Dayton, W. T., 18th: The first snow of the season fell on the mountains south of town last Monday.

One day last week B. F. Ely, living near Centerville, Umatilla county, lost a valuable span of horses, valued at $500, by falling into a well.

The Tacoma Ledger says: An order has been received at the railroad shops for six new mail and express cars, the work of constructing which will be commenced at once.

Wasco county, Oregon, is constructing a canal to supply water to 60,000 acres, which new is destitute of water for farming purposes, although the soil is of excellent quality.

Last week, at Cove, Union county, Oregon, an eagle measuring over seven feet from tip to tip, was killed while attempting, with every prospect of success, to carry off a hog.

The Pacific Journal says: Jones' Point has been selected as the ocean terminus of the Puget Sound and Grays Harbor railroad, near which point the channel is 26 feet deep at low tide.

Rev. P. S. Knight, of Salem, Oregon, has been given a unanimous call to become pastor of the First Congregational Church of Walla Walla. Mr. Knight has been located in Salem a number of years; pleasantly so.

A large cougar was killed last Wednesday on the Willapa, in Pacific county, by Messrs Giesy and Preston, which measured ten feet and three inches. It has been feeding quite extensively on the mutton of that vicinity.

Financially, the Klickitat county, W. T., fair was a failure. At the annual election last Friday S. H. Miller was elected president; B. F. Saylor, secretary; Sig. Sichel, treasurer; J. C. Jameson, Joe Nesbitt and B. F. Purdy directors.

The yearly supplies for the Indian schools at Payup, Chelalis and Skokomish, W. T., all under agent Ellis' direction, have pretty much all arrived, over one hundred invoices coming to Tacoma. It costs the government about $40,000 annually to maintain these schools.

Snow has been falling for some time in the Coast Range mountains, and mining operations have been very generally suspended for the season. Nuggets valued at $11, $20 and $50 have been taken out, and claims are reported as paying from $10 to $30 per day to the man.

The Baker Reveille says that the railroading to be used to inclose the granite of Oregon's first governor has been taken to Eagle valley. Gov. Gale was well and favorably known all over the coast and was a man of fine natural ability. He died poor, but were it not for his good deeds he might have been the wealthiest man on the coast.

A large number of sheep, says the Heppner (Oregon) Gazette, in the band belonging to William Penlan, mentioned last week as having had such a narrow escape from total destruction in the forest fires, presented a pitiable sight on being brought out of the timber. Many of them had their feet partly or wholly burned off, others had their ears gone while others had severe burns in various parts of the body. They presented a painful picture as they limped and hopped along. Almost all of them were got out of the fire, but over 200 of them have since died of their injuries.

The Heppner, Or., Gazette relates the following: The remains of a soldier were found by Henderson's surveying party in the crevice of a rock about one and a half miles from Camp Harney. Part of his gun and remnants of his clothing still remained. Some rocks had been piled on top of him. He had most likely been murdered by the Indians, years ago, and probably placed on record as a deserter.

A very destructive fire occurred at the town of Weston, in Umatilla county, Oregon, on the night of Oct. 18th. Nearly the entire business portion of the town was laid in ashes. The fire, which evidently was the work of an incendiary, broke out in an old stable back of Geo. Hay's saloon on Water street. A strong southwest wind was blowing and propelled the flames in a short time throughout the full length of Main street and also down Water street, totally destroying the houses on both. The whole affair took about one hour. Loss $150,000.

The Seattle Post-Intelligence says that the Chinese are coming into territory from British Columbia, by way of New Westminster and Whatcom, is not to be doubted. Every week half a dozen or more come by that route—that is, those who are known to come while many more come probably of whom less is known. On the Washington last Friday four came who, there was abundant reason for believing, were straight from New Westminster. The fellows were afraid to land here at first, and hid on arrival of the boat, to prevent discovery. They afterwards shipped up town, and now, as far as detection is concerned, are undoubtedly lost to the law officers.

Pittsburg Oct. 22.—A telegram from St. Louis, stating that a new clue had been found by Charlie Ross, has been corroborated by a statement by a gentleman from Wyoming, who says that Henry Mosher, a brother of Mosher who admitted kidnapping Charlie Ross, was lynched near Cheyenne five weeks ago. Mosher begged his life should be spared twenty-four hours, and said he would give the world information for which it had been seeking for years past. He admitted having the custody of the person held for ransom for more than a year, and said that he had been driven to the far West by the hot pursuit of the detectives. The time was not allowed, and the secret died with him. The crime for which Mosher was lynched was the killing of J. H. Wentzell and a murderous assault on John Knight.

Achill was born Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph, weighing only one pound and eight ounces. It is perfect in development and has every chance to live, if not to grow big. It was too small for anything but doll baby clothes, and it is now rigged up after that manner. If it lives to attain maturity it will be one of the wonders of the age. (S.C.) Patriot
