Any one wishing to donate to the fund or furnish periodicals may hand the same to Clara G. Eason, recording secretary.

Judging from appearances McMinnville is yet a frontier town. Monday night the citizens on the street at 10 o'clock saw a very peculiar procession on its way to the city jail. A woman very lightly clad was holding a pistol under a man's nose. She was hunting for the city marshal and when she found him he locked her up and told the man to "git" and he got. The woman was released early Tuesday morning after a night in the jail and she went home to her children. It is hoped she will stay there.

L. H. REEVES ARRESTED.

The Cashier of the Sheridan Bank on His Way Out of the Country. L. H. Reeves, cashier of the United States Banking Co.'s bank at Sheridan and secretary of the company was arrested in Portland Monday, on the charge of larceny preferred by Sheridan parties, who thought he was on his way out of the country. Reeves has been visiting Gervais and Junction lately where the other banks of the company were located. He was arrested at 4:35 Monday and was confined in the city jail awaiting the arrival of Sheriff Warren, who left on the early train of Tuesday. The charge of larceny has been brought against him on the grounds that he received deposits after he was aware that the bank was insolvent. The books of the bank have not been examined, and the charge of embezzlement, made by the Oregonian in Tuesday's paper, is a little premature. No one thinks that there has been any crooked work in the management of the bank over the attempt to do a banking business on the capital furnished by the depositors. When the books are carefully examined by experts more of the situation will be known. The arrest of Reeves is simply a way of keeping him in the country until the books can be examined. Reeves arrived here Tuesday night in charge of Sheriff Warren, accompanied by his wife and Lawyer J. J. Johnson, of Portland. The party spent the night at the residence of Sheriff Warren and left Wednesday morning for Sheridan, where the examination was held before Justice Field.

Free Reading Room. The union meeting at the opera house Sunday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was largely attended and the object will no doubt be realized. It has been the purpose of the W. C. T. U. for some time to establish a free reading room, and to bring the matter before the people of the city the Sunday evening meeting was held. All the pastors were present and assisted, and Rev. G. H. Whitman delivered a powerful address on "Gospel, Law or Medicine, which?" At this meeting a sufficient sum was contributed to pledge to satisfy the union that a reading room can be established in the near future. This effort is to be followed by a determination on the part of the union to succeed. It already has a room, corner Second and B streets, and a donation of over 200 volumes for the library from W. J. Garrison; and a popular and cosy room, where all the latest periodicals and standard works can be read, will be the result.

The Railroad Commission. The new railroad commission consists of Gen. H. B. Compton, of Klammath Falls, L. A. Macrum, of Forest Grove, and J. B. Eddy, of Pendleton. General Compton is the present brigadier commander of the Oregon National Guard, and is a democrat; L. A. Macrum is well known in this county and is a stockholder in the McMinnville National bank; J. B. Eddy is the editor of the Pendleton Tribune. The two last-mentioned gentlemen are republicans.

Col. J. C. Cooper of this city came within one vote of being the caucus nominee. The democratic part of the commission is a man in whom the greatest trust can be placed. He is an old soldier, and his war record is one of the best, he being one of the few men who were voted a medal by congress for bravery upon the field. He participated in 65 battles during the war, and was wounded several times, one through the lungs, gives him considerable pain at the present time.

Resolutions of Condolence. McMinnville Grange, No. 31 P. of H. An invisible hand raps at our gate and we are again compelled to admit death's messenger. The summons has called our beloved sister, Helen Jolly, from our Grange, Feb. 4, 1893, therefore be it Resolved, that while we feel the loss of one who was a true and faithful friend, we cherish her memory with feelings of respect, and extend to the family our sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement.

3d. That her death be placed upon our record, and that our charter be draped in mourning, also that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased and a copy be published. Mrs. E. A. Toney, MRS. NELLIE KUNS, Committee.

The school houses were decorated with the stars and stripes in honor of Washington's birthday.

THE NEW ROAD LAW.

New Roads and Good Ones Possible Under it. Two bills have been passed by the legislature which will give this state a set of road laws which are at least far ahead of those now in force, and which if carried out ought to result in making better highways. One of these is a general road law and the other is a special law for the construction of special roads at the expense of the property owners residing within three miles of the line, and allowing them ten years in which to pay the cost of doing the work. It compels no county or district to build macadamized or graded highways unless it so desires, but if it so desires, it gives them the power to do so and pay for the work in installments covering a period of ten years.

The other bill amends the present road law for the purpose of raising a general county road fund for the construction and maintenance of ordinary public highways. This bill places road work more completely in the hands of the county court. A county court actuated by a sincere desire to keep the roads in good condition has the power to do so. Counties may raise a tax by a cash levy not to exceed 5 mills. The court appoints all district supervisors and designates the districts. All money is paid into the treasury and is not disbursed by the supervisors. Roadmasters may be appointed, and to this office the court may appoint a competent engineer, and require that all work be done under his general supervision. No new roads can be laid out until this roadmaster has examined the location and grade and reported favorably upon it. It will now depend upon each county, both the people and the county court, whether the roads will be permanently improved or not.

The First of the Season. A remarkable fish story comes to us from the Little North Fork of the Santiam. We give it as it was related to us and our readers can draw their own conclusions. "Last Thursday snow commenced falling in a lively manner and Saturday had reached a depth of about fourteen inches. Then it was that a warm rain set in and the snow was rendered a watery mass. The fish had grown hungry, owing to the scarcity of lings, and flies, and took to the mountains in vast numbers in quest of food, swimming with some difficulty through the slush. In that vicinity the earth's surface stands on end and the water ran off very fast, leaving the fish on dry land to be picked up by the settlers. Barrels of them, we are told, were caught in this manner and salted down for future use.—Southern Lumberman.

Mr. Magers, we all depend upon you. Do not let the fame of Yamhill be cast down. Raise up in your night and beat the above.

Guaranteed Cure. We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a cough, cold or any lung, throat or chest ailment, we will give you a remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We would not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Rogers Bros. drug store. Large size 50c and $1.

Charles A. Bowker, a fireman on the east side division of the Southern Pacific, has been arrested for manslaughter, in Portland. He is charged with having produced an abortion upon Edna Wilson, a 17-year old girl of east Portland. Bowker was fireman of the evening train running to this city during last fall. He was formerly a Baptist preacher and preached for some time at Dallas. While in this city he seemed to have the respect of his associates and was well liked. There is no question about his crime it seems, and he will in all probability pay the penalty.
