LAFAYETTE

May 8, 1883.
The last week was a sorrowful one with a large part of our community. Mrs. J. E. Hombree, who had been for a long time suffering from consumption, died at the residence of her mother, Mrs. C. B. Carey. Her death occurred at about 5 o'clock on the morning of the 5th inst., aged 25 years and about 3 months. On the same day at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Mrs. Rachael Hess died of typhoid fever, in the 32nd year of her age. Both ladies were members of the largest and most highly respected families in the country, and both natives of Oregon and much esteemed. Mrs. Lucy Hombree's funeral took place from the M. E. Church at 11 o'clock of the 6th, and that of Mrs. Rachael Hess at 3 o'clock on the same day. Both funerals were largely attended. Mrs. Hess was buried with the honors of the I. O. G. T., of which Order she was a member.

W. D. Fenton's child was taken suddenly sick in the early part of the week, but is now getting better.

Annie Denny and wife lost their newborn babe, May 31.

Two deaths in one day is something never before known in Lafayette.

James Townsend, a lawyer of Dallas, was in town last week.

Dr. J. W. Watts is back again and nicely settled in his old home. It looks kind of natural to see the Drs. stalwart form striding along the streets of Lafayette again.

C. E. Thurber and R. S. James, of Amity, dropped in to shake one day.

John Mott, of Dayton, was up to pay his old stamping ground a visit. John don't look as if married life was hurting him much.

Mr. Henry Hopkins, formerly of this place, has returned and started a boot and shoe shop.

Mr. John Shultz, of Amity, came down last week and filed his first papers for citizenship. He intends to take up a home-stead somewhere in Oregon, and then get a female woman to help him live on it.

South Allen and Hon. C. H. Burch "pumped" a fellow's arm a little while, yesterday.

The two Indians brought from Corvallis and lodged in this county jail for a day or two were taken by the Sheriff of Tillamook county to that place, yesterday.

Claud Ferguson is back from school. He is to stay all summer—or till after harvest.

SHERIDAN.

May 7, 1883.
Merchants complain of dull times.
Health was never better.
The second crop of mumps have made their appearance.
The whisky license has been lowered to $200 per year and the saloons are booming again.

Dr. Todd, a dentist, has located here and can be found at A. B. Faulconer's Hotel.

Miss Emma Bogue will start in a few days to High Nestwood to teach school.

Grandmother Mendenhall was not expected to live last week but is some better now. Dr. Mendenhall, her son, who lives at Harrisburg, came to see her. She is between seventy or eighty years old.

Work on the Morrison & Embree mill race is prospering satisfactorily. Seven teams and fifteen hands are at work.

Louis Shortridge has not been to Sheridan neither was his arm lacerated from elbow to shoulder. The bullet went straight through the arm, breaking the bone and passing round it and he was getting along well at last accounts.

Dr. Tyler Smith, who went to Philadelphia about ten months ago, graduated in medicine and has returned to Oregon and located in Portland.

The item in the Reporter that $1 25 per day was being offered for hands to work on the Ballston mill race is news up this way, as there is no such race being constructed that we are aware of.

The tide of immigration has not reached us and very few comers make their appearance in this section though the same quality of land is from five to ten dollars cheaper per acre than lower down the valley.

Wm. Ends, Constable, has gone to W. T. and will not return, if at all, until fall. Will the county court appoint a Constable for this precinct?

There was a fair attendance at the nee-tie party last Saturday night to raise funds to equip the aisles of the chapel.

Jack Martin, who went to Tacoma to remain during the summer has returned and says that Yamhill is good enough for him.—Robert Reddy, a nephew of Mr. Martin's returned with him and is visiting relatives.

Farmers who have grain to sow on the low wet land are getting quite uneasy at the low continuing showers.

The water from Morrison and Embree's mill race will flow into the Yamhill river opposite Capt. Lafollett's office.

The prospects for a splendid crop of oats, wheat and grass, were never better at this time of year.

S. Hyde, who moved on the John Cain farm last fall, has moved back to town into Father Morgan's house.

Walker Graves is able to walk around the house and his many friends are anxious to see him in town.

AMITY.

Amity, May 7th, 1883
Little Nettie Henderson is still very low.
The China measles are in town.
Mrs. Charles Ware, of Portland, is in town visiting her mother, Mrs. Clark.
Mrs. P. J. Armstrong of Salem and Mrs. Ralph Welch, of Portland have been in town the past week visiting friends.

We met Mr. Chas. Messenger of Sheridan in town one day last week looking well; he reports his wife has been quite poorly.

