gate of the sepulcher of our spiritual death, crying, "Lazarus, come forth?" Oh, my Christian friends, this is no time for inertia, when all the forces of darkness seem to be in full blast; when steam print-ing presses are publishing infidel tracts; when express railroad trains are carrying you if you preach it not.

messengers of sin; when fast clippers are laden with opium and rum; when the night air of our cites is polluted with the laughter that breaks up from the ten thousand saloons of dissipation and abandonment; when the fires of the second death already are kindled in the cheeks of some who only a little while ago were incorrupt. Never since the curse fell upon the earth has there been a time when it was such an has there been a time when it was such an unwise, such a cruel, such an awful thing for the church to sleep! The great audi-ences are not gathered in the Christian churches; the great audiences are gathered in temples of sin-teareof unutterable woo their baptism, the blood of crushed hearts the awful wine of their sacrament, blas-phemies their litany, and the groans of the lost world the organ dirge of their worship. Again, if you want to be qualified to neet the duties which this age demands of you, you must on the one hand avoid reckss iconoclasm, and on the other hand not stick too much to things because they are old. The air is full of new plans, new projects, new theories of government, new ologies, and I am amazed to see how so ny Christians want only novelty in order to recommend a thing to their confi-dence; and so they vacillate and swing to and fro, and they are useless and they are inhappy. New plans-secular, ethical, hilosophical, religious, cisatlantic, trans-tlantic. Ah, my brother, do not adopt a thing merely because it is new. Try it by the realities of a judgment day. But, on the other hand, do not adhere to unything merely because it is old. There is not a single enterprise of the church or the world but has sometimes been scoffed at. There was a time when men derided even Bible societies; and when a few young men met near a haystack in Massachusetts and organized the first missionary society ever organized in this country, there went laughter and ridicule all around the Chrisian church. They said the undertaking vas preposterous. And so also the work of Jesus Christ vas assailed. Pcople cried out, "Whoever neard of such theories of ethics and govnment? Whoever noticed such a style of preaching as Jesus has?" Ezekiel had alked of mysterious wings and wheels. Here came a man from Capernaum and ennesaret, and he drew his illustrations rom the lakes, from the sand, from the avine, from the lilies, from the constalks.
