last in the shop, that's all."

'cut dirt," and we parted.

"to die a fightin, but not to be took."

We were hurrying on at a double

To the right of the road there was a right out as if they owned the place.'

"I can respect a soldier, but d-n a spy!"

shout from the front:

"Whar is yer home?"

"Crost the Blue Ridge."

gwine?"

rifle barrel.

"Hello, thar! Whar's you uns quite prepared to dispute our advance.

"Then why in blazes don't you un

"Is thar any law against we which were returned with interest.

The man told us that he was not alone

It was evident the man was running sion the man said:

CHAPTER VIII. A NARROW ESCAPE FROM THE ENEMY'S CAMP.

WHAR'S YOU UNS GWINE?" court house when we heard yelling away I had every reason to believe that my to the rear. We listened for a few minnerves were proof against shock, but utes; then came the pounding of gallopwhen I heard the Confederate officer ing hoofs. Sleigh had informed us that calling my companion Bell by name I felt for the instant more alarmed than I felt for the instant more alarmed than I coming told that they were out on an had ever been before or have ever been important mission, and it was natural since, and if I had had to respond I am that we should associate it with ourvery sure my voice and manner would selves.

Up to this time our greatest trouble wood, and into this we plunged and conwas to avoid the search parties who cealed ourselves behind the trees till the were scouring the country for Confeder- four troopers had gone past. Sleigh's ate deserters and horse thieves, but here advice was to "stick as close to the roads we should be treated as spies, and we something about "a needle in a bundle both knew how relentlessly men of that character had been executed by both cions. As soon as they had passed we constant and said that a few months more age would improve it. character had been executed by both cions. As soon as they had passed we sides. My back was to the window, which was to my advantage, but Bell his lips and a glint in his gray eyes that the ground to listen.

"Well," said the Confederate lieutenant, after my companion, with a flood of original and rather startling profanity, had declared that he was not 'Tom Bell, the Yankee scout,' but his cousin, "I'll have to allow that I'm mistaken, for a man ought to know himself, but I'd have been willing to bet against big odds that you are the Bell who has been raising hell with our people over round Bun

"Look me over," said Bell, and he drew himself up for inspection. "Now, but up to the time he joined the Yanks. mined to exceed all our former efforts. no man ever dared to look him in the eye and say he was a fool or a coward; about 11 o'clock at night till daylight cowardice don't run in the blood, whether the next morning we must have averwe uns fight fo' the Confed'racy or agin aged five miles an hour, and this over roads rocky, hilly and cut into ruts. As soon as it was light we left the Bell rolled off with an earnestness and main road and followed a path that ran vehemence that carried conviction with in the same general direction. Bell, it. My only fear was that he would who could read a trail like an Indian, overdo the matter by protesting too said there had been pack mules over this much. The officer apologized for his route within forty-eight hours. The mistake; one of the four produced a country was densely wooded, and springs canteen and proposed that we drink to and clear streams were abundant in the better acquaintance, which we did, but valleys, but we traveled till noon with-I felt that this was only a truce and that out seeing a house or a human being. the best thing we could do was to shake Soon after noon, as we were making our the dust of Carnesville from our feet as way along a brawling stream which the soon as possible. trail crossed at a dozen points, we were

After supper I proposed a walk to Bell, and we went down past the little court house, about which were drawn up scores of wagons that had come in with the tax in kind. I felt certain that we were being watched and that it would was that in his voice that indicated he be courting death to go back to the tav- | was in no amiable mood and that he was ern. I knew some men in Chenowith's regiment, two squadrons of which were then in the town and others were expect- ain't got no objections," replied Bell. ed before morning. If I were recognized, the suspicion already directed to Bell would become a certainty and we should be arrested and treated as spies. All this I explained to him, and he agreed with me that our only hope lay | jungle in front I caught the gleam of a in getting away from Carnesville as speedily as possible. It was now night, with a half moon overhead, and we were in good condition for a twenty-four Bell, and he fired off a volley of oaths, hours' march. We had just passed the wagon camp when we heard a quick step behind us and a voice calling out:

"Hello,boys! Whar's you uns off to?" I turned, expecting to see a man with a continued, "is out nosin foh the tax in musket, but to our great relief our challenger was Sim Sleigh, the teamster. with whom I had ridden into town. This drop goes out of these yar hills unless man had been so outspoken in his denun- hits paid foh. Go back and tell the ciation of the Confederate authorities and so eager to have the war brought to an end and so very kind, that on the im- allowed not to still no more foh the Conpulse of the moment I determined to fed'racy, onless the Confed'racy she take him into our confidence, so far as was consistent with the story we had al- Now go back, fo' you uns looks like ready told him. I pointed out that the mighty pore critters, ez hit wouldn't be chances were that Bell and myself would | no credet to shoot." be made prisoners if we returned to the tavern, and that while we had nothing still back in the hills, and that he took to fear from an honest investigation, the us to be Confederates out collecting the result must be to us a great deal of un- tax in kind. Bell repeated the old story necessary hardship and useless trouble; and gave the reason for our being off the then I asked for his advice.