Mrs. Wm. Thurman returned home from Illinois last Monday, accompanied by her niece and brother, Mr. Dyer.

Mr. Joseph Barton, formerly of this place, late of Eugene, is in town. He talks of coming back to Amity to reside, having sold his farm near Eugene.

Jerod Rollins has purchased the Harrison property and is preparing to move in soon.

R. W. Phillips has taken a spin east of the mountains, to look after his sheep and horses in that section.

Mrs. Hattie Sherman and Dr. E. E. Gouther were married this morning and took the train for Portland to spend a few days.

P. Y. McCarty and wife went out for a buggy ride yesterday and met with quite an accident, nothing more serious however than a broken axle.

Our accommodating liveryman H. B. Tingle, is always ready to wait on the traveling public, and will furnish you with as fine a livery team as you can find in the county.

We see that one of the trustees of the Baptist Church has tried to explain through the columns of the Reporter, why the Band of Hope was kept out doors on Sunday the 23d of April. He says it is easily explained, it might be in his way of thinking. I think if Mr. B. had thought more earnestly on this subject he would not have written the article he did last week. He says there never were any arrangements made for opening the church referred to. I beg to differ with him, the trustee being a member and knowing the workings of the Band of Hope. The leader of the Band at that time did ask permission to meet at the church spoken of, and Elder E. Ross suggested that the Band pay $1 a meeting. But mind you this was never promised by the Band. We learn that the sexton told the leader, "that money made no difference that he would open the church free of charge" which was no more than right. As for paying as we go, for oil, for the sexton the community helps to pay the sexton their share of his yearly salary as well as the church or at least they are forever poking a paper at the outsiders for assistance and I presume all do their duty.—Therefore, the trustees have no right to complain. We think it time that something ought to be done for the good of the young growing up in this community, while those who should be their leaders make it a rule to visit the saloons, and the superintendents of the Sunday School make a regular practice of doing their trading on Sundays before or after Sunday School. I feel fearful to speak of this but I have seen it—and could say more but for the sake of christianity will refrain from saying anything further.

A. S.

NORTH YAMHILL.

May 7th, 1883.
Born to the wife of Wm. Moser, a fine son, May 6th.

Mrs. Kate Lake came home from Portland last Wednesday.

Dr. Hammersmith went to Portland last Saturday to attend the Evangelical Conference.

Don't forget our Band of Hope meets every Sunday at 3 p. m.

Miss Carrie Carr and Belle Couch of Carlton were in town Sunday.

Mr. John Roberts of Portland stayed in town over Sunday.

Mr. Thomas is building a nice little barn on his property.

Mrs. Zilpha Keffer returned last week from French Prairie.

Miss Anna Burton has a new $600 piano, and T. M. Laughlin has a nice organ.

Mr. Ed Long of French Prairie, was over to see his mother Mrs. Wm. Ball, last week.

Mr. David Long, who has been visiting his daughter for some time, returned home, to Portland last Thursday.

Messrs. Henry and Marcella Griner, Neut Daniels, — Blackwell, all from Tillamook were in town last week.

Mr. H. F. Bedwell is improving slowly; he walks to the store almost every day.

Mrs. Gillner, of St. Helens, was in town the past week on a visit with relatives and friends.

Rev. H. C. Morgan, went to Portland last week as one of the executive committee to the State Holiness Convention to arrange the camp meetings for this year.

Our young blacksmith, W. went to Month-to-day to see what is wrong with the U. S. Mail.

TRAVELER.

THE HIGHLANDS.

April 30th, 1883.
The Highlands are putting on their Sunday clothes.

Grass has finally made a good start; so has the fattening process on the ribs of the bovine.

Stevenson returned home about two weeks ago in a weak condition, but has improved a great deal since.

Neighbor Starr Southmayd of Gopher Valley, now has a countenance that beams like a "star" of the first magnitude. A fine new boy is what's the matter.

Our mistake about the subscription plan for raising a building fund for the Gopher Valley school house; that plan seems to have been almost a success but a meeting is now proposed to vote a tax; however we think there is pluck enough among the solid men of the Valley to insure the building of a new school house soon. Success to you neighbors in all such worthy projects.

It is with deep regret we record the death of Wilson Agee, which occurred on last Tuesday evening. Deceased has ever borne the reputation of an upright and honest citizen, and at the time the little tumor on his face which proved to be the beginning of a terrible and fatal cancer began to make inroads on his system, he was engaged in clearing out in the upper part of Gopher Valley a little home for his family. He died at the home of his father, Uncle Isaac Agee, and his remains were laid at rest in the family burying ground. A wife and five children survive him who have the sympathy of numerous friends and relatives.

