OUR PEER-AMID.

Smoky.
Cool Nights.
Gardens need rain.
The croquet ground is idle.
107th anniversary is a goner.
Please excuse this little sheet.
Our lumber yards are filling up.
Lots of good wood coming into town.
Currants are not so plentiful as usual.
Judge Townsend called in on Monday.
How long will a cat live without eating?
Splendid weather for the growing wheat.
The grass is beginning to wither for want of rain.
Rev. McNeil preached at the C. P. church last Sunday.
Mr. S. Shaffer has gone over to the Sound to spend his 4th.
P. M. Scroggin, Esq., of Sheridan, was in town on Thursday.
The building mania is again seizing our people. Let the good work go on.
We learn that Capt. Apperson talks of purchasing the Newby warehouse.
It is estimated that 1,500 to 2,000 people will spend their 4th at Nestucca.
Mrs. M. Underwood and Mrs. Turner manufactured a fine cheese last Saturday.
Mr. A. J. Nelson, of McMinnville, has 12,000 or 13,000 pounds of wool for sale.
Miss Mary Hembree, of Lafayette, paid relatives near this place a visit last week.
It is estimated that the grain in Yamhill will yield about a two-third's crop, this season.
Tom Scudder can saw more wood in a day with a buck-saw than any other man in Yamhill.
Marshal Shuck has a force of night watchmen keeping vigil over our almost deserted town.
Surveyor Cooper established the grade for the proposed improvement of Third St., last Friday.
It may be truly said of some men, that "every time they open their mouth they put their foot in it."
The city authorities assure us that Third street will be improved, and no mistake, this time. Good.
Mr. R. Baird, North Yamhill's live farm implement man, was in town and paid us a visit on Monday.
Capt. Apperson and wife, of Oregon City, visited relatives at this place during the past week or ten days.
And don't you forget that if you want a good meal for 25 cents that the St. Charles is the place to get it.
Two years ago yesterday the Nation was shocked by the intelligence that President Garfield had been shot.
Messrs. J. R. Miller, the druggist and Charley Sullivan, the attorney, both of Dallas, were in town last Thursday.
If you should go to the Trask, fishing and hunting, you should go down the Bay to the beach and cool your heated brow.
Eye glasses are again troubling the minds of some of the young ladies of this place. They look so charming with them on.
That stirring gentleman from Sheridan, Eli T. Branson, was in town one day during the week, and paid us a pleasant visit.
Mr. Mance's broken hand has caused him much pain; but we are pleased to state that at last accounts it was getting some better.
Art, C. says he can't see how he could be the father of a man 70 years old when he will be 31 his next birth-day. We give it up, Art.
We give you but a half-sheet this week. It's the Fourth of July, you know, and printers must "enthus" as well as other people.
Remember that R. J. Simpson furnishes good, fresh milk, night or morning, or both if desired. Apply at my residence in McMinnville.
Mr. H. Fisher, of the "One Price Cash Dry Goods and Clothing House," has a communique that he will explain to you if you will call on him.
The whole town and a good portion of the country roundabout here is deserted—people having gone either to the coast or elsewhere to spend the 4th.
Eddie Warred is the boss climber.—On Monday he climbed to the top of the flag staff on Simonds' building and arranged a halcyon which had been broken.
Remember that you only have to go to W. H. Bingham's McMinnville Furniture Store to get the best of all kinds of furniture at the most reasonable rates.
Mr. Chas. Young, of the Nestucca planing mill, had his hand caught in a band saw, last Monday, and pretty severely lacerated, though not seriously injured.

Rev. W. D. Nichols will preach in the Baptist church, Anity, next Sunday, July 8th, at 11 o'clock. Text—Daniel 12:13. The public cordially invited.

Mr. Wright on Monday commenced the erection of a fine residence on his lots at the corner of E and Second—the site occupied by the old house which he moved over on to Third street.

Mr. A. C. Davis informs us that the cause of Andy Stewart's recent attack of insanity was brought on by over-heating himself in a chase while attempting to catch a horse in his (Davis') pasture.

A couple of our good citizens out north of town became vexed at each other one day last week and clawed each other's faces up, but did no serious damage to one another. Boys, hold your temper.

A family named Hays, who came from some of the Western States, and are now stopping at this place, have become dissatisfied with the country and will leave in about two weeks for their former home.

The faithful little canine, "Caesar," belonging to Mr. Geo. Bangasser, was shot a few days since and died from the wound received. The dog was upwards of 18 years old, and will be remembered by many old citizens of McMinnville.

A nine from Dayton, Dayton, Prairie and Wheatland came over to this place last Friday for a game of ball, and the "Autocrats" being away from home, the "Old Striffs" made up a nine and gave them a little "rattle" and got left Score, 18 to 24. Oh! it was a fine game.

