DAYTON.

Sept. 25, 1883.
Smoky.
Health of neighborhood improving.
Several of our townspeople attended the Fair last week.
A. Lafaver left for Southern Oregon, last week.
Our band serenaded several of our prominent citizens last Saturday night.
The little daughter of Mr. D. Barnholtzer, who has been very low with typhoid fever for some time past, is improving slowly.

Messrs. Burnett, Larsen and Liebe, of Portland, were here, looking after their mill interests, last week.
Preston Munkers and wife, of Scio, Linn county, were the guests of Wm. Logan, last Saturday.
Mrs. A. R. Logan, of your place, was here visiting friends last week.

Clarence Carey, of Portland, returned home yesterday. He will attend school here this winter.
Mr. Ed. Crane, of Portland, and Miss Cattie James, of this place, were married at Lafayette yesterday by Judge Townsend. The happy couple left immediately for Portland. Ed and Cattie have numerous friends at this place, who wish them happiness.

Willie Hughes will leave in a few days for Eastern Oregon. Success to you, Willie.
Mrs. A. Lafaver, who has been very ill for the past few days, is convalescent.
G. E. Detmering is having a new platform built in front of his store.

A. A. Crane, who has had the post of the Florida Mills at this place for the past two years, has resigned his position with the company and will leave us soon. Mr. Crane has purchased a saw mill near Kalama, and will probably go to that place. The best wishes of numerous friends go with himself and his estimable wife.

LAFAYETTE.

Sept. 25th, 1883.
R. R. Daniels, of the Lafayette flouring mill met with a very serious accident last Thursday. It seems that he was rubbing some soap on the bevel gear of the chopper, to prevent cutting, when his hand got caught in the cog and was instantly drawn in and the thumb, second, third and fourth fingers of the left hand, were literally ground up. Dr. Littlefield, was called and dressed the hand as best he could by amputating the crushed fingers and thumb, leaving the first finger whole. Mr. D. has been suffering much pain, but is now feeling a little better.

The 21st was the hottest day we have had since the early part of July. The thermometer reaching 91 deg. in the shade, with the weather very sultry; and what made it more disagreeable, the atmosphere became very thick with smoke from the Coast range, and has remained so ever since.

Mr. Meredith Hews of East Chehalen died last Saturday, of some kind of low fever. He was about fifty years of age.
Al Fletcher of old is not the Al Fletcher he used to be. He can now stick an adenoid to his name, a sort of "nota bene," you know, and write it A. P. Fletcher, Benedict, all because he went down to West Chehalen last Sunday in a single condition and returned double—which means that Mr. A. P. Fletcher, of Lafayette, and Miss May Nelson, of West Chehalen, were married at the residence of the bride's father, J. C. Nelson, last Sunday. Cigars for the crowd.

On Monday morning the crowd began to come in to attend court, and by eight the town was pretty well filled; but this morning more are coming from all directions and no doubt that every nook and corner where a man can sleep and eat will be filled.

The annual attraction of this term of court is the Fitch murder case, a theme on every tongue, tried and re-tried on every corner by everybody that knows or don't know anything about it; and always with the same result: one learns no more about it. But perhaps the end of this week will see the end of the trial in court, and then something will be known about it.

Among those who are called here as witnesses in the Fitch murder case, is our old friend and townsman, J. T. Hubert. J. E. Hembree is up and I believe is also a witness in the same case.

Aaron Frazier, formerly of this place, but now of Wasco county, is here as a witness. Aaron looks as rough and rugged as a cowboy; evidently bunch grass agrees with him.

Outside of the court business there is little or nothing of interest. Everything seems to move smoothly enough to satisfy the most indolent nature in the country. The V. H. H. memorial has not yet been heard from, and judging from other signs, will probably not be favorable when it is heard from.

The Yamhill river is now so low that boats cannot get up to Dayton, so goods have to come up on the O. & C. railroad to St. Jo and then by team to Dayton.

In view of the above facts, some of our people talk of doing something to get boats up to Lafayette. A good move and one that can be carried out if Lafayette and Dayton and neighborhood will go to work in earnest as they ought to do. There is no use in depending on Villard or any other man for a railroad with a water way so nearly open.

NORTH YAMHILL.

Sept. 24, 1883.
Mrs. Kate Dempsey left last week for Sheridan, to visit her relatives and friends.
Morcella Griner left last week for Coquille, Coos county, in search of land.
Mrs. Austin Brinsbee, of Williamson, is visiting at her father-in-law's, J. Brinsbee.
George Higgins is very sick with rheumatism.

There will be an open temperance meeting given by the L. O. G. T., Oct. 6th. Programme not out yet.

The most of our town will be at Lafayette this week, attending court.

Mrs. M. E. Sheytle leaves to-day for her home in Kalama, W. T.
Capt. Tyler, of the Grove, was in town one day last week.
W. J. McConnell returned last Saturday from San Francisco.

