Owing to the unavoidable absence of the Rev. Wm. Powell, there were no services at the Episcopal church last Wednesday night. But there will be the usual services at the church on next Wednesday evening, March 30th, at six o'clock. All are invited.

It is not the extremes of heat and cold so much as the sudden changes in temperature that cause certain climates to be unhealthful. When, however, the system is vigorized with Ayer's Sassaaparilla, these changes are rarely attended with injurious results.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a number of years and it has always given me satisfaction. It is an excellent dressing, prevents the hair from turning gray, insures its vigor and keeps the scalp white and clean."—Mary A. Jackson, Salema, Mass.

Mrs. E. N. Ford received from the East last Saturday a large stock of Singer sewing machine. It is of the best turned out by the Singer company, and was sent as a present for a subscription to a monthly paper, the principal value of which is as an advertising medium. The machine cost her less than five dollars all told.

A. J. Apperson has moved into his new store and his ad calls your attention to a few interesting facts. The articles on road making written by the supervisors of this county are still finding their way into our exchanges.

The large stock of A. J. Apperson is well displayed and an inspection of it will surprise you. Its magnitude and quality is unsurpassed by any other store in town.

Everybody is invited to attend the meeting of the A. O. U. W. at the opera house on Tuesday night, March 25. This is for the good of the order and the audience will be addressed by O. B. Whitmore and others.