The brick that is being turned out from the yard of Ashur Saylor is very highly spoken of by a number of persons who have used them. Mr. S. is disposing of many from the kiln recently burned, and is putting up another kiln that will be ready to burn in a short time.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that W. M. Ramsey, of Salem, and Geo. G. Bingham, of this place, have associated themselves together for the practice of law. Mr. Ramsey's record as an able attorney is well known from us; and as Mr. Bingham is rapidly rising in the legal field, they will make a strong team. See card.

Mr. W. J. Sargent, of Bellevue, dropped in to see us several days since to ascertain, if possible, the reason that he was several days behind other people in getting the REPORTER. We could not explain the reason for its tardy appearance. The REPORTER leaves this office for all points in the county every Thursday, and if the P. M.'s are careful in distribution there is no reason why all subscribers should not get the paper.

TIES EASILY BROKEN.
L. Skeel and Wm. Gibbons have been partners in getting out railroad ties in Yamhill county and finished up their work last week. Skeel came into town yesterday and drew the money due, but failed to divide. He was sued by Gibbons Friday before Justice Green, but before the case was called, compromised by paying $204 64 and costs.—News.

SHOT HIS FINGERS OFF.
Mr. C. W. Jones, of Clackamas county, while out hunting with a party on the upper waters of Gopher creek on Monday last, accidentally discharged his gun while leaning with one hand on the muzzle of the piece, the contents of which passed through and badly shattered his left hand. Dr. Boyd was called and found it necessary to amputate the third and little fingers.

ELECTIONS OF OFFICERS—I. O. C. F.
Following is a list of officers for McMinnville Lodge of Chosen Friends, elected at their regular meeting on Wednesday evening, June 27th: Retired Chief Counselor, Wm. Holl; Chief Counselor, A. Dielschneider; Vice Counselor, C. S. Hubbard; Secy., M. W. Doyle; Financier, A. Washburn; Treasurer, J. C. Caswell; Prelate, S. F. Harding; Marshal, T. H. Scudder; Warden, Flora Dielschneider; Guard, J. Draper; Sentry, A. F. Washburn; Medical Examiner, J. T. Augur.

NICE WHEAT.
Mr. R. S. Cook brings in a specimen of wheat which is up to the standard of former years. It is of the White Winter variety; is beautifully headed out and well filled and has just commenced to put on the golden hue, which reminds us that the harvest is rapidly approaching. Mr. Cook has about ten acres of this wheat and he is confident of obtaining a yield of from 40 to 60 bushels to the acre from it. He let his grain stand after the "freeze-out"—though it gave appearance of having suffered the same fate of other fields—and will reap a rich reward by so doing.

BADLY BURNED.
Albino Shearer, son of J. D. Shearer, of West Chehalis, was badly burned last week. He was going home from the post office, with a quarter of a pound of powder in his pocket, which from some cause, supposed to be from igniting a match in his pocket, exploded. He ran and hollered "I am shot," while his clothes took fire and had it not been for a son of Mr. M. Schurr who was with him at the time, and caught him and put the fire out he would have been burned to death. As it was he is badly burned but is doing as well as could be expected, but it will be some time before he can be out.—Register.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NORTH YAMHILL.
The following was received last week too late for publication:
Rev. J. A. Hanna, assisted by Rev. D. O. Ghimbley and Elder S. L. Story, of East Portland, organized a Presbyterian church in North Yamhill last Sunday, June 24th, with nineteen members.

bers—twelve of whom were received by letter, and seven on confession of faith in Christ. Messrs. Thos. Bowles, J. L. Banks and R. J. Bowles were elected, ordained and installed elders of the church. A. W. Bennett, S. Bowles and T. C. Buckingham were elected trustees. On Monday the church was duly incorporated in accordance with the statutes of Oregon. The committee have also in their hands a petition with fifteen names attached, asking the organization of a Presbyterian church at Lafayette, which will be considered hereafter. The above are the results of the recent ministerial labors of Mr. Hanna in this county.

BUSINESS THAT DIDN'T PAY.
Several months since Mr. James Sparks, living on the Cowls farm, west of town, was hired by Newby Berry to pasture a flock of sheep. After keeping the sheep for a time, Sparks discovered that the sheep were badly infested with the scab. Sheep Inspector, A. J. Nelson was notified of this fact and Sparks was employed to treat the sheep for the disease. This was for sale to pay the cost of treatment—the sale to have taken place on Saturday last. But Thursday morning Sparks came into town and notified Mr. Nelson that the sheep had been driven off the previous night. It was easy to surmise who had taken them, and a warrant was issued for the arrest of Mr. Berry for driving sheep through the Inspector. The warrant was placed in the hands of an officer, who found Berry, with the sheep down in Chelaha, on his way to Portland and was fined $25 and costs, amounting in all to about $50; besides $40 that he paid Sparks for keeping the sheep—39 head. So Mr. Berry got off for about $90; and he can congratulate himself on having escaped so easily.

