Local and General.

L. W. Parker is with Jones & Adams as salesman.

"Little Beauty" at C. Grissen's. A splendid organ for $45.

The fellow who pulled the fire bell Saturday night should be prosecuted.

O. H. Irvine is in Albany at the bedside of his father, who is not expected to recover.

Jones & Adams have made a new rate in lumber. The price is considerably reduced.

The members of the Christian church wish to thank Mr. B. Clark for a handsome pulpit.

A daughter of Thos. Biggs died Wednesday aged 9 years. The funeral will be held to-day.

Dr. Jessup, of Newberg, will go to England to work up the interests of the Pacific College.

George Norrie, of Portland, is spending a few days with his brother, Jas. Norrie, of this city.

Company B has fixed up the company rooms and will put in lockers for the accommodation of the members.

The protracted meeting at the Christian church starts off with a full house. So far 5 have been added to the membership.

Walter Link is now with the McMinnville National bank as book keeper. Chas. McKinney takes Mr. Link's place with Jones & Adams.

The nicest dance of the season was given last Saturday evening by the Dancing club. Some 60 couple were present and all enjoyed the evening.

The Psi Phi Journal of the Lafayette seminary is at hand for the month of December and is a creditable sheet The print as well as the matter is readable.

The talk of putting in an electrical power plant at the falls of the Nestucca still goes on. The idea is practicable and the power can be transmitted to this city.

The calendar of the Wisconsin Central railroad is the neatest one yet for the year '93. This road will probably, in connection with the Northern Pacific, transport the majority of the people from the Pacific northwest to the World's fair.

A scandal has come to light in the insane asylum at Salem and it will be investigated. If it is true tar and feathers would be too light a penalty for the fellows who have ruined several of the crazy female occupants.

Granville Baker, who has been suffering with neuralgia of the stomach, is now better and is once more on the street. The disease has made a great change in his appearance, as for some eight days he was unable to retain anything upon his stomach.

The masquerade at the rink Tuesday night was well attended. The prize for the best skaters was awarded to Thad Simpson and Miss Annie Dielschneider. The fancy skater's prize was awarded to a young man from Portland by the name of Allison.

The McMinnville band gave a concert on Friday of last week, and, like all the other entertainments given by the band, was a success. The band is making steady headway in music, and while the city is not large she has the best band in the state outside of Portland.

On Monday and Tuesday Prof. Peebles, the head of our public schools, visited the various grades and the result of his findings is given in another column. Mr. Peebles has been in our schools over three years, and to his ability largely is due their present success.

The firm of Ramsey & Fenton, attorneys-at-law, has been dissolved by mutual agreement and each will hereafter give his attention to all business that is given him. The offices of both continue to be in the Union block, Mr. Fenton's being rooms 1 and 2; Mr. Ramsey having rooms 6 and 7.

Mrs. Helen B. Hartford, state organizer and lecturer for the W. C. T. U., will make the tour of Yamhill county speaking at the following places on the given dates. Whiteson January 6th; Amity, 7th; South Yamhill 8th; Sheridan, 10th and 11th; McMinnville, 12th; North Yamhill, 13th; Carlton, 14th and 15th; Lafayette, 16th; Dayton 17th.

The Rebekah degree of this city installed officers Tuesday night. All the members were present and a pleasant social time after the work makes the evening one long to be remembered. Lafayette lodge, I. O. O. F., installed officers Monday evening publicly and a large audience witnessed the ceremonies. Rev. Jos. Hoberg, of this city delivered the address.

W. D. Austin, has purchased the Jersey Dairy from C. W. Holman and will continue to furnish milk at the same rates. People taking milk during the coming year are assured of the best quality and prompt delivery.

The entertainment at the opera house on Friday, the 13th of this month, will probably be the best one of the season Specialties of all kinds will be introduced, for instance, Dr. G. S. Wright will address the audience on "How to hatch chickens from boiled eggs."

Newell Macrum, who has been employed in the McMinnville National bank for the past year, moved to Forest Grove last week. During his stay in the city Mr. and Mrs. Macrum made a host of friends among the young people, who are sorry to see them depart. Success attend them.