Our neighbor, F. J. Steward, received the sad intelligence last week, from W. T., of the death of a sister.

Neighbors Scott and Fristoe are each preparing to summer fallow some fond land this summer. Come to think, Stevenson, Whalen and Southmayd have the same plan in view.

Daddy and Johnny Newell are building a picket fence around their yard.

Deputy Assessor Phillips called on us last week. He asked us some leading questions about pigs, cows, indebtedness etc., and we had but "little" to fear we answered like a little man.

Whalens are clearing some new land preparatory to breaking and seeding yet this spring.

Neighbor Berry was passing through Bellevue precinct a short time ago and was requested by one of the denizens to tell "High Lander" to give him (said denizen) a "boost" in his next week's issue but Berry had been to town and couldn't tell us whether we were expected to "boost" the trotting "horse" or the anti-Grover wing of the Democracy. Now neighbor, come out square Republican or with a good draught "boost" and we will stay with you. We think the former are both good but the latter far better.

Wilson killed a good sized bear yesterday.

Coyotes are destroying a good many lambs in and near Gopher Valley. Why don't sheep owners offer a bounty for scalps?

H. H. LANDER.

NEWBERG.

May 7, 1883.
Road work has begun in some places about here.

Most of the farmers on the hills are thro' seeding.

Dr. Mills and John Victory who went back east last fall, have returned and report that they are better satisfied with Oregon than ever.

Julius Wiley, who is working near McMinnville, is down home on a visit.

Riley Smith is expecting to move into one of Jesse Edwards' houses to-day.

They expect to have the steam saw mill running in a few days.

Remember the Agricultural meeting next Saturday afternoon at Jesse Edwards'.

The Social Temperance meeting held yesterday afternoon was well attended and the most of them that were on the programme were present and performed well. The following persons were elected as officers for the next three months: President, John Reese; Vice President, Miss Roxie Hester; Secretary, John Jessup; Treasurer, Mrs. S. Smith.

The following are the officers installed for the ensuing term in Newberg Lodge No. 392, I. O. G. T.: N. S. Wiley, W. C. T. Miss Lillie Smith, W. L. H. S., Miss Roxie Hester, W. R. H. S., Mrs. Sade Smith, W. V. T., Julius Hodson, W. S., Miss Maggie Ingalls, W. A. S., Richard Wilson, W. F. S., Miss Ellen Deskin, W. F., Miss Maranda Hadley, W. C., Miss Miamie Hoskins, W. I. G., Levi Smith, W. O. G., Fred Olds, P. W. C. T.—We expect to elect our delegates at our next meeting, to attend the Grand Lodge, which is held at Astoria, commencing on the 19th of June. I hope our lodge and all other lodges in this county will send good workers and elect such persons that are most apt to go. Dear brothers and sisters let us have every lodge in this county well represented at the Grand Lodge and let us know throughout the state and other places that we are in earnest in the work. I would like to ask the correspondents of your valuable paper, to please publish names of delegates.

Mrs. Dr. Jessup was improving finely, till last Saturday, she took a back-slip and is quite poorly at present.

Mrs. Olive Winters is quite poorly, being confined to her bed for several days.

WHATLAND.

May 7, 1883.
Items rather scarce around this burg, at the present time.

Base ball has broken out again. A new club was organized last week called the Amateurs. Yesterday they played a game with the old Centennials, which showed their name to be very appropriate, for they were beaten by a score of 29 to 7. So look out, all ye base ballists for a challenge, for practice makes perfect, and that is all they lack.

With base ball the measles have broken out here, with some friends of M. B. Hendricks, first of the East. How's Royal believe, Mr. G. Michaels' children have them, and Smith Stevens' family are down with the same disease.

Mr. L. C. Tupper's daughter, Leona, has been very sick with typhoid fever. Dr. Odell is waiting on her. Everything is favorable for her at the present time.

Assessor Hendrick was at home Saturday and Sunday. He reports as getting along in good shape with his assessing duties.

Our school is progressing with Miss Laura Winters as teacher.

Farmers are mostly through seeding—that is on bottom lands. Some on valley lands have a hard time to keep their land dry enough to see, this wet weather.

Mr. D. Kirkwood is preparing to put out a new hop yard of about 5 acres, near the river.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY—a positive cure for Catarrh, Biphtheria and Canker Mouth. Sold by Rogers & Todd.
