McMINNVILLE GYM, No. 31, P. of H. meet in their hall the first and third Saturday of each month at 10 a. m.

Local and General. Dance tonight. A brass key has been found. Call and get it.

Mrs. R. P. Upperman is very sick with neuralgia of the bowels.

A young men's republican club has been organized in Tillamook.

The tile ditches are being dug and the tiles placed as fast as possible.

The yearly inventories of stock trouble many of our business men at this time.

Christmas week is exceedingly dull. The people are enjoying themselves at home.

The hand will give a band concert. The people are assured of some very fine music.

Jas. Sharp of this city received the first prize at the masquerade at Corvallis last week.

The recent storms have been general all over the Pacific coast, and of unusual violence.

The Salem rod and gun club have challenged the Albany club for a team shoot of three men.

Ducks are very plentiful on the river and our sports are enjoying themselves. From 25 to 50 is the average bag.

Judge Catlin of Portland, executor of the Robt Henderson estate was in the city during the latter part of last week on business.

There will be a dance at the armory on Thursday night. All are invited to attend the funeral of the old year. Admission 50 cents.

The Mulligan Guards will attack the Clifflans at the band concert. The finest drill imaginable is being arranged for this entertainment.

A uniformed member of the salvation army appeared upon our streets last week. "Company B" boys had better be looking out for their laurels.

The match between the young shooters for the medal was postponed on Christmas, the weather being very bad. Probably it will be settled tomorrow.

Our young men had better be looking a little out. The leap year will be going at 12 o'clock tonight and our young ladies will then have their say.

There will be a spelling school and ciphering match at the school house Wednesday evening, Jan. 6, 1892. Every one interested is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. S. G. Grubbe, superintendent of the Salem public schools, spent her holiday vacation visiting her sister, Mrs. Ida A. Peebles. Mrs. Grubbe returns to Salem to-day.

The McMinnville Baptist college will open on Monday next. The holidays have been passed by the students in various ways and they seem to be anxious for its opening.

The clerk has forwarded the complete assessment roll of Yamhill county to the secretary of state. He forwarded the summary last week for the use of the state board of equalization.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins, of Cleveland O., will commence a series of meetings at the Christian church next Sunday and will continue each evening during the week. All are invited to attend.

Carlton is organizing a tug-of-war team to try consistent with the champion of this city. A wrestling match is also being arranged between a Carltonian and Thos. Lahar of this city.

A man by the name of Colwell of Carlton is being sought for the past week. Search is being made for him, but it is conducted very silently. He left home a week Monday and has not been seen since.

Mr. Powell, who lately arrived from Texas, has been confined to the house nearly all the time since his arrival here. He has been suffering with bilious fever and the mumps. He is now able to be upon the streets.

We are thankful to learn that there is one place on this earth that is wetter than Oregon. It is said that in Cherra Pongye, in the Khond hills of Assam, India, the rainfall averages for a single month from 100 to 200 inches.

The storm of Monday night was without question the greatest wind storm in the history of this state. Considerable damage was done by it. Fences were demolished but no houses were blown down to our knowledge.

The state board of equalization has found that the Oregon Pacific rail road has not been assessed in Marion and Linn. The O. P. should be assessed and while the board has not the power to assess the tax will be collected by the sheriffs of the counties.

A man was scared to death at Falls City Monday night during the storm. The wind was blowing very hard and the windows of the room in which he was sleeping were forced in, and thinking that the house was falling, he jumped up, ran out doors and suddenly expired.

The young men of this city who attended the dance at Oregon City last week report a splendid time and they all seem to favor full dress dances for the future in this city. The gleaming shoulders and beautiful dimpled arms of the Oregon City belles have completely turned their heads.

Henry G. Galtier is visiting his uncle, Capt. Wyatt Harris, of this city. Mr. Galtier is on a three months' furlough from the United States Navy. Upon the expiration of his furlough he will receive his discharge, having served five years. He has been stationed in the Pacific during this time.

The pumps at the works have raised out of the reach of high water. While this was being done the water supply was shut off because of one of the pumps being in a useless condition. This piece of valuable machinery has been unusable for use since last fall. The council should take better care of the pumps as the safety of the city depends largely upon them.

