Hay harvest is in full progress now and gran harvest has fully commenced in some localities, notwithstanding that it is nearly two weeks earlier than usual.

thing will be ready for the board of equiical support of the board of equiical support of the board of experiments of the Board of owns and thuston. It held a meeting on the sheeky institution. It held a meeting on the 9th, at which time they concluded to have the mortgage tax law repealed; of course they can't do it themselves, but the Goverthey can't do it themselves, but the Gover-nor would call a special session of the legis-lature and of course they would do it, just to suit this brazen board of trade. But just as they had the matter fixed, the "Oregonian" steps in and magnanimously advises them to let the country have a say. Yes gentlemen, do let the ountry have a say, and I will pre-dict that say. They will tell you that you an't blarney them with any promise of low-er interest. They will tell you that when can't blarney then with any promise or low-er interest. They will tell you that when you could take 12 per cent you took it, and made the borrower pay all expenses. When you could only get 10 per cent you took that on the same terms, and if the usury law was on the same terms, and if the usary law was repealed you would take the last cent; no one ever knew a money-lender that would not exact the full amount of flesh. And if with the usury law, the tax on money was repealed, you would not abate one jot of taking all you could get. They will tell you that our tax assessment laws are very imperfect and ought to be changed, but that they are not ready to free money from bearing its share in support of the government.

ing its share in support of the government, and none but a very cheeky set of Shylooks would think of asking such a thing. The country will hardly consent to call an extra session of the legislature at this time for any such purpose, and Gov. Moody will instill eall one at the suggestion of this im-pudent board of trade; certainly not for the purpose of freeing capital from its share in the burdens of government.

An insane lady named Mrs. Robert Stnart was brought before the County Judge Monday. An examination warranting, she was sent to the asylum.

Judge Townsend of the "Register" received a letter Friday requiring him an "Nat" to take back, and apologize for, what they said about the Nicholites, or there might be blood shed. The Register will contain the latter just as written, also the Judges apology. "Nats" apology will appear in the Reporters.

July 16, 1883. Hay harvest is well under way and a large Some claim we will have a half crop, while others contend we will keve a full crop of grain. The medium is, perhaps, about right. We are not in possession of all the facts in negard to Agent Sinnot's attempt to collect lacney from every person who goes on the reservation, but we know enough to satisfy us that he at least, has made a grave mistake. More strife and ill feeling will be stirred up between the whites and Indians, by the tribute business, than has been for twenty years, and what the outcome will be, no one can tell.

John Walters was welcomed home from the south country, by his many friend, a few

We are informed that about thirty person. reservation on their way to the coast at the mouth of Salmon river, received an order from the Agent at Slietz to depart immediately or they would be prosecuted for trespass.

No Indian Agent before brother Sinnot ever thought of demanding tribute from the whites for the high privilege of peacable traveling across the reservation.

Alfred Huston came near tosing his life last Friday, by the caving in of the dirt of a pit he was sinking for the waterwheel of the flouring mill. He had the pit about twenty-five feet deep when the curbing gave way and in a moment he was covered by the dirt, but three men sprang to his assistance and had him uncovered soon enough to save him. He is badly jammed and bruised but is able to be around.

Everybody is signing the petition to have P. B. Sinnot, Agent at Grand Ronde, removed for stopping persons from crossing the reservation, or purchase a "permit" from his In-lian Silas.

There will be a ball given by the mill hands t the new mill, Friday.

Mr. S. C. Foster has gone to Michigan by way of the N. P. and will return with his laughter, Rena, this fall.

Say, Mr. Sinnot, don't you think you have set your "colter" just a little too deep. I speak.

Mrs. Gardiner's mother is visiting with Mr. Geo. Epperly's mother, of Portland.

Brother Sinnot and his Indians will please keep themselves maide the reservation lines or purchase a "permit," from the road supervisor or be dealt with according to law. To be serious, the citzens of Marion, Polk and Yamhill counties will never allow Mr. Sinnot to stop them from going to the coast or pascably crossing the reservation without paying tribute to a dirty Indian.
