There was a general cleaning up of Third street last Friday.

Mr. Henstock lost another good horse on Thursday last.

J. J. Henbree and family, of Lafayette, were in town last Thursday.

Hon. H. Hurley, of Lafayette, will please accept our thanks for favors.

Town was full of business last Saturday. Horse sale the main attraction.

If you want a square meal you can get it at the St. Charles for 25 cents.

W. M. Town-end, of the Register, was in town Saturday and came in to see us.

Custer Post G. A. R. and Custer Post Band go to Portland Tuesday morning.

H. C. Shadden has moved his stock of groceries to the room vacated by Holl.

Several of our citizens will go to the Trask next week on a fishing expedition.

Mr. A. J. Nelson, of McMinnville, has 12,000 or 13,000 pounds of wool for sale.

When Mr. C. Palmer's residence is completed it will be one of the coziest in town.

Mr. Isaac Robinson, one of Yamhill's solid men, came in to see us Saturday morning.

Mrs. Lucy Chapman, of Salem, has been paying her parents a visit during the week.

Mr. A. J. Baker is erecting a commodious road house on the south side of his residence.

Wm. Jellison, of the firm of Porter & Jellison, liverymen, Amity, called on Friday last.

Remember that R. J. Simpson furnishes good, fresh milk, night or morning, or both if desired. Apply at my residence in McMinnville.

Dallas had a fire last Friday night that destroyed property to the value of $10,000 to $15,000. Insurance $800.

The Matushek Piano stands unrivaled for beauty of tone. It is unquestionably the most durable piano made in the United States, and is sold at reasonable prices by Luther Shobe.

WEST—Mrs. Sarah Conner and her son Ed, will become residents of McMinnville, Oregon, where Mrs. C. has two sons publishing a successful paper, —Ole County Reporter—Oregon, III.

A string of teams over one mile long came into town with lumber last Saturday evening, besides the numerous straggling teams. And this is no uncommon occurrence, but may be seen almost daily.

We learn that on Tuesday fire was by some means communicated to a pile of cord wood belonging to F. W. Martin, just across the river from this place, and several cords of good wood were destroyed. No particulars.

We acknowledge a call from Mr. J. A. Rusk, of Klickitat county, who conducted the "elocutionary exercises" at Dick Gaunt's sale on Saturday last. Besides being a good auctioneer, Mr. R. is a pleasant appearing gentleman.

Our blacksmith, W. T. Booth, authorizes us to state that the report that he had been closed out by parties from below is false, and the person who put such a report in circulation is "another." We second the motion.

Something went wrong with the steam fixture of the engine at the planing mill, on Monday, and such a hissing and puffing and escaping of steam you never heard, and no little excitement was created thereby.

Mrs. Rebecca Bullock, of Salinas, Cal., sister of Mesdames Chas. Grissom and John Wisecarver and Johnny and Willie Waugaman, arrived at this place on Saturday last, and will make her relatives a four or five months' visit.

Mr. L. K. Wallace has commenced the erection of a neat residence on his lots at the corner of G and Fourth—just east of the M. E. church. The size of the building, in the main, will be 33x54 and will cost from $1,600 to $2,000.

Supt. Baker has a "Rockwood" filly and Mr. J. L. Steward a colt of the same stock, and both men declare them to be the "boss of the road." It is but a short time since Mr. Baker paid $175 for his filly; he can cash her any day for $400.

In our report of the "Remion of Students of McMinnville College," last week, we gave the name of "Miss Lenore Hunsaker" as having been chosen Treasurer, which was an error. The name should have been "Mrs. Lenore Nelson. A thousand pardons.

Billy Martin, the fleet-footed Yamhillian, has a silk suit made to run in his race at New Tacoma, on the 4th; and we've got a paste-pot and shooting stick to wager that he comes out ahead in the race. In company with George Hulley he will leave for the Sound, tomorrow.

Mr. J. W. Bridwell, of Amity, one of Yamhill's most prosperous farmers, was in town on Thursday last, and paid us a visit. Mr. B. had about 300 acres of wheat freeze out last winter; but he reseeded the ground and informed us that it gave evidence of bringing a good yield.