The citizens are looking forward to a lively movement in the spring. The growth of the city depends upon themselves and an effort on their part to make things lively will bring new life to the city. Several new bricks are contemplated and the year '93 will no doubt show a larger improvement than '92.

Last week this paper received too late for publication an account of the wedding of Knight Olds, of this city and Miss Minnie Pearce of Carlton. The happy couple are now in Pullman, Wash., where they will remain for a week yet and then return to this city where they will make their future residence.

Saturday evening Roswell Bewley and family, of Sheridan, returning from a watch meeting found their home in ashes, it having burned while they were away. Nothing was saved excepting the articles of apparel upon them. The loss is considerable and there was no insurance upon the property. It is generally thought to be the work of an incendiary.

The marriage license record for the week contains the names of S. F. Staggs aged 75, and Mariah L. B. Staggs aged 59, who were married on Sunday, the first of January, 1893. Mr. and Mrs. Staggs are the second oldest couple to whom license to wed has been granted in this county. The oldest couple was Neil Johnson, aged 76, and Rebecca Woods, aged 64. This license was issued on September 7, 1878.

J. L. Andrews, of North Yamhill, sends us a lengthy article on "The Engineer." Steam engines are not used to any great extent by our readers and those who use them probably know how to handle them properly. The communication should be sent to a paper devoted to such questions and taken by engineers. The manuscript is subject to the call of Mr. Andrews with stamps enclosed for its return.

Tuesday a Chinaman, slick as a whistle, bright and intelligent looking, stepped into the office and said that he wanted to see how "Melican man make um paper." He looked around, commented on things and knew as much about the business as the average American after his first visit to a printing office. This is the first Chinaman we have had call upon us and he was such a bright one that we can't help but mention the fact. He wore American clothes and was far above the average.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

The Schools of the City Start in With an Increased Attendance.

The city public schools reassembled, after a week's holiday, on Monday. The festivities usually incident to holiday times did not make any inroads on the attendance, as all the rooms had their full complement of pupils and several new pupils put in an appearance.

There are now more than 400 pupils in actual attendance distributed among the several schools as follows:

FIRST STREET SCHOOL.

Geo. A. Peebles	higher grade	29
Miss Woods	grammar "	39
Miss Peters	intermediate "	48
Miss Mark	3rd primary "	44
Mrs. Johnson	2nd " "	46
Miss Ground	1st " "	52
Total		258

B STREET SCHOOL.

J. A. Buchanan	gram'r grade	40
Mrs. Matthieu	interm'd't "	55
Miss Greene	1st & 2d primary grade	56
Total		151
Grand total		409

The above is taken from the December report of the principal of the school Geo. A. Peebles. The new pupils that have entered this week will increase the enrollment beyond 420.

The following is the general summary of the principal's December report to-wit:

No. days taught	20
" " attendance	6806
" " absence	798
" cases tardiness	133
" boys enrolled	203
" girls enrolled	206
Total number enrolled	409
Average number belonging	380
Average daily attendance	346

The schools are now in good working order, the teachers and pupils all taking great interest in their work.

Notwithstanding the snow storm's serious interruption in the attendance all the schools closed for the holidays with interesting literary exercises, that were especially creditable to all taking part. The teachers were the happy recipients of presents at the hands of the pupils, and the little folks were remembered with beautiful Christmas cards by their teachers. A number of visitors witnessed the various exercises. Lack of space forbids an extended notice of the several programs rendered.

The schools will probably prepare some work for the World's fair school exhibit.

The principal is arranging for the organization of a local teachers' association composed of the teachers in the city schools.

This organization will greatly facilitate uniformity of school work and also prove of much benefit to the teachers individually.

SILVER WEDDING.

A Surprise Party Given to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Johnson of this City.

On Wednesday evening, December 28, shortly after 8 o'clock, as Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Johnson were seated quietly in their home the ring of the door-bell summoned them to the door, which, upon being opened disclosed to their astounded gaze, an apparently innumerable throng of people, who immediately took unceremonious possession of all parts of the house. It was, indeed, a complete surprise, and when the recipients recovered the use of their faculties in a measure they ascertained that the occasion of the same was the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their own marriage and that all this company had assembled to give the affair proper observance. The guests were at once given the freedom of the house and every effort made to insure their comfort and enjoyment.

