NOTICE!

Notice is hereby given that MR. C. E. CONNER has associated himself with the "YAMHILL REPORTER" and is interested in the publication thereof.

OUR PEER-AGE.

Days growing shorter. Circuit Court is in session. Remember L. T. Davis' sale to-morrow.

Shopping and lunch baskets at Russ & Foster's. The Washington county fair begins next Monday.

Some wheat coming to this place from above Sheridan. Considerable interest is manifested in the trial of G. W. Smith.

Postmaster Turner is getting the postoffice tastefully arranged. A good number from here will go back on the pioneer excursion.

J. R. Rollins, of Rollins & Hale, Amity, paid us a call, last Saturday. Dr. Sanders, of Amity, called for a moment or two, on Saturday last.

Mr. Hood showed her hoary head one day last week—the first time in several months. Our Masonic brethren will improve their new building by giving it a coat of cement.

The Nestucca Mill boys came down to the races Saturday and returned to the mill Sunday. When G. "H." Smith learns that his wife is suing for divorce, won't he "buck," though?

J. O. Spencer, who has been in town for a few days, returned to his home at Clifton yesterday. John Dudley, Yamhill's boss horse trainer, carries his left hand in a sling. Cause—it's "boiled."

Go up to Longacre & Fletcher's and see the ground hog. Bangasser and Pauls have one, too. The snake is so thick that our devil says you can bite it off in chunks. And his Majesty never falsifies.

Miss Carrie Marks is assistant teacher in the primary department of the McMinnville public school. We learn that there will be a special term of County Court, commencing one week from next Monday.

S. A. Manning had a severe attack of intermittent fever, last week, but has recovered and is about again. Any one wishing to purchase a good farm will find it to their advantage to call at the store of B. F. Hartman for particulars.

J. B. Perkins and wife of Goldendale, W. T., who have been visiting relatives and friends here returned home yesterday. Mrs. Tipple, mother of Mrs. S. A. Manning, who has been stopping here the past year or more, has gone back to her home in Iowa.

Mr. Wm. Hemstock will please accept our thanks for a supply of that choicest of fruit—Silver Prunes and Golden Drop Plums. They were fine. We have a great big box of Kendall's Treatise of the Horse, to give away on reasonable terms. When you pay your subscription, don't fail to ask for one.

Ex-County Commissioner, S. R. Baxter, of Dayton, came in for a chat last Friday. Mr. Baxter says he is of the opinion that times are going to be brisk this fall. Our young friend, McClellan Roberts, of North Yamhill, is attending college at this place. Clel is one of Yamhill's boys that is determined to have a good education.

We understand that the Methodists of this place contemplate erecting a parsonage for their minister, as is also the case with the Episcopalians, at no distant day. Ladies are respectfully invited to the grand opening, Saturday, September 29th, afternoon and evening, at Misses Russ & Foster's new stand opposite Grange store.

Foot races are good enough at their proper time and places, but for men to get out upon the streets at one o'clock at night to take a dash, it looks somewhat ridiculous. Mr. L. C. Thompson, of Glenbrook Farm, called last Thursday and brought with him a cucumber that is a "whopper," measuring 11 inches in length and 10 inches around.

Miss Alice Compton, of Goldendale, and Miss Nellie Hagerty, of The Dalles, who have been visiting relatives here during the past few weeks, returned to their homes yesterday. Mrs. E. H. Raegg, together in the preparatory department of the college, is well known in Albany and elsewhere as an efficient and energetic teacher of many years experience.

The Mathushek Piano stands unrivaled for beauty of tone. It is unquestionably the most durable Piano made in the United States, and is sold at reasonable prices by Luther Shobe. Mrs. Joha Carlin has been very ill the past week with neuralgia and rheumatism of the heart. At one time her life was despaired of, but we are glad to report her slowly, pending at present.

Frank Spencer was around to see us Saturday and says "I've got the finest boy in Yamhill county up to my house, two and a-half months old and you never said a word about it." Beg pardon, Frank.

Rev. T. W. Fleming, a blind orator from Illinois, lectured on temperance at the M. E. Church, last Sunday evening. A large audience greeted him and his lecture is highly spoken of by all who were present.

