Thursday, July 13, 1893.

We would be pleased to have some of our populiste and silver standard exchanges explain to us why a Mexican dollar is worth only 55 cents in the United States.

There is no use theorizing on the use of the pardoning power invested in the governors of states. It is right the jury system is wrong and vice versa.

McMinnville has progressed in the culture of fruit during the past three years and within a short time thousands of trees will be bearing.

Some people are so peculiar as to think that the prospective change in the tariff law by the democratic congress, whereby the duty on wool will be reduced or removed entirely, has caused the present financial depression.

Notwithstanding the great precautions taken to prevent fire in the World's fair grounds the cold storage building was burned Monday, and thousands of dollars and twenty lives were destroyed.

Free raw material and fewer tariff restrictions to the United States does not mean our surrender to the British manufacturer. It means that the American manufacturer will compete in all the markets of the world with the Englishman and through the American ability to do more work in a day, with better machinery, drive him out.

Commercial freedom is necessary to commercial success. England recognized this years ago. It is now dawning upon the United States.

A POOR ARGUMENT FOR SILVER.

Some of the papers of this state are pleased to announce an argument in favor of their advocacy of silver, that a majority of the people of the world use silver as a money.

The military institution of Europe is already sapping the life blood of commercial Europe; grinding the life out of commerce and industry.

The increase in the size of the armies of the more important nations is revealed by the following table:

Table with 2 columns: Year (1889, 1892) and various countries (France, Germany, Russia, Austria, Italy, England, Spain, Turkey) with corresponding numbers of soldiers.

WILL IT COME?

The new German parliament has been elected and that country will soon be in the greatest excitement.

M' MINNVILLE STORIES.

"That is all right," said J. E. Magers of this city one day last week, "for you fellows to keep on insinuating that I use grasshoppers for bait."

THE PRICE AS A DUTY.

The United States has never purchased wool from Australia because it was cheaper than the American product.

GREAT REMOVAL SALE!

HOW IS THIS? SUMMER JUST COMMENCING AND SUMMER GOODS AT COST.

Owing to the late Spring and cold weather we have a large line of Summer goods left on hands and as we are going to move into the new building now being erected for us and do not want to move any more goods than necessary.

WE WILL OFFER FOR THE NEXT THIRTY DAYS OUR ENTIRE STOCK

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS

AT TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT DISCOUNT OR ONE-FOURTH OFF FOR CASH.

This is the greatest discount sale ever made in the city and positively brings many of our goods below Actual Cost, but we would prefer to do this and make an honest sale rather than advertise at cost and charge all we can get, as others often do. We have a fine line of straw hats, worth from 75 cents to $2, but to close out will give you your choice for 50 cents. Children's hats at a corresponding reduction.

You will not have another opportunity to buy good seasonable goods so cheap, so don't miss this Great Sale. We will positively do just what we say, make 25 per cent discount for Cash.

Wool Taken in Payment at the Highest Market Price.

Respectfully, KAY & TODD.