To our surprise Sim Sleigh told us that arms and let the man and his friends he had heard it hinted that we were spies, come out and search us. In conclusion and that he was hunting us up to tell us he said: of the danger when he met us. He as-"Sim Sleigh - mebbe you nos sured us that he had unbounded faith in heard of him-told us back thar at us, and that he had explained to others | Carnesville to take to the woods, so's not where and how he had picked us up, and that it was through his urging we had come on to Carnesville. All this Sim Sleigh told us with all the emphasis that profanity could add to his statement:

Carnesville to take to the woods, so s not to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, in old Habersham, they'd do the squar thing and help we uns on.

Carnesville to take to the woods, so s not to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, in old Habersham, they'd do the squar thing and help we uns on.

Sim Sleigh, who had so befriended us profanity could add to his statement:

Sim Sleigh, who had so befriended us profanity could add to his statement:

Carnesville to take to the woods, so s not to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, in old Habersham, they'd do the squar thing and help we uns on.

Sim Sleigh, who had so befriended us profanity could add to his statement:

Carnesville to take to the woods, so s not to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked us up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked us up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked us up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked us up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to be picked us up, and he said if we uns could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to not could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to not could strike his folks up on the Tallulah, it to not could strike his folks up on the

"By G-d, I'll see you uns through. angel. He was evidently a prominent Make fo' old Habersham. Once you uns character in these hills, for the man in Sim Sleigh's family. is in the hills of old Habersham, hit'll be front, with less anger in his voice, called ont:

Acting on his advice, we sat down under a tree beside the road, but within full sight of the camp fires in the court house square. It was a half hour, and a very anxions one, before Sim Sleigh the rear, accompanied by another man. belts plentifully supplied with ammunition. The arms and equipments had been purloined from two drunken troopers, who were then "sleeping hit off" in one of the wagons.

"Hit's a blazin pity I couldn't hook a on," explained Sleigh, "but by keepin yer off eyes peeled you uns may be able to pick some up.

"a d-d fool" for my pains.

ragged and much stained note book, and these I handed to the man. He opened them in a way that showed he was not accustomed to such work; then he suddenly handed them back, and said:

be it should turn out that you uns can't read 'em right, then it'd be a doggone sight bettah if you uns wussn't never bawn."

uns haz got to be heeled right smart if yer bound foh home. And let me say. gents, them guns ain't meant foh ornament by no manner o' means. You uns knows enough not to crowd into a fight but if nothin else will sarve the purpose and keep you uns free, then give em the effect. Si Kyle and his brother Mart and his son Flint shook hands with us Sleigh gave us minute directions about and promised to help us through. the roads as far as the Tallulah river in the northern part of Habersham county where, he assured us, we should find his folks and a welcome. The two men accompanied us about half a mile out on the Walnut hill road, then advised us to It was about 9 o'clock when we start ed, and we knew that if we were missed pursuit would be made at once. We fully realized what capture under the more prosperous than the average Her first proposal came from a young circumstances meant, and we confirmed, with a strong hand clasp, the resolution quick, but had not gone a mile from the there were no pickets out, and the furious pace at which the horsemen were whisky and a gourd to drink it from.

The gourd was passed around, our hostess frightened that she dropped the teacup we were in the enemy's camp, disguised as you uns can, fo' the country's poundin his uniform and pretending to belong ful rough." As the horses swept by we ful rough." As the horses swept by we ready each that comes of long practice. "Really, Mr. Glasseyes, I don't think to his army. Detection now meant that could hear one of the men shouting out ready ease that comes of long practice.

Before our supper of bread, bacon and the same direction, halting every half milk the gourd was again passed around, down on his knees and murmured in a buttons, while some have but two. faced the light, and there was a set to mile or so, while Bell placed his ear to and to my surprise Si Kyle gave all the pitiful tone. "Oh, Rose darling do say serives as before. This time all doubts as to their mission were set at rest by the remarks which they shouted out as if all hands were deaf: "That Bell's one of the damnedest scoundrels in the coun- is simply the survival of an ancestral was what they meant when they talked on the gauntlet. The thumbs of gloves custom. It did not impress me as hav- about true love. ing any religious significance, for Mr. The next applicant for the hand of the strain, and thus a pair of gloves lasts Kyle and his wife and all the children

This was a function of great

Some of the gloves have a The fact that we could have emptied and they were as unconstrained in all importance. In the morning he sent her dyked black kid band laid on the wrist of the man who had furnished us the carbines rose accordingly. It was now jest what we uns may expect in these carbines rose accordingly. It was now jest what we uns may expect in these less than the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still." It was now in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin in the most distance of the man who had furnished us the most distance of the man who had furnished us the most distance of the most distance of

had heard of our arrival and all about as was shown by their addressing each

We could not see the man, but there With the two Kyles there were ten mountain men in the still house that night. They were physically strong and brave, just the fellows for soldiers, yet "We uns is gwine home, if you uns not one of them had been in the army. Nearly all of them had been conscripted, and when I expressed surprise at their being able to avoid the service, they laughed, and declared with much pride stick to the roads that leads to the that they had "desarted," and they "al-Ridge?" asked the man, and through the lowed that if any sojers had come into the hills to take we uns, they'd a had a d-d sight harder time of hit than if they run into the Yanks." And these, gwine any way we uns likes?" asked I have every reason to believe, fairly from West Virginia down to Alabama.

road, and he offered to lav down our unconventional.

