The misses Jones, of Eola, were visiting friends here last week.

The basket meeting at Webfoot last Sunday was well attended.

THE HIGHLANDS.

June 16th 1883. Just about as unshiny as it ever gets to be in these parts.

We have had new potatoes several times at our house this spring. They are about the size of a hen egg and a good deal better.

Grandma Whalen received a letter from Indiana a few weeks ago that brought her the sad news of the death of two sisters and a brother in that state from whom she parted many years ago.

The types made us say "beautiful" feast instead of bountiful, in our picnic item, but let it go, for an adjective indicative of something to be admired will do.

Scott and family are visiting in Marion county.

Mrs. Seward has been quite sick, lately.

The Upper Willamina school proposes having a picnic on Friday, the 23rd inst.—This is right. Miss Laughlin sets a good example for those having schools in charge during this warm weather.

Grain is not suffering yet, neither do the gardens look the worse for the warm weather.

It has never yet been our lot to speak of marrying or giving in marriage but perhaps it is our duty to speak of our friend, J. O. S., who has been a bachelor for a long time—in fact, that's what's the matter, he is a bachelor yet.

Double Tragedy. A shocking double homicide occurred in T. B. Handley's law office at Hillsboro, on Monday last, wherein Zachariah Baker and B. H. Thomas were both shot and instantly killed by weapons in each other's hands.

It is an open question whether the reforming by Martin Luther was a benefit to the world or not; but it gave us religious liberty, but it also opened the way for such plague spots as Joe Smith, Brigham Young and a number of others just as bad, and a greater host of the Nichols and Ashcraft kind.

It is now considered doubtful whether this section will turn out more than a half crop this season; what is not injured by wild oats will be short for want of rain. Indeed, it is likely that a great deal will not be cut at all, but that the blizzards will be six or eight days, may save considerable.

Considerable air is manifested in social circles over the report that some of our young folks are about to mate, pair off, get married or what ever name it will be called by. For one, I am glad to hear it and wish them all kinds of good luck, provided, however, that they buy their furniture from Colter, on the corner.

IRON HARROWS a specialty. At Amity, Or.

Pure Blooded Jersey Bull, GEN. GRANT, Will make the season of 1883 at the Springer Farm 1 mile west of Amity at $8 for the Season.

GEN. GRANT was imported in dam from Philadelphia, Pa., by Maj. James Bruce in 1876. Sired by Duke of Wellington, Imp. and owned by Dr. Schneek of Philadelphia. His dam the fine butter cow September, owned by Maj. Bruce, of Cornelius, Oregon—made a record of 24 pounds in 10 days at 2 years old. GRANT has proven to be a sire of fine milkers; his heifers sell for double the value of native cows.

Cows left in our charge will be cared for the same as our own, with a reasonable charge for pasturage, only. Any cow not getting with calf may return, free, at any time as long as the bull is in present owners' hand. Care will be taken, but no responsibility for accidents. SPRINGER BROS., Amity, Oregon.