Notwithstanding the fact that it was "not enough to roast eggs" last Friday night, a few of our young people congregated at Grange Hall, and whiled away a few hours in the merry dance.

There was a meeting set for three o'clock, Tuesday, by numerous parties, at Lafayette, for the organization of an Agricultural Society. But the excitement of the Smith case attracted their attention and they failed to meet.

Keep the saw-dust, straw and other rubbish cleaned away from alongside your places of business. Several blazes have sprung up from such sources during the week, and but for timely discovery would have caused destructive fires.

There will be four applicants from this county for admission to the bar at the coming Court, next week. They are J. L. Loughary and Frank Featon, of Lafayette and J. C. Freund and Williamson, of McMinnville—all worthy gentlemen.

We had a few moments call from, and a pleasant chat with Mr. Clark Duval, on Saturday last. Mr. D. was at this place some nine years ago, in the photograph business; is now residing at Yakima City, and came down after his wife, who has been paying her sister, Mrs. H. Rummel, a visit.

P. M. Scroggin, Esq., of Sheridan, ex-County Commissioner of Yamhill, dropped in to see us Monday, while on his way to Court, being accompanied by a Mr. Berry of the same section.—Mr. Scroggin is now paid further ahead on the REPORTER than any other subscriber—nearly two years.

Mr. C. Sperry and family have left us, we are sorry to say—having removed to their old home at Brownsville, Linn county. On Saturday evening a farewell party was given the Misses Sperry, by some of their young friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Tucker, and a pleasant time is reported.

Prof. Crawford, the teacher of mathematics and principal of the academy at our new college, is too well known to need introduction. At Shurtliff college his alma mater, it is whispered, by those who know, that he stood at the head of his class in mathematics. Moreover he is an experienced teacher.

An accident happened to a child of Rev. S. Monroe Hubbard of Amity, one day last week. While crossing the railroad bridge over Salt Creek, near that place, the little one fell through to the ground below, a distance of forty feet and strange to say the only severe injury she received was the breaking of one of her arms. A remarkable escape.

W. B. Turner shows us a strange freak of nature. It is the head of a trout having two mouths and two sets of gills, while the mouths are filled with perfectly formed teeth. The fish was caught in the Santiam, Sept. 12th, by Wm. Jellison of Turner, and was about eleven inches in length.

Last Thursday and Friday the atmosphere was the most oppressive we have ever known it in Oregon. The wind blew a perfect hurricane from the north, but notwithstanding this, the mercury in the thermometer indicated 97° in the shade, and it was with difficulty a person could breathe.

Those wishing to study Hebrew, a language equally necessary to the student of Theology whatever his denominational creed, will find ample opportunities at the New College under the instruction of Pres. Anderson. The President is also conducting classes in Greek, German and Political Economy.

The ladies of the St. James' Guild have canvassed the town thoroughly for contributions to purchase a bell for the Episcopal church, and have succeeded admirably, securing between $80 and $100, and ere long we may expect to hear the tones of a new bell peal forth on the breezes. The ladies are to be commended for their successful effort.

Several from this place and vicinity will accompany the Pioneers' excursion, among whom we hear mentioned, J. R. Derby and wife, C. A. Wallace, J. W. Rogers and wife, W. J. Garrison and wife, W. T. Newby and wife, T. D. Henderson and wife and Thos. Pettigrew and wife—if he can get one. There may be others, but this is all we have heard named.

Miss L. L. Goltra, the teacher of music in McMinnville college, has had the very best advantages for musical training which Oregon affords; and comes to us highly recommended both by her teachers and by all who know her. She has already taught music at Eugene and at Albany with great acceptance. Those entrusting their children to her care may be sure of the most thorough instruction, and the most rapid advancement consistent with thoroughness.

Those seats for the new College that are being put up at W. H. Bingham's are the neatest we have ever seen.—The frames are cast at the McMinnville Foundry by Messrs. Anderson & Newgard and show that these gentlemen understand the business that they profess, while the wood-work done by Mr. Kinsey entitles him to a long black mark. The seats will not only be easy to sit on but they will be strong and durable. Go and take a look at them and see if we are not correct.

