THE REPORTER.

M-MINNVILLE, OREGON, MAY 24, 1883.

The New York World has been sold for $350,000.

Gen. Crook seems to be rather unsue cesaful in subduing the Apaches.

We understand there is strong talk of relocating the Indian training school at some more desirable point near Port-

A new counterfeit five dolloar coin has made its appearance, purporting to be a coin struck in 1843, very heavily plated, but 49½ grains light. The impression is that it was struck from the coincide of the impression is that it was struck from original dies prepared for the purpose.

The four Indians who have been on trial for several days in the U. S. Circuit Court at Portland, for the killing of Mullherren, and afterwards robbing him, were found guilty of manslaughter. Judge Deady sentenced them to ten years imprisonment in the peniten-

Hon. Jacob Voorhees, State Senator from Marion county, was shot three times by a discharged farm hand, on the 21st inst. The wounds are considered fatal, although at last accounts he was still alive. A posse in search of the would-be-assassin has failed to capture him.

THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY.

The great movements which in Portland manifest themselves in unprecedented business activity, a rush of building and crowded streets, extend throughout the country and are felt particularly in the Willamette valley, says the Oregonian of the 19th inst .-One has but to pass through on the daily train to gain an idea of the new activity which is abroad in the country. Indications of it appear everywhere. The little way side stations, almost without exception, have within the past few months taken on a brighter look. New houses are going up in every town and village, and hotels are filled with people looking about for locations of purchase or settlement. The trains are crowded to their utmost capacity almost every day and extra cars are frequently taken on to accommodate the increasing travel. The population of every county in the valley has increased from five to fifteen hundred within the past six months, and in each new enterprises have been or are about to be set in motion. Benton county is perhaps gaining more than its neighbors of the valley. The prospect of a railroad from Yaquina Bay to the river is attracting people to the coast district, so long isolated. The peculiar fitness of that region for dairying has been noticed, and we are informed by Mr. Wallis Nash, who is now in this city, that a number of trained dairymen from Iowa and Minpesota are about to introduce there the latest sientific dairying methods. Mr. Nash himself has the necessary machinery for dairying on a large scale now on the way here, and he will set it in motion the present season. Crop prospects were never better than at this time. Most of the fields frozen out last winter have been resown, but some will be allowed a season's rest and so the acreage is perhaps less than usual owing to the winter's misfortune .-Fields are in splendid condition, how ever, and the surplus for export will certainly not fall short of 225,000 tops and it may go as high as 300,000 tons.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Albany will celebrate the Fourth. Snow fell to the depth of two inches at Cincinnati, on Tuesday.

At Dixon. Ill., on Tuesday, ice formed to the thickness of half an inch.

The pioneers of Lane county are going to organize a society on July 4th. The new mammoth mill of the City of Salem Company started up on a trial run last Friday. It is estimated that James Murphy saged Marion county four thousand dollars by shooting himself. The last shot was the best.

The inhabitants of Yaquina bay have been rejocing over the entry at that harbor of a 700 ton vessell loaded with 600 tons of general merchandise.

Lydia Pinkham, of proprietary medicine fame, died in Lynn on the 18th, aged 64. She spent $80,000 a yaar advertising, and secured a trade netting $300,000 per year profit.

Near Lakeview, a man by the name of C. Spike killed another by the name of Charles Delano. The shooting was caused by both parties claiming the same piece of land. Spike was discharged after an examination.

The grading on the line of the Northern Pacific roadded between Portland and Kalama is progressing vigorously. Ten gungs of Chinese graders, numbering one hundred and fify each, are spread over a distance of fifteen miles, above and below St. Helens, and many of their camps are in plain view of those passing up and down the Columbia river on the steamers.

ABOUT TAXING MORTGAGES.

The following article is fully explained in itself, and we could not add one jot nor title, were we attempt to answer the questions:

Lafayette, May 22, 1893. Lafayette, May 22, 1883.

Mr. Editor:—We come to you for relief. We want you to answer a few plain question and oblige: A certain paper printed in Portland has been making a very pitiful whine, and once in awhile making some ugly threats because of the law taxing mortgages in the county where recorded.

Now we, that is everybody out this way, supposed that mortgages were always taxed in Oregon; the law read so and our lawyers construed it that way, but after reading the editorial in the
