, con-demned to be beheaded, unfastened his collar on the way to the scaffold; and when they asked him why he did that he said, "So they will not be detained in their we have to endure compared with those nomenclature. Oh, how heavy a burden sickness is! It takes the color out of the sky, and the sparkle out of the wave, and the sweetness out of the fruit and the luster out of the night. When the limbs ache when the respiration is painful, when the mouth is hot, when the ear roars with un-healthy obstructions, how hard it is to be patient and cheerful and assiduous! "Cast thy burden upon the Lord." Does your head ache? His wore the thorn. Do your feet hurt? His were crushed of the spikes. Is your side painful? His was struck by the spear. Do you feel like giving way under the burden? His weakness gave way under a cross.

While you are in every possible way to try to restore your physical vigor, you are to remember that more soothing than any them day and night until he was hear, them day and night until he was hear, frenzied. Another burden some have to carry is the burden of bereavement. Ah! these are the troubles that wear us out. If we lose our property, by additional industry perhaps we may bring back the estranged fortune if we lose our good name, perhaps by reformation of morals we may achieve again reputation for integrity; but who will bring back the dear departed? Alas met for these empty cradles and these trunks for the cry of widowhood and orphanage.