While Mrs. Cleveland was in the "Sho! Do you uns know Sim Sleigh!" White House a college society held a He was assured that we did, and that reunion in Washington and the presiwe esteemed the acquaintance to be a dent's wife consented to receive the very high honor. Following this we members. Among them was a young could hear talking in low tones beyond man from Vermont and one from Georgia returned, and then his appearance the angle of bush covered rocks in front. who passed down the line together. The After a few minutes of earnest discus- grasp of Mrs. Cleveland's hand was so cordial that the pair were anxious to "Wa'al, we uns hez allowed you uns secure another handshake, and after may be all right. But if so be you uns watching the crowd a few minutes fell ain't squar', then may the good Lor ha' in again, and finally reached Mrs. Cleve massy on yer souls. Now, come on." land. The pair looked unconcerned, but as Mrs. Cleveland looked at the we came face to face with two lank striking faces she seemed puzzled but "Hit's a blazin pity I couldn't hook a couple of critters foh you uns to ride off and coarse cotton shirts, and a boy of in the corridor, but were not satisfied about twelve, who if he had taken off even then. Accordingly they changed his shred of a shirt would have been en- coats and hats, ruffled their hair and tirely naked. Their brown faces and worked into the line again. When the long, black hair made them look like lady found them again in line ready Indians, and the old fashioned rifles, to shake hands she looked for a sec powder horns and the boxes for flint and ond and then laughed heartily, but

AN AMERICAN GIRL AND HER AMER-ICAN MARRIAGE

A Brilliant Career of One Season Satisof Wedding Bells-Some Suitors Who Were Not Accepted.

(Copyright, 1892, by American Press Associa-SROSE BUDD'S first winter in New York society progressed and the young girl danced and laughed and was told sweet things and yet remained Je ) a good, true girl. don't you suppose there came to her many a one who asked her for her heart We resumed our march with our and her hand? Rose sat down one day man who it seemed to her thought more We were conducted into one of the of his clothes than of anything else. He cabins and introduced to Mrs. Kyle, a wore the widest of trousers, the most particularly gaunt woman, with very immaculate fitting of coats, his gloves ong, yellow teeth, and to her daughter, evidently did service but once and when Sally, a wild eyed and rather pretty girl he flourished his lawn handkerchief the of sixteen, whose feet appeared to be as little acquainted with shoes as her lithe The flowers in his buttonhole changed and supple form was with corsets. There with the seasons, for he first wore a huge were two beds in the room, and benches chrysanthemum, then a bunch of white of hewn logs with legs fitted in anger violets and then in winter a priceless holes answered for chairs. We handed orchid. From a narrow silk cord dangled our guns and trappings to our host, and a huge monocle. One afternoon after Mart Kyle, the brother, brought in a Rose had brewed him three cups of tea rusty tin can full of vile smelling raw he put the monocle in his eye and lookwhisky and a gourd to drink it from.

As it would be a gross breach of "Miss Budd-1 am about to do you the nountain hospitality to refuse the treat, honor-no-I mean will you do me the I drank some to the health of Mrs. Kyle. | honor of being my wife?" Rose was so the boisterous laughter of men showed achieve that yourself, but with my great you very much for the honor you have Not a man of the party could read, shown me, an honor which I must dehe would do so, and they were par- else, I am sorry to say is true; but in ticularly anxious that he should catch this great big new country there is many York is ready. She is resting this That night Bell and I slept in one of and unless he loved her. Undoubtedly, slept in the trundlebed, and Si Kyle, his member one thing, and that is that the bed across the way. The whole ar- and be merry at all times we are not rangement was entirely primitive and mere butterflies, and we do not give our she said. "Yes." And then he asked, "Rose, will you On the stage Annie Pixley is sprightly, be my wife? And again she answered gay and apparently fall and running "Yes." And so the Rose Endd was over with animal spirits. At home and plucked, and the girl who had been by nature she is serious almost to gravtrained to marry an Englishman, whose ity, but always sweet and womanly. Her education had been directed with a view voice is low and musical, and she is quiet of her making the match of the season, in her movements and of the most rehad shown her own independence by in-fined manners. No word of slang or sisting on marrying the man she loved. scandal ever passes her lips, and much as He had no title save that of gentleman, one must admire her on the stage she and yet, strangely enough, he was the proves ten times more lovable in her catch of the season, for a fortune was home. ried at that time "to an American girl."

-a look that meant that the very fullness of joy had been reached. And one of them whispered to the other, "I hope some day I will be as happy as Rose is." was an American wedding, for the lace veil that Rose wore and which her great-grandmother had worn before her, was pinned on her head not only by stars James Grames. factorily Closed by the Mellow Tones and crescents of diamonds but by an American flag made of rubies, sap-

Defendant.)
To James Grames said defendant: In the name of the state of Oregon. You are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above retribed suit, in the above named court by the 25th day of March, A. D 1802, that being the first day of the first term of said court, but the first day of the first term of said court, but mying the expiration. phires and diamonds, and which came from way across the water, bearing with it this message: "To the one American with the man who as he could not win her will try for dear love's sake to win a woman like her."

And as they came down the aisle of the church these two happy people, Rose and her lover, it seemed as if the wedding march sang that old, old song, "Tis love, 'tis love that makes the world go round."

ISABEL A. MALLON.

Fashions of Paris.