Various games of a social nature were instituted and enjoyed until a halt was called and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were summoned to the parlor, where they were confronted by a stand on which were displayed a number of pieces of silverware which Hon. J. E. Magers, in a few appropriate remarks, speaking in behalf of the assembled company, presented to the couple as a slight token of the regard of their numerous friends after a quarter of a century of wedded bliss.

The presents were:

Silver tea-set and tray, set of silver teaspoons, silver pie-knife, silver berry spoon, silver cake knive, silver castor, silver souvenir spoon, and silver card receiver and toothpick holder—these last two articles from friends in Montana.

After the presentation was concluded a substantial lunch, which had been provided by the ladies, was served after which social amusements again held sway until a late hour, when the guests dispersed, unanimously voting the affair a success and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Johnson another quarter of a century of unalloyed bliss, when they all hope to again meet to celebrate their golden wedding.

Wilham Campbell was the only member of the company who was present at the marriage ceremony in 1867, when these twain were made one, and announces a firm determination to be present at the celebration twenty-five years hence.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

For the next thirty days Apperson will be kept busy invoicing his stock, as the clerks go through. All broken lines, odds and ends, will be carefully assorted out of every department. The goods assorted out will be sold at just one-half price to clean them up, making the greatest bargains ever offered the public. As these are good seasonable goods, and sold at these low prices simply because of being broken lines, it is not likely they will last long. Therefore those coming early and often will get the best bargains. All goods not included in our Odds and Ends sale will be sold at regular prices.

ANOTHER POPULIST.

The Supreme Court Decides that Pierce's Total Vote Shall be Counted

In the supreme court Jan. 2, in the case of H. B. Miller, appellant, vs. C. W. McBride respondendent, on appeal from Marion county, the opinion of the lower court was sustained. This is a proceeding by mandamus to compel the respondent, as secretary of state, in making the official canvass of the votes cast for presidential electors at the late election as returned to him by the various county clerks, to abstain from counting certain votes alleged to have been illegally cast for Nathan Pierce, one of the candidates for elector nominated by the people's party, in consequence of his subsequent nomination by the democratic party, and the printing of his name on the official ballot in more than one place—that is, in both the people's and democratic group of electors. The majority of the court is of the opinion that the printing of Pierce's name on the ballot in more than one place was contrary to the provisions of the law, although Judge Bean was of a different impression. However this may be, the court all agree that the mistake, if it was a mistake, in printing Pierce's name on the official ballot in both the people's and democratic group of electors did not deprive the voter who cast such ballot of his elective franchise or the candidate for whom it was cast the benefit of such vote. The decision says the law is mandatory in the sense that it requires the county clerks, in the preparation of the official ballot, to strictly comply with its provisions, but not in the sense that the voter's right to exercise the elective franchise will be lost because of some technical mistake of the county clerk in printing the names of the candidates upon the ballot. Such construction of the law would not only render an election invalid on account of the honest mistake of a county clerk, but would open the door to gross fraud. It would place the power in the hands of a dishonest officer to disfranchise the voters of his county, as well as cause the defeat of any particular candidate. The court remarks that it is doubtful whether the question sought to be litigated can properly be determinod in a mandamus proceeding against the state canvassing board, which does not have and is not entitled to the inspection of the ballots as printed or cast at an election. The opinion is by Judge Bean.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits Rogers Bros., druggists.

The young men and women who aspire to obtain academic or college educations, and whose parents cannot afford them that expense, will be interested in the work of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, which has offered for the year 1893 one thousand scholarships at any of the leading colleges or schools of the United States, upon the condition of introducing into certain neighborhoods. Yale, Vassar, Harvard, Ann Arbor, Chicago, the Southern colleges, the great schools of art and medicine, are all alike open to the ambitious boy or girl who is not afraid of a little earnest work. The Cosmopolitan sends out from its New York office a handsomely printed pamphlet to any applicant, telling just what is necessary in order to secure one of these scholarships. The scholarship itself includes board, lodging, laundry and tuition—all free.

Marriage Licenses.