AN OLD PRINTER.
Cor. to News: "I saw in your weekly that the prize for the oldest living printer in Oregon, had not yet been awarded, and it is well that is so, for how could the wise men of Portland decide in such a matter, when old Yamhill had not yet been heard from, and I have with send in my returns, with the claim that Yamhill county possesses the oldest living printer, James C. Wyndham, a resident of this county, and the father of A. C. Wyndham, of McMinnville, was born in London, England, in 1807, served his apprenticeship with John Chilcott, No. 3 High street, Bristol, was foreman of Galgah's Messenger, in Paris, from 1835 to 1840, when he came to New York, and obtained a position as deputy foreman on the New York Herald, under Joe. Elliott, which he held for two years. Left New York in 1842, was engaged with Houston on the Baton Rouge Gazette, thence he went to New Orleans, was foreman on the Bulletin for some time, when he enlisted in the 10th Louisiana Infantry, engaged in the Mexican war. Mr. Wyndham came to California in 1855, and to Oregon in 1861, worked on the Oregonian for some time, thence went to Victoria, B. C., working to within the last two years as "typo" in various places, but has now retired, living with the family of his son at this place. "Although laid upon the shelf," the old man thinks he can "fling type as well as ever." What county can beat Yamhill?"

Local Correspondence.
LAFAYETTE
July 2nd, 1883.
Quite a number have returned from the coast and other places where they went to spend the summer. Skeel and all boys seem to be having roughed it a little, especially the women, whose long confinement within doors had made their cheeks look pale and wan, have returned with a warm, healthy glow in their faces, that tells of health and vigor regained.
Three of our citizens, F. B. Nelson, E. B. Gollard and R. P. Bird, took a spin off to the south looking for the Lost Cabin. They were in the Coast range, and good prospects there or thereabout. For twenty years, more or less, the Wolfpack prospectors have been hunting that lost cabin and for an equal length of time, every party who sallied forth in quest of that lost, strayed or stolen edifice have dreamed day dreams and night dreams of the vast pile accruing to the lucky discoverer of that mysterious cabin. I suppose everybody has heard the legend of that lost cabin; how several years ago a lucky prospector struck a rich deposit of gold somewhere in the Coast range, and after the absence of several months returned with lots of the dust; how he fell in with a friend who took him into his home; how he sickened and died, leaving his money and the secret of the cabin with that friend; how that friend went to hunt for it, but never found it; how the secret got out somehow, and how every year, since, parties have been out in search of it, but never finding it, until our three Lafayette men took the matter in hand when, presto, they walked right to it. But mark you, they didn't find it where it was, no, sir, it was over in another gulch. These, now, ain't you glad? Everybody will be glad. The mystery is solved. The cabin is found. Now let us have a railroad to get the filthy lucre out, and make us all rich, quick!

I seen a lady on the street the other day dressed in a dolly yarden, that I believe is what they call it, and she resembled most a voracious dolly, and a slouchy one at that.
Mr. Goudy, of Dayton grants, was in town one day last week. He says his crop is all right, but thinks that some wheat will be too short to walk.
Dug Walker, constable of Anity precinct, was down Saturday with a gentleman whose name I have forgotten, the barber of Anity. They were after the prosecuting attorney to make a case against John Monroe for some kind of an unlawful trespass on the barber shop and its owns.

Ben Lewis of Dayton Prairie, was in this burg the other day. He gives it as his impression that the loss of wheat will not be as great as feared, because while the late wheat will undoubtedly be short, the early wheat will be enough better to nearly make up for it.
Geo. H. H. Hadaway was here in his go-cart, showing off that spanking trotter of his.

DAYTON.
July 2, 1883.
Crops are suffering for want of rain. Farmers say that late sowed spring grain will be about an entire failure if we do not have rain soon.
Luther Fletcher and family who have been resting at the seaside for the past two weeks, returned last Friday.
Hon. Wm. Townsend, of Lafayette, was in town one day last week.

The difficult task of raising the flag pole in the park was successfully accomplished last Saturday evening. Dr. Willis superintended the work.
Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Wolfe were suddenly called to Portland one day last week by receiving intelligence of the illness of Mrs. Wolfe's mother, who resides at that place.
Our young friend, George Barnholtzer, who has been "roughing it" down on the Columbia for the past three months, returned Saturday.
A. M. Deesay, Esq., has the noblest huggy we have seen this season. It was made by Mr. E. W. Steels, Forest Grove.
Mr. F. A. Hill, our accommodating druggist, is in Portland on business. LLOYD.