One of the principal reasons why a Frenchwoman has the reputation of the plaintiff, Aaron Mills, the fifty acres, in fee, deeded to him by the plaintiff, Rosana Grames, and to the plaintiff, Rosana Grames and for such the first term of sard count data to the first term of sard count data to the plaintiff and the defendant in the with it this message: "To the one Amer-

GLOVES AND HANDKERCHIEFS. dressing well is because of the close attention that she pays to the details of her toilet. From the tips of her toes to the top of her hat everything must be neat and in keeping. Just as much attention is given to the choice of stockings, shoes, gloves and handkerchiefs as

The new gloves of this season are made to allow for the long sleeves now

Gauntlet gloves are favorites, and the are now set in a manner that relieves

Some of the gloves have a wide, Van-after a short talk with her Rose was sent for, and then in the most dignified tone her admirer said. "Miss Budd, your mother has done me the honor of saying yes to the proposition of marriage which I have just made her." Rose looked at him, laughed and asked, "How in the world could you marry my mother?"

He drew himself up rather stiffly and continued, "I beg your pardon, you did still be and the continued, "I beg your pardon, you did still be and the continued, "I beg your pardon, you did still be a back of the hand. Others have narrow black kid bands six (6) and lo's No twe (2), three (3) for section six (6) and lo's No twe (2), three (3) four six (6) and lo's No twe (2) appeared to be as sensible and brave a man as they had ever met.

"But if I was Tom Bell of Buncombe and come a trapesing ovah heah, I'd be the cussedest fool God Almighty ever made. Tom Bell of Buncombe's my cousin, and that ain't to his discredit; but up to the time he icined to be as sensible and brave a grant was now very certain that an alarm would be yet were described. The new handkerchiefs are in fine batise, I reckon," he said, "ez how hit mout be well to have yer guns handy, for no d—d tax in kind hunter is a gwine to catch Si Kyle asleep." We already knew the ground we could cover on a forced march, and now we deter.

Carbines rose accordingly. It was now very certain that an alarm would be yet times, I reckon," he said, "ez how hit mout be well to have yer guns handy, for no d—d tax in kind hunter is a gwine to catch Si Kyle asleep." We alung our carbines; then, each being provided with a pine knot torch, we on a forced march, and now we deter.

The new handkerchiefs are in fine batiste, colored or white, with double hem-stitched border and with initials heavily embroidered in one corner in contrast-ing our carbines; then, each being provided with a pine knot torch, we already knew the ground we could cover on a forced march, and now we deter.

The new handkerchiefs are in fine batiste, colored or white, with double hem-stitched border and with initials heavily embroidered in one corner in contrast-ing our carbines; then, each being provided with a pine knot torch, we always to the proposition of marriage which I have just made her."

But what we uns may expec' in these budd, your mother has done me the honor of saying yes to the proposition of marriage which I have just made her."

But what we uns may expec' in these budd, your mother has done me the honor of saying yes to the proposition of marriage which I have just made her."

But what we uns may expec' in these budd, your mother has done me the honor of saying yes to the proposition of marriage which I have just made her."

But what we uns may About half a mile from the cabin we continued, "I beg your pardon, you did ors. Lace handkerchiefs of course will entered a rocky glen admirably adapted for defense. A hundred yards from the mother has said yes in answer to my chic, but those of Point, Honiton or Brus-

ANNIE PIXLEY AT HOME.

Interesting Sketch from the Pen of Olive Harper. Among the many good and true women of the stage few have the home in stinct more largely developed than Annie Pixley, and her home life is an exquisite repose after the work and glitter of the theater. There she lives a sweet, wholesome, womanly life and gives her time to the decoration and beautifying of her pretty home like any young woman rejoicing in its orderly arrangement. and her hands have wrought out mar-vels of dainty grace as restful as it is artistic Her home is in a delightful, large New York flat, with a great bay window in room opens with folding door to a sunny library. Here is the desk where she her friends love to get, and the safe duce as soon as her new theater in New

Her parlor is unusually large for a flat, and is handsomely furnished in soft, pleasing color. Over the chimney is a novel arrangement of mandolins, guitars and other musical instruments, and in a wife and the rest of the family occupied though we American girls may laugh corner an etagere full of curios that are really rare. She has a wonderful parrot in a cage that chatters like a four-yearold girl child, and a canary sits in his

In her bedroom, which is just back of the parlor, is a fine marble bust of this All through that winter, in a very beautiful boy, and everywhere are sweet quiet way, Rose had been seeing a young reminders of him, so that his presence Annie Pixley is the happy > their financial success is due, and their married life has been exceptionally

> > FROM YAQUINA.
> > November 8th > > 18th FROM SAN FRANCISCO November 3th December 6th December 2th Passenger and freight rates always the low est. For information, apply to > > est. For information, apply to > > C. C. HOGUE,
> > Gen'l. Frt. & Pass. Agt., Oregon Parific R.
> > Co., Corvallis, Oregon.
> > W. B. WEBSTER

Gen'l. Frt. & Pass., Agt., Oregon Development Co., Montgomery street San Francisco, Ca OTIVE HARPER

SUMMONS.

SUMMONS.

said court, dated Dec. 4th, 1841.

RAMSEY & FENTON,
dec 17 Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

. W. Baird and Alice)

Detendants.

In the name of the State of Oregon :

To M A Webster, one of the above names

J. C. MORELAND And RAMSEY & FENTON.

Executor's Notice.

lett deceased Notice is hereby given that the under Attorneys for said estate.

Notice of Final Settlement.