The clerk has issued licenses to wed to the following persons during the week past:

R. JACOBSON'S
Great Bona Fide Sale.

A discount of 15 per cent. on all goods commencing on the 3d day of Nov., 1892, and continue for 60 days only. Our reasons: No. 1. Late fall and overstocked. No. 2. Obliged to raise money. No. 3. Intend to make alteration in our store. No. 4. Expect to make a change in business. All goods marked in plain figures. Our 15 per cent. discount is fully equal to a 25 per cent. discount offered by other houses. We have always claimed to sell cheaper than any other firm in Yamhill county. Fully 10 per cent. The public should take advantage of this great opportunity to secure bargains, and come early, while our stock is complete. We make the bold assertion and claim to carry the largest and most complete stock of clothing, boots and shoes, dry goods and ladies' wraps, outside of Portland.

P. S.—All those knowing themselves indebted will please call and settle.

Lieut. Milton Davis is spending the holidays at McCoy with his parents. He is stationed at San Francisco.

Geo. Snyder, formerly editor of the Dallas Transcript, has accepted a position on the Corvallis Gazette.

Dr. Churchman's barn caved in one day last week the roof falling all around his buggy horse, but beyond a few scratches the animal was unhurt. A cart and buggy were somewhat smashed up.

The wheat saved from the fire that consumed the Dixie warehouse, will pay about 20 cents a bushel on the original amount.

[North Yamhill Leader, Dec. 30.]

J. D. Andrews bid farewell to his many friends in this vicinity last Monday and departed for California where he intends to reside in the future.

Thursday evening a messenger arrived from Sampson's mill and stated that Henry Moore, well known in this vicinity, had died at the mill shortly before noon that day. Word was immediately sent to his sister and brother, who reside in Lafayette, and his brother came up accompanied by another man, and on Friday they started for the mill, but were unable to make the trip, and returned to this city about noon. Later in the evening some men came in from Moore's valley with a sleigh, and they took the men as far as they were going that night, and the next day they got through to the mill where they assisted in burying the unfortunate man, it not being possible to bring him out until after the snow goes off. Mr. Moore, was a man about forty eight years of age, having been admitted to the bar in this state a number of years ago. He was also a first-class mechanic and worked in this vicinity for a number of years. He was his worst enemy, being unable to resist the temptation to drink he would spend his entire earnings for liquor, and this alone is given as the cause of his sudden death.

[Dayton Herald Dec. 30.]

There is a prospect that a lodge of Knights of Pythias will be organized in Dayton. A number of names have been pledged for this purpose.

We have a potato at this office which weighs 4 pounds. It is all one potato, smoth and no sprouts. It was raised by A. L. Alderman, who had more of the same kind.

The barn on Charley Spaulding's place adjoining O. Hatfield's, collapsed under the weight of the damp snow last week. There were several oxen of the logging team in the barn. Two of them were somewhat scratched, but all escaped serious injury.

It is not every country that produces a second crop of fruit in a year. It is a rare occurrance to pick grapes from the vines on Christmas day and when the snow is on the ground. It was the good fortune of the editor to pick a bunch of grapes of second growth from vines in John Mauts' garden, which were well matured and of good flavor. Mr. Mauts had quite a lot of second crop grapes and raspberries this season.

[Newberg Graphic Dec. 30.]

Andrew Christenson and daughter, formerly from Sioux City, Iowa, but now from Dakota, arrived here this week and are stopping with his brother H. L. Christenson, of our town.

Mr. Van Robertson, brother of Warren and Walter Robertson, who has been up in Idaho for the past sixteen years, surprised his relatives one day last week by quietly dropping in on them with his family to spend the holidays.

The heavy snow on Sam Shultz's barn roof was too much for it and the whole thing collapsed. The falling timbers killed his horse and broke his cow's leg so that she had to be killed. Roofs should always be well supported in this country as some very heavy snows fall occasionally.

The following ticket was nominated at the city caucus last Monday night. For Mayor, Dr. G. W. McConnell; Recorder, J. C. Colcord; Marshal, Frank Mills; Treasurer, M. Votaw; Surveyor, M. Mr. Morrison, of Whiteson, is said to be slowly growing worse.

The new mill dam on Mill creek west of Sheridan, built by Brown & Co. for the Sheridan Mill Co., was washed out during the recent snow.

The roofs of three sawmills and a number of other buildings up in the mountains were crushed in by snow during the recent storm.