Eddie Russ hands us a hen-egg of the lilliputian denomination—that was found in his father's hen house on Monday morning. It is about the size of an ordinary filbert and was laid by a good-sized hen. Yamhill is up and coming with her small things as well as those of the mammoth order.

Our young friend B. F. Morgan, of Penawana, W. T., came down to Portland last week to sell the wool crop of this year, belonging to himself and his brother, George, and paid McM., his old home, a flying visit, remaining over Sunday. As usual, Ben. looks well and hearty and reports everything lovely in "Bunch Grass."

The "Autocrats" of this place went over to the grounds of the "Clippers" of Dayton Prairie, last Friday and got left to the tune of 47 to 12. This was the second game between these clubs, the "Autocrats" having won the first. The third and decisive game between them will be played at this place tomorrow (Friday) afternoon.

The 2-year-old son of Hon. A. H. Tanner, the well-known lawyer of Portland, was badly scalded the other day by falling into some hot water. The little fellow's arms and shoulders were badly burned, the skin coming away with the garments when they were removed. The injuries were immediately dressed and the sufferer made as comfortable as possible under the circumstances. Mr. Tanner is an old Yamhill boy, his parents still residing in this county.

A little boy of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rohr had his right arm fractured near the shoulder one day last week. The child is creeping and must have received the injury while crawling, on Sunday, and it was not noticed until Monday, during which time he must have suffered terribly. Dr. Boyd set the broken member and the little unfortunate is getting on nicely. He is about 18 months old.

Dr. Tucker has a tooth of some animal that has lived in ages gone by that is somewhat of a curiosity. It is a lower molar; is upwards of three inches long and looks as if whatever species of the animal kingdom it belonged to must have been capable of grinding up almost anything with which it came in contact. Mr. W. F. Bangsner picked this specimen up, on the Neetsucca, while fishing, last Friday.

Mr. Wm. Jolly, of Washington county, father, and T. B. Jolly, of Portland, brother of our neighbor, J. T. Jolly, with their families, spent Sunday with relatives near this place. They had been to the Tillamook coast, and while there the elder Mr. J. met with an accident in which he sustained a dislocation of the collar bone and stopped here for treatment.

Messrs. H. Shartzer, Jos. Todd and Portland Adams left town yesterday for a few days' fishing on the South Trask. We did not learn whether Mr. Shartzer took any of his California gopher traps along, or not. If not, he should have done so, as the party may run short of grass-hoppers, and they might be able to catch an Oregon grass-hopper with one of his traps. Oregon gophers don't bite at California traps, this time of year.

Mrs. Katherine Storey's residence in the southern portion of town nears completion, as does also a new dwelling house of Rev. W. J. Crawford. Mr. E. X. Harding has also erected a good barn in the same vicinity. These buildings are all situated on the ground recently laid off by Mrs. Chandler, near the new college, and ere long we expect a prosperous addition to our town over there.

Among the delegates to the Grand Lodge I. O. G. T., we notice the following representatives from Lodges in this county: McMinnville, No. 289, Miss May Baker; Sheridan, No. 118, E. Faulconer and E. C. Richter; Amity, No. 258, R. B. Putnam, Anna Putnam; Newberg, No. 302, J. T. Smith, F. A. Olds, May Hadley, and Ida Wiley alternate; Newberg, No. 303, Sadie Smith, Nate L. Wiley.

The "Soul Sleepers," or Christadelphians, as they style themselves, are indeed a persecuted (?) people. First, their leader was shot, and on Wednesday night of last week their church and all the buildings on their camp-ground where Nichols has done so much responsible killing—were burned to the ground. The Register says "it is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, though some are uncharitable enough to suppose that they burned it themselves to make a plain case of persecution."

THE FOURTH AT PORTLAND. Preparations are being made for one of the grandest celebrations ever held in this State—on the 4th and 5th of July. It is under the auspices of the Grand Army, to be assisted by the military at Vancouver. It is the intention to go into camp on the South Portland cricket grounds and for three days live over the old army days. On the Fourth will be a grand parade, oration, etc., and on the 5th there will be a sham battle fought—making the programme interesting from beginning to end. Transportation on all lines has been reduced 40 per cent.—tickets being issued to be good from the 3rd to the 6th, inclusive.