In the county court of the county of Yam

In the matter of the estate of Geo.E.Getch-ell, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Martha A. Getchell as the administratrix of the estate of George E. Getchell. deceased, has filed her final account of her administration of said estate in the County Court of Yambill County, Oregon, and said court has fixed Tuesday, March 8, A. D., 1892, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. of said day at the County Court room at McMinnville Oregon, as the time and place of

THE YAQUINA ROUTE.

-AND-

PANY'S STEAMSHIP LINE.

Ramsey & Fenton,

hill: State of Oregon.

E. A. Webster, and his wife, M. A. Webster,

M Baird, Piaintiffs

defendants:

amons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the county of Yambill, Rosana Granes, Aaron Mills Seth A Mills and Rhoda Mills, Plaintiffs In the Circuit court of the State of Oregon, for Yamhill county. W. C. Hembree, Plaintiff,

J. T. Hembree, Malvina A.Hembree his wife, John Hembree his wife, John H. Espey, Albert Hembree and Mary A. Hembree his wife, Jason Kellogg and Amanda Kellogg his wife,
Anna Belle Fisk and G.
H. Fisk, ber husband, Edith E. Baugher and Perry Raugher, her husband, Everard H. Carse John W. Carse, Ralph L. Carse, Ernest E. Carse, J.

deeded to them, in fee, by said Rosana Grames, and to the plaintiff. Rosana Grames, in fee, the remainder of said premises, and for such further rehef, in the premises, as may seem to the court meet with equity and good conscience.

This summons is served by publication thereof, for six weeks, by virtue of an order made by Hon. R. P. Boiss judge of

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon-for Yambill County.

You are learely notified and required to be and appear in the above named court in the above entitled suit and answer the compaint filed against you therein by the haintiffs by Menday, the 28th day of March A. D., 1892; that being the first day of the irst term of said court following the expiration of six weeks publication of this sumof six weeks publication of this sum-and you will take notice that if you the appear and answer said complaint. the want thereof, the rlanus will ap-o said court for the relief demanded in compaint, which is in brief, as follows, For a decree in favor of the plaintiffs and n ast said defendants for the sum of ten ousand dollars ($10,000 00) with interest ercon sin e May 15, 1890, at the rate seven per cent per annum; the further sum of $500.60 as orney's fees and for costs and disburse-nts of this suit; for a decree foreclosing mortgage executed by the said defend-s to the plaintiffs on the 15th day of May, thence north eighty-five (85) feet and eight stronger, upon the following described real premises, to-wit:

The donation land claim of J. R. Derby and Ann Derby, his wife, and being the east half of the northeast quarter of section twelve (12) and the southeast quarter of section one (1) in township 3 south, range 4 west, and the southwest quarter of section six (6) and the northwest fraction of the northwest fraction of the northwest and the southwest also the homestead claim, of John M. Gates, No. 854, and being the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter and lot No twe (2), three (3), four (4) and five (5) of section seven (7) in township 3 and helm fill and state of Oregon

The contribution of Andrew Shuck's southeast corner; thence west on said Andrew Shuck's southeast corner; thence west on said Andrew Shuck's southeast corner; thence west on said Andrew Shuck's southleast corner; thence west on said Andrew Shuck's southleast corner; thence west on said Andrew Shuck's southleast corner; thence south (85) eighty-five feet and (8) cight inches; thence cast (140) one hundred and forty feet the east (180) one hundred and forty feet the east (180) one hundred and forty feet

Said tracts conveyed by said mortgage containing 447 ocres and all being situate in Yambill county state of Oregon. And for the sale of said real premises according to law to obtain funds with which to pay said.

The Circuit Court of the State of Oregon. For Yambill county.

H. H. Luse, plaintiff, the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon. For Yambill county.

State of Oregon. The Circuit Court of the State of Oregon. For Yambill county. aw to obtain funds with which to pay said sums of money, costs and disbursements and accraing costs and barring defendants rights in said premises and for such other and further relief in the premises as may deem to the Coart equitable.

This summons is served by publication by virtue of an order of Hon. R. P. Boise, judge of said court, bearing date of December 30, 1891

I. C. MORELAND.

To Chas, F. Woods, John Woods, a mir To Chas, F. Woods, John Woods, a min-or, by —— his guardian ad litem, said defendants: In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby notified and re-quired to be and appear in the above en-titled cause in the above entitled court on or before the 28th day of March A. D. 1892, that being the first day of the next regular that being the first day of March A. D. 1892, that being the first day of the next regular term of said court, to answer to the complaint of the plaintiff filed against you in the said cause, and if you fail so to appear and answer to the said complaint, for want thereof plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the said compaint to-wit: For a decree of foreclosure of the mortgage of plaintiff and sale of the real premises described in said mortgage and said complaint as the undivided half of the donation claim of Margaret Woods, mother of the said Geo, L. Woods, and in her lifetime the wife of Caleb Wood, being the south half of that certain section of land patented to Caleb Woods and Margaret Woods under the act of congress of A. D. 1850, donating lands to the settlers upon public lands in Oregon. Said land being situated in Yamhill county, state of Oregon on the North Yamhill river. And out of the proceeds of said sale thereof pay the plaintiff the sum of $2173.35 with interest from the 8th day of January, 1892, at 8 per cent per annum and the costs and disbursements of this suit and for such other relief as shall be meet in equity and good conscience.