The originals of the certificates of cars effected by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla are kept on file at the office of the J. C. Ayer Company, Lowell, Mass. Probably no similar establishment in the world can exhibit such a mass of valuable and convincing testimony.

Strong Witnesses.

Among the thousands of testimonials of cures by Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, is that of Nathan Allison, a well known citizen of Glen Rock, Pa., who for years had shortness of breath, sleeplessness, pain in the left side, shoulders, smoothing spells, etc. one bottle of Dr. Miles' new heart cure and one box of Nerve and Liver pills cured him. Peter Gibson, a native of N. J., is another witness who for twenty years suffered with heart disease, was pronounced incurable by physicians, death stared him in the face, could not be down for fear of smothering to death. Immediately after using the New Cure he felt better and could lie down and sleep all night, and is now a well man. The New Cure is sold, also free book, by Rogers Bros.

Notice to Debtors.

The question is frequently asked, "Why is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral so much more effective than other cough remedies?" The answer is, simply because it is the most skillful combination of anodynes and expectorants known to medical science.

McMINNVILLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Summary of the Fourth Monthly Report of the Principal for Month Ending December 23.

Whole number enrolled since Sept. 7th to date. 395.

Whole number belonging to School this date, (25 inst.) 314.

Average daily attendance for month of December. 291.

The schools adjourned for the usual Christmas holiday vacation on Wednesday, the 23rd, to reopen on Monday, Jan. 4th.

Interesting and appropriate Christmas exercises were held in each room. Many parents and visitors were present to witness the rendition of the several programs. Space forbids special notice of the excellent programs rendered, suffice it to say that each and every number was very creditably performed.

At the conclusion of the several programs a brief social interval was granted during which the pupils and visitors were permitted the freedom of the building, and a very pleasant time enjoyed by all present in exchanging Christmas greetings and mingling in a social way. The teachers were the recipients of several beautiful presents at the hands of the pupils of their respective rooms, which very pleasantly came in as a happy reminder during the exercises. The pupils were remembered by the teachers who distributed well filled packages of candies and nuts which greatly pleased the pupils.

Brief addresses were made by Mrs. McKillop, Knowles and Hoberg; Mrs. John Cook, Mrs. Collins and others, who spoke words of commendation and encouragement for and to the pupils, teachers, directors and patrons of the school for the evidence of good work done in the schools.

It should be Stopped.

As the Tuesday 2:55 train reached the bridge across Cozine creek, Marion Putnam, of near Salem, who was on his way to visit the family of W. F. Coulter in this city, stepped out upon the platform. Just as he was pulling the door shut behind him a rifle was discharged in the creek bottom, and the ball plowed a furrow on the left side of his head. His hat was cut for some distance and he is of the opinion that he would have fallen from the train had he not had his hand upon the door knob. Another inch to the right and it would have killed him. The gun was undoubtedly fired by some of the young hoodlums who have lately been shooting firearms in the Cozine creek bottom.

This is within the city limits and an ordinance prohibits the firing of guns within the city limits. This is a very close call for Mr. Putnam, and it should teach careless people a lesson.

The African slave trade is yet carried on to such an extent that a thousand lives are sacrificed every day in the year. Indeed it is doubtful whether in the most barbarous periods of human history there has been any greater barbarity than the African slave trade of to-day. For years there has been constant agitation in Europe for the civilized governments to unite in some action to suppress it. The result of long deliberation was the Treaty of Brussels, which every leading European power except France has now signed; and France and the United States are the only two important powers which have not yet affixed their signatures to it. The treaty cannot go into effect except by the ratification of all the civilized governments, and if it go into effect there is every reason to believe that very much of the slave trade will be abated. The Treaty of Brussels is now before the senate of the United States, and an explanation of our benefits and of our duty in the matter is made in the January number of the Forum, by Judge Lambert Tree, late minister to Belgium.

CRAWFORD—On Saturday, Dec. 26, near Dayton, Oregon, Mr. Crawford, aged 72 years. Death was caused by cancer at the root of the tongue. Funeral held Monday.