Dr. Johnson and family, of this place came through on the first emigrant train that passed over the Northern Pacific, and were landed in Portland on Friday. This is better than time made in four days from the Central Pacific route by about five or six days; and then it is so consoling to know that one is not compelled to leave the soles of his boots between San Francisco and Portland.

Last Friday, Sept. 21st, 1883, was the birthday of Major James H. Turner, he being 71 years old on that date. In the evening the circle of relatives of the old veteran assembled at his residence and gave him a birthday party, that is reported to us as being one of the most pleasant affairs that has transpired in many a day. He received a few presents from his children that were duly appreciated by him.—"Uncle" Jim, although suffering his occasional attacks of rheumatism enjoys good health, and we hope he may live to enjoy many more of these happy occasions. We received an invitation to attend this party, but owing to unavoidable circumstances were unable to be present.

She leaned her head on his shoulder and sighed: "O Jimmy dear"—"Darling are you sick?" "No Jimmy, but I would like to get some of that fresh made candy at the McMinnville Bakery—you know it's the only candy factory in Yamhill Co." "Yes dear."—awk

We desire to call attention to the high quality of the instruction offered in French at McMinnville College. Prof. Anderson has studied French almost continuously from the time he was fifteen years old. He has been for a large part of the time under the best teachers that are found in this country. He has, also, recently spent some time in France, residing mostly in Paris, for the distinct purpose of acquiring the nicer shades of the pronunciation, and facility in speaking and understanding the language. Add to all the qualifications the fact that he has had considerable successful experience as a teacher, and it will be seen that the opportunity offered for the study of French at our college is probably unexcelled on the Pacific slope. Prof. Anderson also has charge of the instruction in Latin, and English literature.

The case of State of Oregon vs G. W. Smith for the killing of Mary A. Petch on the 17th of August 1882 came up on Tuesday. The prisoner was taken into the court room at 9 A. M. in his shirt sleeves and the charge against him was read. During the reading of the charge, Smith assumed an air of indifference and at the conclusion, when asked by His Honor "guilty or not guilty?" he answered in a firm tone "not guilty." The next thing to be done was to get a jury and try the case. It has been thought that to get a jury would be a difficult task; but it was not, as by one o'clock a full jury had been empanelled and were ready to proceed with the case. Following is the list of jurors: S. J. Dunn, James O. Guild, E. Tilson, Jos. Hoskins, S. E. Goodrich, James Agee, E. X. Harding, James Galloway, R. Addison, Jas. Mortgager, Jas. Carter and J. W. James. Hon. H. Hurley opened the case for the prosecution, and stated to the jury the many incidents connected with the affair in a very clear manner—of the squabble and the Petches had over a piece of land; of the threats made by Smith; of the attempt of some person on the life of Mrs. Petch several weeks prior to the date the fatal shot was fired; of the numerous rifle-pits found in the neighborhood; and last the killing and Smith secreting himself for a year or more—all of the things combined proving quite conclusively that George W. Smith is the guilty party. Mr. Hurley was followed by Hon. N. L. Butler, for the defense. He stated to the jury that they were sitting to decide upon a case of the highest importance; that they held the life of a fellow man in their hands, and appealed to their sympathy, cautioning them not to consider too weighty the chain of circumstantial evidence that would probably be presented. The attorney said that the best and strongest evidence of the prosecution would be Smith's absence and did not think that enough could be made out of that to justify a jury in returning a verdict of guilty.

The council, Messrs Holmes, McCain & Hurley, for the State and W. D. Fenton, J. J. Daly and N. L. Butler, for the defense, are fighting this case inch by inch and if the end is reached this week we will be surprised, as there are upwards of one hundred witnesses to be examined. As we have not time nor space for testimony, we shall leave a more complete report for next issue.

SPORTS. A large crowd assembled at this place on Saturday last to witness the foot race between Martin and Bennett. But all were doomed to disappointment, so far as the $500 race was concerned, though the two came together during the afternoon; and besides this there were numerous other foot races, a wrestling match, etc. The first race was between Sy Roberts, of North Yamhill, and Newt Branson, of Sheridan, 50 yards for $25 a side, and a little excitement was caused and no small amount of money put up, as both men are known to be good runners. They run through, but the judges being unable to agree the money was drawn. We understand that this race was made over for $50 a side, to be run at this place one week from next Saturday, Oct. 6th.