This summons is served by publication n the County Court of the County of Yambin state of Oregon, In the matter of the estate of James 8. gned, George F.ett, has been, by an order the county sourt above named. duly ap-ointed as executor of the last will and tes-ment of sail James S. Flett, deceased Therefore all persons baving claims gainst said estate are hereby notified and required to present the same to the under-signed at the law office of Rausey & Fen-ton, in McMinaville, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice, duly pated this 13th day of January, A D 1892, j14-3 GEORGE FLETT, Executor of said Estate.

This summons is served by publication thereof for six weeks in the TELEPHONE-REGISTER by virtue of an order made by Hon. R. P. Boise, Judge of said court and ated January 13, 1892

BROSAUGH, MCARTHUR,
FENTON & BROSAUGH,
Attorneys for Plaintiff

SUMMONS.

sand day at the County Court room at Me-Minnville, Oregon, as the time and place of tearing the same.

Therefore all persons interested in said state are hereby notified and the said of the state of Oregon, as the time and place of the same.

Catherine Baker, plaintiff, the said of the state of Oregon, as the county of Oregon, as the co

And this felt day of January, A. D. 1892

MARTHA A. GETCHELL.
Administrative of solutions of the solution of t

W. B. Keen, Della A. Keen, Seen, Watkins, defendants.

To W. B. Keen and Della A. Keen, said defendants: In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit by Monday, the 28th day of March, A. D. 1892, that being the first day of the first term of said Circuit court following the expiration of six weeks publication of this summons, and you will take notice that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint for want there of the plaintiff will apply to said court for the reflef demanded and prayed for in said complaint, which is in brief as follows, towit: For a decree in favor of the plaintiff and against the said defendants for the sum of $1000 gold coin together with interest thereon from the 24th day of October, 1889, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, for the sum of $1000 gold coin together with interest thereon from the 24th day of October, 1889, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, for the sum of $1000 gold coin together with interest thereon from the 24th day of October, 1889, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, for the sum of $1000 gold coin together with interest thereon from the 24th day of October, 1889, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, from Now 8, 1890, for $46 is attorneys fees in said suit, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit.

For a decree against all the defendants could be proved by said defendants, W. B. Keen and Della A. Keen. Administratrix of said Estate.

Ramsey & Fenton, Attorneys for said Estate.

(Jan 11-3) Oregon Pacific Railroad OREGON DEVELOPMEN COM-

PANY'S STEAMSHIP LINE.

225 Miles Shorter—20 hours less time than by any other route, time than by any other route, time from Portland and all points in the willing from Portland and all points in the williamette valley to and from San Francisco.

Time Schedule (except Sundays).

Leave Albany 12:20 pm | Leave Yaquina 7 am ary Yaquina 435 pm | Arriv Albany 11:23am | O. & C. trains connect at Yaquina with the Oregon Developement Co's. Line of Steam and Switzer of the Williamette well and San Francisco.

N. B.—Passengers from Portland and all williams the valley Points can make close connect at Albany and Corvallis.

The above trains connect at Yaquina with the Oregon Developement Co's. Line of Steam and Switzer of the Williamster well and the defendants of the part of well and the costs and disbursements of this suit. For a decree against all the defendants are closing the mortgage given by said Parnoclosing the mortgage as executed by said parnoclosing the mortgage given by said Parnoclosing the mortgage as excuted by said parnoclosing the mortgage given by said Parnoclosing the mortgage as excuted by said parnoclosing the mortgage given by said Par sums of money, interest, attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements and accruing costs and barring all the interest of the several defendants in said premises, and for such other and further relief in the premises as may seem to the court meet with equity and good conscience.

This summons is to be served by publication thereof for a period of six weeks, by order of Hon. R. P. Boise, Judge of said court, made and hearing date of January 7, 1862.

Ramsey & Ferston.

Attorneys for Plaintiff.

cation thereof for a period of six weeks by order of Hon. R. P. Boise, Judge of said court, made and bearing date of January 16th. A. D. 1892.

RAMSET & FENTON, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Yamhill County.

Jacob Seitters, Plaintiff,

A. A. Veser, A. Veser, Emma J. Langtree and Moses Langtree, def'ts.

To A. A. Veser and A. Veser, two of said defendants; In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above named Court in the above entitted suit and answer the complaint therein filed against you and the other defendants by the plaintiff by Monday, the 28th day of March, A. D. 1892, that being the first day of the first term of said court to be held alter the expiration of six weeks publication John W. Carse, Ralph L.
Carse, Ernest E. Carse, J.
Loring Espey, Jesse L. Espey. Cora Bell Espey, Edgar Ray Espey, George E.
Espey, Eva Blanch Espey
Irene L. Espey, Waiter
L. Espey, Ethel A. Rowland, Clyde H. Rowland, Herbert E. Rowland, T.
J. Rowland, John H.
Carse, Huston Hembree, Lafayette Hembree and Eliza E. Hembree, his wife, and N. J. Rowland
Defendants.

To the defendants above named; You and each of you are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above-name ed Court in the above entitled suit, and answer the complaint filed thereiu against you by the plaintiff above named, by Monday, the test day of March. A. D. 1882, that being the first day of the first term of said court following the expiration of six weeks publication of this summons and you and each of you will take notice that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint, for the want thereof, the plaintiff and said defendants in of and and running thence north 13 degrees, west 12.30 chains, thence south 61 degrees, west 12.30 chains, thence south 61 degrees, east follows, to wit:

For a decree adjudging the interest of the Plaintiff and said defendants in, of and to the real premises described in the complaint filed herein and described as follows.
Lafayette Hembree, his wife, and N. J. Rowland
Defendants.