Mr. Crawford was one of Oregon's earliest pioneers and has been prominent in the state almost from the time he arrived in it. He was born in Orange county, New York, June 24, 1819.

At the age of thirteen he was apprenticed to a farmer of Seneca county with whom he remained until he reached the age of sixteen years. On March 17, 1842, Mr. Crawford left his home in Schuyler county, New York, bound for the then far distant and thinly settled territory of Oregon. The journey across the plains with all its attendant hardships, described by him in his "Occasional Address to the Association of Pioneers," delivered on June 15, 1881. On his arrival in this state he located at Salem and there taught the Mission school for a period of nine months. In the following year he married a Miss Brown and purchased an interest in the James A. O'Neill claim covering the present town of Wheatland, where he resided until the fall of 1847. At the Wheatland farm in January, 1844, his oldest son was born, being the first child of American parentage born on the west side of the Willamette river. In April 1845, he removed to Oregon City, where he resided for seven years being engaged in moving merchandise around the falls of the Willamette river. He was a member of the provisional legislature in 1847, during which session the Whitman massacre occurred, and again in 1849, the two sessions under the provisional government. In 1852, he removed to the mouth of the Yamhill river and permanently located on the "Joe McLaughlin claim," one of the earliest settled farms in the valley, to which he subsequently acquired a patent under the donation law. He was elected to the first legislature but was counted out by partisan opponents; was again elected in 1860, and took an active part in the election of Oregon's first republican senator, Col. E. D. Baker. In 1861 he visited his father in New York and upon returning across the plains he was taken into government service and made assistant to Capt. Maynadier, U. S. A., who commanded the emigrant escort. In the following year he went east again, and received from President Lincoln the appointment of assistant quartermaster with the rank of captain, and was ordered west, to organize, arm and equip one thousand men and proceed westward across the Rocky mountains for the purpose of assisting and protecting the emigrants. Several trips of this nature were made and in 1864 he resigned his commission. The president then conferred upon him the collector of internal revenue which he held for five years. In 1871, Capt. Crawford was appointed appraiser of merchandise for the port of Portland, by President Grant. This office was held for five years and in 1876 he returned to his farm in this county where he has since resided. Mrs. Crawford died May 20, 1879, and in the following year he married Mrs. E. Burrows. His children, all of whom are by his first wife, are: Medora, Frederick A. Mary E. (Mrs. H. C. Stephens) John M., Albert and Henrietta. Medora J. was, in 1862, appointed to West Point by President Lincoln; graduating in 1867, he took rank as lieutenant of artillery and was assigned to the 2nd where he still remains.

Mr. Crawford has been troubled with the disease which killed him for a long time and has submitted to operations in order to be helped. Nothing seemed to stop its slow encroachment upon his health but a few weeks ago he made his will, bequeathed his property, and remarking that he would like to live in order to see his friends, providing he could do so in full health, gave up the fight against the dread disease. To all appearances he was in good health at this time but since the surrender his decline has been rapid. His name will be long remembered by his friends. Oregon owes considerable to his energy and sterling qualities.

LANCEFIELD.—In Amity, on Sunday, Dec. 27, 1891, R. J. Lancefield, aged 74 years, 9 months and 25 days. Funeral held Monday.

Mr. Lancefield was a prominent man in Yamhill county affairs, being a pioneer and the owner of much land and other property. He was born in Kent, England, on March 2, 1817, coming to New York in 1832. In 1837 he went to Missouri and in 1846 he arrived in this state, where he settled at Amity and has resided there since. In 1852 he married Miss Sarah Malkey, by whom he had two children, Mary E. and R. W., who survive him. Mrs. Lancefield died on Dec. 25, 1855, and in 1863 Mr. Lancefield married Mrs. Eliza Allen. Mr. Lancefield was well preserved, and until within a short time transacted all his business. About three months ago he was taken ill and has been gradually sinking since. His death was without pain.

WELLS—Mary E., wife of W. W. Wells of this city, on Friday, Dec. 25, 1891, of stomach trouble. Age 63 years.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church on Saturday Dec. 26. Mrs. Wells was a native of Pennsylvania. A number of children mourn her loss.