A tramp stopped at the residence of Mr. Haworth west of the city just before the late snow storm set in and wanted lodging and employment. Mr. Haworth did not need his services but permitted him to remain during the severe weather with a promise of his services at 50 cents per day when the weather cleared up, to at least pay his keeping. Mr. Haworth had a business trip to make to Portland and while gone the family also went visiting leaving the stranger in charge, on his promise to attend to the chores during their absence. They remained over night and on their return next day the tramp had skipped and taken with him every available article of value that he could make way with. Mr. Haworth and son set out at their earliest possible convenience, which was Tuesday morning, to see if they could trace the vagabond. He was a man of average size and build, wore a mustache and about two weeks' growth of whiskers, spoke with an Irish brogue and was crippled in one ankle. Mr. Haworth will pay a reward for his interception and capture.

LO REGRETS IT.

The Siwashes at the Grand Ronde Reservation are Citizens.

Our Indian citizens at Grande Ronde are beginning to experience some of the discomforts that follow in the train of citizenship. Under the law they are liable for their debts.

The other day Ellis Bros., who keep the Grande Ronde store, brought suit against a newly fledged citizen named Billy Shoefawn. The latter came to town Thursday last and compromised the suit by paying the account and cost of the case. This is the first case on record in this county where an Indian has been sued, on account of their being wards of the government, and consequently irresponsible for debt. Several of the Idians, according to the constable, expressed themselves as being sorry that they voted. Every sweet has its bitter, however, and if our Indian brethren get into the political arena and whoop it up according to their convictions, they must also shoulder all of the responsibilities of the average citizen, among which is the right to sue and be sued. They must learn that business is business, and that if a man buys he must pay, and if he pays his debts and conducts himself respectable, he is just as good as a white man and no better.—Sheridan Sun.

A Landslide--Very Marked Results.

The term landslide usually conveys intelligence of disaster, whereby many are killed, but this time it is used to indicate the enormous sales of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, a remedy that is daily saving the lives of thousands who are suffering from nervous disorders. It cures palpitation, nervous prostration, headache, backache, spinal diseases, hysteria, ill effects of spirits, confusion of mind, etc., and builds up the body surprisingly. Brown & Maybury, Cortland, New York, say one patient used nervine and gained fifteen pounds of flesh. Sold by Rogers Bros., the druggists, on a positive guarantee. Get a book free.

From Near Town.

The people of Eden valley are not dead, but liveth. They were badly snowed in during the snow storm, but are too enterprising to stay long buried.

Quite extensive preparations were made for an entertainment and Christmas tree for Christmas eve at the Cowls schoolhouse, but on account of the deep snow and crust, had to be abandoned. But the entertainment was given New Years eve to a large and delighted audience.

A great deal of credit is due Mrs. Annie Wisecarver, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Derby, Mr. Chas. McCall and wife and Dr. Dukenfield for the management of this entertainment.

Ward and Pratt Sitton, who are attending school at Monmouth, and Ward Wisecarver, who is attending business college at Portland, were home for the holidays.

The snow did considerable damage in this vicinity to barns and sheds Joseph Funk and Jerome Derby each had a shed crushed in. Derby's shed was attached to the barn and in it was housed a separator, which was crushed into kindling wood. Three head of stock were buried in the debris of shingles and fallen timbers, but were not seriously injured.

Dr. Dukenfield gave his school a week's holiday on account of the deep snow.

Rumor has it that one of our popular young men is soon to turn benedict.

A party of young people dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Derby Friday evening. Refreshments were served during the evening and an enjoyable time had by all that were present.

Another entertainment will be given in the near future. The proceeds will go to finish paying for the organ.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.

"TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION."

Strange, but True:

WALLACE & WALKER would rather have the Choice Groceries now decorating their shelves, in the cupboards of the good housewives of this city than where they are.

They Want to Sell Everything

That is now contained in their store and intend to do it if good quality and low prices will do it. Their shelves are loaded with all the choicest luxuries in the grocery line as well as the necessities.

A Special Line of Lamps

Larger in quantity than is carried by any house in the city is displayed and your attention is called to the fact that we are the sole agents for the latest improvements. They are the best that can be obtained.