TO THE ASYLUM, AGAIN. Again we are called upon to chronicle the misfortune of our young friend, Andy Stewart, who was adjudged insane last Sunday and taken to East Portland, by Sheriff Collard on Monday last. Mr. Stewart last week seemed to be perfectly rational in mind.—But it seems that the lively season—the picnics, horse races, camp-meetings, etc., were more than his excitable nature could withstand, and his reason departed from him on Saturday evening. His friends, from some of his actions thought him to be deranged and on Sunday took him before proper authorities where he was adjudged insane. This is the third or fourth time Mr. Stewart has been in the asylum, and it is to be deplored, as when he is himself he is a good-hearted, whole-souled gentleman, and well thought of by all of his acquaintances.

Headquarters Custer Post, No. 9, Dep't of Oregon, G. A. R. McMinnville, Or., June 25, 1883. Gen'l Orders, No. 2.

There will be a special meeting of Custer Post at their Hall in McMinnville, Or., on Monday evening, July 2, to muster such recruits as have made application for membership, and of all ex-soldiers who may wish to join before the Grand Reunion at Portland.

It is the intention to take the train the following morning for Portland and arrangements will be made to entertain all ex-soldiers free of charge, while here, who bring their blankets.

The following comrades are hereby detailed to procure subsistence and quarters for all who may come: G. L. Parker, Noel Duncan and W. P. Galentine. The following young ladies have kindly consented to assist the committee in procuring subsistence: Miss Ida Arthur, Miss Carrie Gortner, Miss Susie Laughery, Miss Cora Wallace and Miss Lillie Newgard. By order, J. C. COOPER, Commander. Adjutant.

MR. SKIDMORE'S ESTATE. The value of the late Stephen G. Skidmore's estate was estimated by himself a few days before his death at $200,000. We understand that he left a will, made during his sickness at San Rafael, giving to his wife, Mrs. G. Skidmore, the residue of his estate, and to his business partner, C. E. Sifton, his store and accounts, valued at $100,000, and Mr. Sifton is also made residuary legatee of all which may remain of the estate after the payment of a number of legacies, of which the following are the principal: To each of two sisters, one residing at Vancouver and the other in the east, $10,000; to Mrs. H. D. Sandborn, $10,000 and furniture worth about $4,000; to the building fund of the library, $5,000; for a public fountain to be erected in this city, $5,000; to Miss Emma Milard, $5,000; to Miss Sallie Rightmire, of San Francisco, $3,000; to Mrs. Geo. L. DePrans, $2,000; to Jas. Butler, the well-known colored man who had been his personal attendant for many years, $5,000; to his landlady at San Rafael, $1,000; to Mr. Vestal, his bookkeeper, $5,000; and to Fred. Beals, for many years a clerk in his employ, $6,000, to be paid in installments of $100 per month.—Oregonian.

Mr. Sifton, spoken of in the above, is an old Yamhillian, well known to many people of our county, who, though they deplore the death of Mr. Skidmore, do not regret the death of Mr. Sifton on his good fortune.

THE PIONEERS' EXCURSION EAST. We are informed that the Oregon Pioneer Association decline to accept the excursion rates overland offered by Mr. Muir, alleging as a reason that the rate quoted was higher than that accorded to the California Pioneer Association. T. H. Goodman, general ticket agent of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, writes to this city: "The California Pioneer Association went on an excursion over our line but once and that was in May, 1870, when we made a rate from Sacramento to Omaha and return for $100, the parties going patronizing the river steamer from San Francisco to Sacramento. Over 200 tickets were sold for this excursion." The rates quoted by Muir were $75 from Portland to St. Paul and return. He also agreed to make a further reduction of 20 per cent. from this figure if the excursion would go on freight schedule time, which would be about three days longer. A prominent member of the Oregon Pioneer Association said to us in his opinion it would be more agreeable for the parties to go on freight schedule time, so that they could see the country at their leisure. This rate would be $60 for the round trip, making the rate $40 less than that quoted by the Central Pacific railroad, with no allowance for fares which was paid by the California Pioneer Association, between San Francisco and Sacramento.—Oregonian.

Another Pioneer of 1843 Passed over the River.