There was a foot race between Charley Phillips and a gentleman whose name we did not learn, for a small amount and this race was also decided a tie. Noah Robinson and Calkin took a dash of 50 yards for a small sum of money and Noah came out seven feet behind.

A wrestling match between Charley Hirsch, of this place, and Bud Dart, of Dayton Prairie, side hold, best two in three was won by Dart. This match was for $5 a side. But the most interesting part of the programme was yet to come.

MARTIN AND BENNETT were to try each others metal. Bennett was almost dying to run; he could "just beat any man in Oregon, easily enough, and don't you forget it boys," I am broke, but if you boys will make up $100 and bet it with Martin, I'll show you how easy I can beat him and win you some money." The crowd was quite anxious to see him run, and by throwing in a little they soon made up the $100, which was covered by Martin and the two soon appeared, stripped for the contest. Bennett is a well-muscled fellow and many thought he would give the "Yamhill Boy" a close and hard race. But Martin beat him easily without extra exertion.

The reason the main race was not run was this: Bennett came here with $100 of his own money, and a gentleman from The Dalles agreed that if he made a race for $500, put up his $100 as a forfeit, he would back him for the balance—$400. But he didn't "back him" worth a cent, from some cause unknown to Bennett or anyone else in this section; hence Martin was entitled to, and took the forfeit money. The race was made and announced in good faith by all parties in this section; but still we do not blame the large crowd present for grumbling, as many had come for miles to see the race, and then to be disappointed was not pleasant. But then those who remained long enough had the pleasure of seeing the two men run.

ANOTHER $500 RACE. Mr. Pendegast came to this place Saturday and arranged a race with Martin for $500 a side, to be run on the course near the Central Hotel, one week from next Saturday—Oct. 6th. Mr. Pendegast furnishes his own money and he informs us that he will run, as he informs us that he will run, as he informs us that he will run.

One hundred dollars forfeit money has been put up and $150 more will be deposited next Saturday. Mr. P. is a very gentlemanly appearing fellow; is very sanguine of winning the race he has made—so sure that he says he would rather make the sum $1,000 than $500; and as Mr. Martin's friends have great confidence in his ability, no small amount of the filthy lucre is likely to change hands on this race. Thus the two men who have been bantering each other all the past summer, will come together at last. Mr. Pendegast is originally from California, but has been working in Southern Oregon during the past summer.

THE STATE FAIR. Oregon's State Fair for 1883 is numbered with things of the past. But few attended from this section, but those who did speak in the highest terms of the exhibition, both in displays of all kinds, racing and the general management. The State exhibit contained 265 samples of cereals and grasses; fruits and vegetables in endless quantities and varieties while the floral department is far ahead of former years. Had we the space we should be pleased to give a minute report; but as it is we shall have to be content with a meager description. We may say first that YAMHILL COUNTY came in for her share of premiums, as follows: L. H. Baker, McMinnville, three-year-old mare Lady Kisber, roaster, first premium. D. Ramsey, Newberg, Yamhill county, draft stallion over one year, first premium. W. H. Wood, Wheatland, Yamhill county, draft stallion, Pedro Boy, over two years, second premium. Reed & Ladd, Amity, Yamhill county, draft stallion Young Brutus, over three years, graded draft stallion Slasher, over two years, and draft brood mare Glascock Nell, over four years old, and colt, first premiums; draft mare over four years, Scotch Lassie, second premium. Geo. Westerfield, of Salem, takes the first premium for blacksmithing and horse shoes. George lives at Salem but he is an old Yamhill boy, all the same. J. W. Bridwell, Dallas, first premium on stallion three years old; first premium on mare one year old. We think the reporters made a mistake as to the residence of Mr. Bridwell, as he lives near Amity in this county.

The racing was very good, but nothing worth bragging about. The total receipts were about $15,000; the expenses will be less than $12,000. Following is a list of officers for the ensuing year: J. T. Apperson, of Clackamas, was elected president; M. Wilkins of Lane, and John G. Wright of Marion, vice presidents, and Geo. A. Peebles, secretary.