A FAIR PROPRIETOR.
Anyone suffering from habitual constipation, torpidity of the liver, colds, fevers, headache, rheumatism, sleeplessness, indigestion, or other ills arising from a disordered or inactive condition of the liver, stomach or bowels, and wishing to give Serravallo's Pile-cure a thorough trial, can buy it of Rogers & Todd, who will agree to return to you your money if it fails to act promptly and satisfactorily.

Band music, backing exercises and barbed-iron riding constitute our amusements while we are waiting for the harvest.
If I could reach that fellow Jupiter Pluvius, I'd strike him till he'd let his water fly, you bet I would. NAY.

SHERIDAN.
July 1, 1883.
Who is the laziest man in town?
Spuds will be potatoes next fall from the looks of the vines now.
Too many boys killing away their time in town.
The onset of diphtheria are improving and the attacks have been in the mildest form.
Boys, to amount to anything, you must learn industry, economy and decency.
Ira Stephens, of the Highlands, has sold his land to Alf. Wilson and will move to town.
It is a thousand times easier to be a good man than a bad one, if the boy starts right.

We learn that they had a good time at the picnic at Belton on Saturday. Dr. Watt made a speech on temperance and they had singing, declamations, base ball and lots of small talk.
The school at the academy closed on Friday. Prof. Van Sooy, we are informed, will go to Salem soon and enter the Willamette University to complete his education.
There is a great diversity of opinion as to the amount of injury the crops received from the east wind and drought, but all agree that the yield will be light, and if rain don't come soon, lighter or lightest.

On last Thursday a number of persons went to Mill creek and made search for young William, but made no discovery. A letter was received from his father who lives at Astoria that he would be here in a few days.
J. M. Townsend is hauling lumber to build him a house on a lot purchased of J. T. Simpson, immediately north of H. Z. Foster's house.
The hardest sea breeze of the season was last Friday, the air was thick with dust.

Prof. Engles' school at Harmony closed last Friday.
At the last schoolmeeting in Gopher, they levied a tax to build a school house at a new place and as usual, many of the citizens are dissatisfied and crinations and recommendations, and perhaps a law suit, will be the result. Let the majority rule, so say we all.
Charles Sattion has moved into town and will occupy T. Dickey's house.
If the fourth don't bring rain campmeeting certainly will.

The hills which form the back ground to Sheridan are clothed in brown.
The road has been lined for a number of days with teams going to the coast. The greatest pleasure we have ever found in the trip is in getting home out of the hot sun and dust.
Geo. Stephens has the contract to haul eighty thousand feet of lumber to build the new warehouse.
Boys—Don't take for your model the most vulgar and wicked man in town, but the best. The boys of industries and honest habits will own and rule this county, the next generation.

Hambletonian Mambrino,

(Heretofore at the head of the (Reedville stud) will make the season of 1883 as follows: North Yamhill, Mondays; Lafayette, Tuesdays; McMinnville, Wednesdays and Thursdays; Bellevue, Fridays and Saturdays.
Hambletonian Mambrino is a beautiful dark bay or brown, 15 hands, 21 inches high and weighs over 1,100 pounds. He is unsurpassed for style and beauty; long-bodied, with a rangy neck and blood-like head. He is heavy muscled, and as for feet and legs no horse can excel him.
Of his propensity as a sire there can be no doubt. All his colts have the impress of his high form and superb courage, and when placed in the market have, so far, commanded (at the same ages) as high a price as the got of any horse in the North Pacific.
During the last year his got was awarded many premiums and was the winner of the three-year-old three in-five races at Vancouver and the State Fair, defeating in both races the finest field of three-year-olds that ever came together in the Northwest.
P. D. IRELL.—Hambletonian Mambrino was sired by Menelaus, (the sire of Cleora, record 2:12), and sold for $15,000, he by Rysdyk's Hambletonian.
1st dam Cleora, by Border Chief.
2nd dam Cleora, by Oliver.
3rd dam by Chorister, he by Imp. Contract.
Menelaus' first dam Jesse Bull by Long Island Black Hawk.
2nd dam by Young Duroc, he by Duroc, he by Diomedes.
3rd dam by Coffin's Messenger, son of Imp. Messenger.
Border Chief, sire of Cleora, was by old Mambrino Chief, 1st dam by Highlander, 2nd dam by Glencoe, 3rd dam by Post Boy, son of Henry that ran with Eclipse.
Thus it will be seen that Hambletonian Mambrino has eight Messenger crosses and unites the two greatest strains of American trotting blood—those of Rysdyk's Hambletonian and Mambrino Chief, being a lineal descendant of Imp. Messenger on each side of the horse. To this, the very quintessence of American trotting blood, he unites the rich racing strains of Glencoe, Wagner, Chorister and Post Boy, famous in the annals of the running turf on both sides of the Atlantic. He also has the Bashaw blood, through Long Island Black Hawk, the first horse that ever trotted below 2:40 to a road wagon.
TERMS—$35 to insure; $25 by the season. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no responsibility assumed.