Elder Enoch Garrison died at the residence of his son, E. M. Garrison, 10 miles west of McMinnville, on the 9th of June, 1883. He was born in Ohio Jan. 21st, 1806; removed to Indiana when quite young, and settled in Decatur county. Was married to Margaret Herron in the year 1826, and lived happily together until March 26th, 1874, when it pleased God to call her home.

He left Decatur county, Ind., and moved to Missouri and settled in Platt county in the fall of 1838; removed thence to Holt county, Mo., in the fall of 1840; left his home in Holt county for Oregon on the 19th day of April, 1843 and met with the emigrants of that year at what was then known as Indian creek (but now Kansas City), and took part in the emigrant council at that place, and finally left the settlement of civilization on the 20th day of May, 1843, for a perilous trip without any food or an experienced pilot, of 2,000 miles, across the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific coast, or Oregon Territory, and reached Oregon City, Oregon, on the 5th day of November, 1843; removed to his place near Amity, on the South Yamhill, Yamhill county,—now owned by W. J. Garrison—on the 7th day of December, 1843; moved to Marion county in 1850, and to California in 1870; removed back to Yamhill county in 1874, and has remained here ever since.

His religious creed will be written up by Rev. W. D. Nichols, but I will state that he was a preacher of the M. E. church for the last 40 years, and truly a good man. His house was always open and afforded food and shelter for the poor emigrants or distressed of any class of his fellow beings. He has frequently preached at my house to a congregation of from twenty to thirty persons that would congregate together, some coming as far as ten miles in ox-wagons to worship God.

He was buried at the Masonic cemetery on the 10th of June, 1883, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends, and I will state, that as I viewed the vehicles from a distance ascending the winding hills to the cemetery that followed him to his last resting place, called to my mind the emigrant trains of 1843; and after examining my journal of that year, I find that just forty years before we were passing the winding hills on Blue river in Kansas, and in order to call the minds of the emigrants of '43 to the place, will state that it was the third day's travel from the Blue, where all will remember the terrible storm that occurred while the weary emigrant was encamped on the high lands this side of the big Blue, and where deceased was engaged in having large logs for a foundation for a fire, as the water was two or three inches deep all over the ground, and the river had raised to the astonishing height of from 25 to 30 feet in the short space of six or seven hours, and the emigration saved from a watery grave by Captain Gaunt, a mountain man, breaking up our camp after we had commenced striking our tents on the opposite side in the low bottom, by telling us that we must always cross a stream before we pitched our tents, if it is possible to do so.

Uncle Enoch is gone. Peace to his ashes. My wife joins me in the above. W. T. NEWBY.

The above refers to the New Osborne, No. 11 Binder, for which R. Baird is agent at North Yamhill.

LOST. A large-sized morocco pocket-book was lost on Wednesday, June 27th, between Sheridan and McMinnville via the Catholic church, on Muddy. The book contained a $5 greenback and a $1 greenback and a note for about $26—the note being in favor of Lee Smith and against C. G. Royal. Any person finding the same will be satisfactorily rewarded by leaving the same at the REPORTER office, McMinnville, or at the post-office, Sheridan.

IMPROVEMENT OF CEMENTS. We hereby request that all those owning lots in South Yamhill Cemetery, meet at the Baptist Church, June 30th, to improve the same by clearing away brush and other obstructions. By order of directors, Wm. Mason, J. Directors. A. C. Davis, Secy.

Pure Blooded Jersey Bul, GEN. GRANT, Will make the season of 1883 at the Springer Farm 1 mile west of Amity at $8 for the Season.

GEN. GRANT was imported in dam from Philadelphia, Pa., by Maj. James Bruce in 1876. Sired by Duke of Wellington, Imp. and owned by Dr. Schneek of Philadelphia. His dam the fine butter cow September, owned by Maj. Bruce, of Cornelius, Oregon—made a record of 24 pounds in 19 days at 2 years old. GRANT has proven to be a sire of fine milkers; his heifers sell for double the value of native cows.

Cows left in our charge will be cared for the same as our own, with a reasonable charge for pasturage only. Any cow not getting with calf may return free, at any time as long as the bull is in present owners' hand. Calf will be taken, but no responsibility for accidents. SPRINGER BROS., Amity, Oregon.