To the defendants above named; You and each of you are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above entitled suit, and answer the complaint filed therein against you be conveyed thereby will be described as
and running thence north 13 degrees, west 12.30
chains, thence south 61 degrees, east
1.75 chains to the center of Palmer creek 3 chains, thence north 89 degrees east 3.65 chains to the center of beminning, containing 5.85 acres of land, more or less Tract No. 1. Situated in the city of Me-to the real premises described in the county plaint filed herein and described as follows to-wit:

Tract No. 1. Situated in the city of Medinnyille, in the county of Yambiil and state of Cregon to-wit: Beginning at the intersection of B street in said city of Medinnyille, or goon, with the north line of the donation land claim of Sanuel Cozine and Wife and the south line of the donation land claim of Sanuel Cozine and wife and the south line of the donation land claim of W. T. Newby and wife, asid beginning point being on the west side of B street, thence north thirty-two (32) feet and eight (8) inches to the southeast corner of tract known as Joel J. Hembree tract; thence west one hundred and forty (140) feet to the southwest corner of said tract; thence west one hundred 100 feet, thence south seventy-one (71) feet and eight (8) inches to the line between the donation-land claims of Samuel Cozine and wife and W. T. Newby and wife; thence south seventy-one (71) feet and nime (9) inches to the line between the donation-land claims of Samuel Cozine and wife and W. T. Newby and wife; thence south seventy-one (71) feet and and forty-five (245) feet to the place of beginning.

Tract No. 2. Beginning at a point thirty two (32) feet and eight (8) inches north of the intersection of said B street with said north line of the donation land claim of W. T. Newby and wife, and on west side of said B street with said north line of the donation land claim of W. T. Newby and wife, and on west side of said B street with said north line of the donation land claim of W. T. Newby and wife, and on west side of said B street with said north line of the donation land claim of W. T. Newby and wife, and on west side of said B street thence north eighty-five (85) feet and eight (8) inches north of the donation land claim of W. T. Newby and wife, and on west side of said B street with said least the said decay and said decay and sufficient to the place of said decay and sound the said decay and sound the said decay and sound the said the For a decree against you and the other

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregor for Yamhill County.

Jacob Seitters, Plaintiff, August Veser and Anna A. Veser, Defendants,

To August Veser and Anna A. Veser, said defendants: In the name of the State said defendants: In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby notified and required to be and appear in the above entitled suit in the above named court and answer the complaint therein filed against you by the above named plaintiff by Monday, the 28th day of March, A. D., 1892, that being the first day of the first term of said court to be held after the expiration of six weeks publication of this ration of six weeks publication of this summons and you will take notice that if you fail so to appear and answer, for the want thereof, the plaintuff will apply to said court or the relief demanded and prayed for in said complaint, which is in brief as for in said complaint, which is in the follows:

For a decree against you amending and correcting that certain deed of conveyance made and executed by you to the plaintiff, on the 24th day of November. 1880, as to the description of the lands thereby conveyed, said deed to be so amended and corrected that the description of the lands.

veyed, said deed to be so amended and corrected that the description of the lands thereby conveyed will be as follows instead of the description now contained in said deed, to-wit:

Being a part of sections 16 in tp. 4 s r 3 w, in Yambill county, state of Oregon, and commencing at a point in the center of the county road now there, which point is 7.45 chains north, 13 degrees west from the center of a small branch on the Dayton and Wheatland county road at what is known as the Joseph Hill bridge near the town of Dayton in said county, and running thence north 13 degrees, west 9.20 chains to the uortheast corner of R. Snyder tract; thence south 86 degrees, west 9.20 chains to the west line of the C. Goodrich land riaim No. 49 in tp. 4 s, r 3 w, in said county; thence west line of the C. Goodrich land craim No. 49 in tp. 4 s, r 3 w, in said county; thence south 13 degrees, west 1.70 chains, intersecting Palmer creek; thence following south 13 degrees, west 7.55 chains to northwest corne of a tract intended to have been deeded by Emma J. Duke and husband to Jacob Scitters; thence north 86 degrees, east along the north line of said tract intended to have been deeded as aboresaid 12 30 chains, to the place of beginning contaming 10.06 acres, more or less, and decrecing that the plaintiff is the owner in fee of said premises above described, and requiring you to make and deliver to the plaintiff within 30 days from the date of said decree, a good and sufficient deed of conveyance of said premises and in default of the making of said deed as aforesaid, that said decree stand and operate, in all respects, as and for said deed and for such other and further relief in the premises as may seem to the court meet with equity may seem to the court meet with equity may seem to the court meet with equity and good conscience.

This summ ons is to be served by publication for a period of six weeks, by order of Hon. R. P. Boise, Judge of of suid court, bearing date of January 13th. A. D., 18 2

RAMSKY & FENTON,

Attorneys for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon,

Daniel Parsons, C. B.

ADVERTISERS of others, while ween to exercise on advertising space when in Chicago, will find it on file a 45 to 49 Randolph St., LORD & THOMAS.

I objected to the arms and was called

'What's a man in these hills in these Sleigh contemptuously; then answering this impression. They were not yet as- was quite sufficient. The grasping pair his own question: "W'y, he's helpless as sured that we were what we claimed to were forced to agree with her. a baby in colic time. No. sir-ee. you be, for the man who had done all the talking asked if we had any papers about THE STORY OF A BUD us that would prove our statements.