James Reed has moved into J. C. Marsh's house in town; he has rented W. J. McConnell's farm and expects to move on soon.

W. B. Rise and party have returned from their trip to Tillamook. They report having a splendid time and brought home with them about 300 pounds of fine trout.
A petition is being circulated to have a telegraph office at this place, which is something that has long been needed.

Miss Mary Davis has returned from the coast, where she has been the past six weeks. She returns much improved in health.
Mrs. Anderson, of Portland, is visiting with her friends, Mr. F. Barnekoof and wife.

Miss Mammie McConnell and brother Benjamin, and Theodore Housworth and Fred Spittington have all gone to Portland to attend school.
Get Billy Morgan to build your chimneys, if you want a good job done. He has gone to Chehalen now, where he has a week's work, putting up chimneys.

TRAVELER.

SHERIDAN.

Sept. 24, 1883.
Strong east wind for several days last week has again darkened the atmosphere with smoke.
Hauling wheat for the season is over, but we have not learned the amount in the warehouses.

Mr. Gehlie and family started for Illinois one day last week.
The last field of wheat in this section was threshed at Dan'l Bogue's last Wednesday.

Capt. Lafollet has rented his old farm near Grand Koude to J. L. Simpson.
Arthur Branson and wife started to Tennessee, last week.

School commenced last Monday, and a number of boys and girls who ought to be in attendance are staying at home. Parents and others take too little interest in this matter. We have a good school and let us properly sustain it.
It was the daughter of Mr. Gehlie that was hurt by the railroad accident at Whites, last week Tuesday.

Capt. Lafollet has a small farm of one hundred and forty acres lying one mile and a-half south of Sheridan, which he offers for sale for two thousand dollars—five hundred down and balance on time.

Mr. Ennis Stone, who lives about twelve miles south of here, in Goose Neck, lost another one of his children—a girl—about 12 years old, with scarlet fever, and the mother and another child have it, but both are convalescing.

Clay Branson has purchased a part of the old Knifong farm, adjoining the town of Williamson, and moved onto it last week. Mr. Branson has for a year or so lived at Hon. J. J. Henderson's.

The following notice is posted about town: The notes and accounts of S. Matheson, W. F. Lemmon and Mrs. E. M. Wait are left with me for collection, and if not paid before Nov. 1st, 1883, I am instructed to collect at law. No further time will be given and I will obey instructions in every instance where I can make costs. This is the last call.
CHARLES LAFOLLETT.

The town authorities have commenced to construct a large culvert across the street near Mr. Gardner's house.
There are a number of cheap farms for sale in this section.

Mrs. Tip Graves has been quite sick for some time, but is some better now.
Miss Ridgeway, who lives on Mill Creek, is very sick, and it is feared she has diphtheria.

Mr. Collins, the photographer, is taking pictures in town.
"Me," who lives a short distance from town, informs me that he dug his potatoes a week or so ago, and his Burbank Seedlings are now soft and wilty, and he fears that he will lose them.

Now is the time to gather your garden seeds and lay in a supply of kindling wood for winter use. There is lots of comfort in knowing that you have plenty of good dry wood in the wood shed for the long, cold, wet winter that is coming.
S. DAN.

THE HIGHLANDS.

Sept. 22, 1883.
Beautiful weather for Fall work.
Farmers are beginning to seed their summer fallowed land.

The mast is heavier than anyone supposed it to be until the swine showed by their manures that it was worth granting about.

Slashing won't burn very well now, and before the showers we were all at firing. We will now have to do a good deal of work, piling brush and otherwise coaxing the fire along.

Our Sunday School, we think, deserves more than a passing notice, as we have kept it up during the summer without missing a Sunday, except to give way for preaching. Moreover, no thrashing crew has worked on Sunday in this neighborhood this season. "Tally one" for the Highland community.

Mrs. Benton, with her two little ones, Ruth and Henry, paid the Highlands a visit last week. Her husband has lately pre-empted a quarter section of land on the head waters of the Cowlitz, in Lewis county, W. T.

There is to be but little moving about our immediate neighbors this Fall, but down about the foot-hills on all sides of us there seems to be quite a "moving out" and "moving in" process going on—Foster and Moon will go to McMinnville, Frazier will take the Foster place on the Williamson that Moon had intended to occupy, and Gathrin and Moore, lately from California, will take the Wells and Berley houses on Rock creek.

Mrs. Southmayd, of Gopher Valley, is suffering from a badly burned foot. She was carrying a bucket of boiling water when the fastening at one end of the bucket gave way, throwing the contents on and about her feet.

We hear that school is to begin in Gopher Valley on Monday next—and right here, before we forget it, we want to congratulate that community on the appearance of their new and comfortably arranged school house. Make good use of it neighbors, and we will congratulate you again.
Sieg. Hinton lately returned to the valley with his health considerably improved.
Miss Mary Berry, of the Airle neighborhood, Polk county, is visiting relatives in the Highlands.
Ho H. Lander.
