The independent labor party has appointed a committee to issue a call for a national convention of the labor organization, to be held at Philadelphia Jan. 12, 1884.

Some of our southern brethren are still "blooded." The Secretary of the State and the Governor's Private Secritary, of South Carolina "took a little twist" the other day -the former getting worsted.

The Portland News has found out that "That Wretched Water" furnished the city of Portland should be frowned down upon. We second the motion. We will venture the assertion that no city in the United States is cursed with as poor water as is that city, and it is time the people of the place were taking steps to better their condition in this respect.

The following item is copied into the Christian Hearald with considerable prominence, and strikes us as being out of place for a paper that is working for the good of mankind. Indeed it shows a disposition far from becoming with a teacher of Christianity. Here is the item: "The good work still goes on. Near Anburn a Chinaman shot and killed another all the same as Melican man.

One day recently

One day recently word was brought to this place that Jay Gould had been assassinated, and the news spread like wild-fire, causing intense excitement. But the pulse of the community quieted down and beat more regularly when it was learned that the report was only a news-boy's canard. The great railroad monarch is still alive and able to "pull in" his regular allowance, on Wall street.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The legislature of Washington Territory meets on the first Monday of October.

A piece of coal said to weigh one ton has been sent to Seattle to be laced on exhibition.

A party of four persons, in two days' fishing, near Deer Lodge, Montana, recently, captured 1,007 trout. Red Cloud, as a slight concession to the civilization of the nineteenth century, has had his hair cut short. The O. & C. R. R. cars are now marked "O. C. R. R., O. & T. Co.

Lessees." O. & T. Co. means Oregon and Transcontinental company. G. F. Ross, a breakman on the west side road, had his hand so bally crushed, at Corvallis on Thursday as to necessitate amputatiou. A sunflower at Newburg, N. Y., is fifty inches in circumference, stands fourteen feet high, and some of its leaves are eighteen inches wide.

Our imports average $488,308,451 for the first five years of the past decade, against $511,380,657 for the five years just closed, an increase of 14 per cent.

Joseph Moore McConnell died at Albany the 9th inst. He first came to Oregon in 1847, but spent the next two years in California, returning to Oregon and locating in Albany.

A delegation of ladies at Walla-Walla have filled 309 small satis sacks of wheat in imitation of grain sacks, bearing the inscription, "Sou-venir, Walla Walla, 1883."