BOARD OF MANAGERS. The election held yesterday for the board of managers for next year, resulted as follows: Baker county J. W. Wisdom; Benton county Norris Newcomb; Bouton county Henry Schroeder; Coos county Alf. Luehner; Clackamas county Wm. Tichenor; Curry county W. W. West; Columbia county D. W. Stearns; Douglas county D. W. Jenkins; Grant county Jas. F. Bybee; Jackson county John Sifers; Josephine county Jay Bench; Lake county C. P. Burkhardt; Linn county Geo. Belshaw; Lane county T. D. Davidson; Marion county H. Miller; Multnomah county E. L. DeLashmunt; Polk county Claud Thayer; Tillamook county John Ladd; Union county W. Ross; Umatilla county J. L. Hallett; Washington county E. B. Dufur; Wasco county Wm. Galloway; Yamhill county Wm. Thompson; Crook county

THE BAR. The following attorneys are present at court at Lafayette: His Honor, R. P. Hoise, judge; prosecuting attorney, W. H. Holmes; Messrs. J. J. Daly, Jas. Townsend, N. L. Butler and Charles Sullivan, of Dallas; W. M. Ramsey, of Salem; J. L. Story, of Tillamook; besides our own copy of legal lights, Messrs. McCain & Hurley, W. D. Fenton, E. C. & W. L. Bradshaw; J. E. Magers, G. G. Bingham and A. M. Herby.

STATE TAX FOR 1883. There having been considerable inquiry as to the amount of state tax to be levied for 1883, we give below the detailed items for the information of the public. The total state tax for the year 1883 is five and six-tenths mills upon the dollar, divided as follows: Four mills on account of current expenses, one mill for the completion of the insane asylum building, one-half of one mill for the payment of the Indian war debt, and one-tenth of one mill for the support of the state university. See section 89, page 706, general laws of Oregon; section 7, page 15, and section 8, page 51, session laws of 1880, and section 1, page 8, session laws of 1882, for the various legislative acts regulating the same.—Oregonian.

BOYS. Near Sheridan, Sept. 17th, 1883, to the wife of Thomas Stephens, a son. Near Sheridan, Sept. 17th, 1883, to the wife of Joseph Trail, a son.

INSANE. Mr. Larkin Fouts, of Carlton was taken before Judge Lafayette and adjudged insane last week, and was conveyed to the Asylum. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago Mr. Fouts was thrown from a wagon and received serious injuries which brought on him and his relatives this affliction.

ATTENTION, MEMBERS, C. P. B. Members of Custer Post Band will meet this (Thursday) evening for practice. A full attendance is required at the regular meeting next Monday evening, as there is important business to transact.

A. V. R. SYDNER, Leader.

Mr. J. L. Ladd will sell at public auction, at his premises 1 1/2 miles west of Amity, on Saturday, Oct. 6th, Horses, Cattle, Hogs and all kinds of Farming utensils. For further particulars and terms, see posters. 25w4.

NOTICE.

G. L. Parker and Geo. W. Harris are now canvassing Yamhill and Polk counties, soliciting orders for the Blackford Fire Tightener, which is giving general satisfaction and just the machine that every farmer needs. That you may know that this is no humbug, read the following certificate: McMinnville, Oregon, July 9th, 1883. We hereby certify that we have purchased a Fire Tightening Machine, now being sold by Harris & Parker, which we have thoroughly tested and find to be a success for lightening fires, and can recommend it to every man who has loose fires on buggies, backs or wagons, as being all that is claimed for it. BENDERSON & LOGAN BROS.

ATTENTION!

Notice to Farmers! Having purchased of Mr. W. T. Newby the well-known McMinnville Warehouse, I shall prepared to store this season's crop on as favorable terms as can be done in McMinnville, and shall be ready at all times to pay.

FINAL PROOF

Land Office at Oregon City, Oregon, Aug 2nd, 1883. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the County Clerk of Yamhill County at Lafayette, Oregon, on Monday, Sept. 16, 1883, viz: Mary Waddle, formerly Mary Rice, Homestead Entry No. 4477 for lot 1 of Sec. 12 T-4 R-6 W.

She names the following witnesses to prove her continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: D. McCall, B. Brower, E. M. Grady and G. B. A. Faris all of McMinnville, Yamhill County, Oregon.