I had the forged furloughs in my

"You uns ken read?" I said we both had that accomplish-"Wa'al, read them papers, and if so I read the furloughs exactly as I had written them, the men and the boy watching me the while like hawks. Then I had to explain my object in carrying the note book, and at Mr. Si Kyle's request I read extracts from that, showing that we had been in South Carolina the week before. This had an excellent strange allies, and about a mile beyond and thought out the reasons why these the place of meeting we came to a bowl stories of love were told her, and having shaped valley, in the center of which learned a little of the ways of the world there was a cluster of log cabins. Here she concluded it was because she was a there was an extensive cornfield, and rich man's only child. Now in thinkthe cattle and mules grazing along the ing this she did herself a little injustice. creek, with a number of tow headed for her gentle ways won the hearts of and nearly naked children watching the men who first thought of her great them, showed that Mr. Si Kyle was wealth.

In about an hour the soldiers came back at a walk, while we concealed ourtry." "Ought to 've strung 'em both up at once." "Only think of letting 'em walk the four saddles without serious risk to ourselves gave us a great deal of confidence, and my respect for the good sense dence, and my respect for the good sense dence d

We did not walk, we trotted; and from that they had been doing their best to vantages. If you will permit me, I will keep Mr. Kyle's whisky from getting put your engagement ring on, and give old. There were eight men in the still my first kiss to my future wife. house, all in the prime of life, all dressed Poor Rose! There she stood growing in butternut trousers and cotton shirts, and all with powder horns and bullet whiter and whiter, feeling that her own mother was selling her for position expouches slung from their shoulders and actly as if she were a slave. She summed men shook hands with Bell and myself mother she said to her admirer: "Thank brought to a sudden halt by a hoarse as if we were old friends, and that they

of us by his proper name.

represented the men of the Blue Ridge and that if we took another step forand their ignorance of the outside world cline. You do not know that an Ameriward he would fire. "You uns," he was astounding. They were loud in can girl asks in her married life for their denunciation of "niggahs and Yanks," and seemed to have only the something else besides position, and that kind, but hit ain't no go. We uns hez give the last, and not one more d-d vaguest notion of the causes that led up not expect to have a faithful wife. And to the war; but they took no pains to yet in all that you have offered me you quar'masters that Si Kyle and his crowd hez got thar backs up. We ums hez federacy," principally, it would seem, pression among Englishmen, especially one of the prettiest parks, and this hez got thar backs up. We uus hez because of the conscription and the tax among Englishmen of title, is that an in kind. Stories of Sherman's advance American girl will sell her soul for a on Atlanta had reached them, but so coronet and for the sake of being pre- writes all the pleasant little letters comes har with the cash, and lots of hit. long as he kept away from "Old Haber- sented to the queen. They are mistaken. sham" they did not care if he overran That there are some women who value where her MS. plays are kept. There the state; indeed, they rather hoped that money and position before everything are three there now, which she will pro> and hang "Old Joe Brown," then the a one who would not marry the king of season. governor of Georgia. the beds with two of the children. The you have meant to show me an honor. I oldest girl and another lot of children thank you for that; but I ask you to re-

yar times without a gun?" asked Sim steel fastened to their belts increased shook hands, suggesting that three times

"Really, Mr. Glasseyes, I don't think to the dresses, bonnets and wraps, and Bell praised the whisky and said that, you quite know what you are talking are scarcely less in importance. "Oh, yes, I do," he said, and he smoothly arranged his trousers, got worn, and have never more than four children a drink of whisky, explaining yes and make a man of me!" And Rose, edges of them are beaded with very fine to me that "hit was the best thing in looking straight at him, answered, "That steel, jet or gilt beads, with sometimes the world for worms;" then he asked a would be impossible." And then the a small flower in colored silk to match blessing. A majority of these moun- poor fellow got up and cried a little bit or contrast sharply. On the backs of a large bouquet of white roses: in the of light gloves, not quite at the top and visit the still. "And ez thar's no knowin was sent fer, and then in the most dig- quite at the top of the glove.

entrance it widened out into a little am- proposition to marry you. You will oc- sels are those shown in the magazines. phitheater, and here, set against a tow- cupy one of the finest positions in Engering rock, was the still. The stench told that there was a pigpen in the and I will de all in my power to make von a great social success, although as The glow from the log building and an American you would undoubtedly that there were others shead of us, and name you will of course have special ad-long hunting rifles within reach. These up courage, and without a word to her England himself unless she loved him hands without our hearts." It seemed as it nose had gained two teet in height which, if followed out, he assured us would take us, "without hurt or harm," to the Tallulah river and the home of man, who was her father's lawyer, an seems to pervade everything. bonest, open hearted gentleman. And what is the use of lingering over it. He Robert Fulford, to whose good judgloved her, and one day he said, "Rose, ment and careful management much of do vou love me?" And looking him straight in the face awaiting him the day he was twenty- She dresses for the street with quiet eight years old, provided he was mar- simplicity and her home gowns are mod- est. els of taste and neatness. She can make All the gay world went to see this and always designs her own dresses, and wedding The girls who were Rose's is very fond of sewing.

bridesmaids looked in her eyes and saw Annie Pixley is a Californian