OUR PEER-JUD.

County Court is in session. City election passed off very quietly. Misses and childrens cloaks at H. Fisher's.

A perfect bonanza of plows at the Corker's, Lafayette. Go see those late styled Hats at B. F. Hartman's.

White Knitting Cotton 5 balls for 25 cents at H. Fisher's. Corker, at Lafayette, keeps the Syracuse chilled iron plow.

The jury in the Kiernan-Altman case, last week, disagreed. The great and well known Bamboo corset for sale at H. Fisher's.

Dr. Trullinger, the veterinary surgeon, was in town on Monday. A big line of Misses Rubber Gossamers $1.25 at H. Fisher's.

Things went very cheaply at Dr. Angur's sale, last Saturday. Mrs. Sarah Conner has gone to Portland to visit friends.

W. A. Henderson, of South Yamhill, came in for a chat, on Saturday. Go to Corker's, at Lafayette, and get a plow that will last a lifetime.

For trimmings 50 cents a yard at H. Fisher's. Vest Powders at 25 cts. per can at B. F. Hartman's—sold elsewhere at 37 1/2 cts.

Our pioneers are returning. Mr. W. J. Garrison reached home last Monday, having been gone just five weeks. He is looking well and reports having had a good time.

S. F. Harding thanks us for mentioning the fact that there were some broken planks in the walk at the corner of Y and Third, and says that the walk has been fully repaired.

The old Shakespearean Reading Club has been re-organized under the name of "McMinnville Social Literary Society." It is composed of some of our best citizens, and should succeed.

Chas. Grissen, of the Bakery has received the largest assortment of Santa Claus notions at astonishing low figures—dolls by the million for 5 cents.

Young hopeful's first autograph, written in the album of a young friend: "Good-bye, Charlie; my pa bought my ma a new wash bowl and pitcher; I have got a new aunt and she is here, so she is."

Dr. Trullinger offers the following gentlemen as reference: F. O. McCown, atty, D. C. Letourrette, atty, Dr. White, Capt. Apperson, Dr. Noyes, Dr. Parker, Cooper Bros., Livermen, all of Oregon City.

Those knowing themselves indebted to me, by note or otherwise, are hereby notified to come and settle immediately, and save costs. I must have money, and if warning will not bring it, justice will. I mean just what I say. B. F. HARTMAN.

Our friend and former business partner, W. H. Warren, left us on Monday last for Warren, where he will go into business. Mr. Warren is a young man of good business qualifications, and we wish him success in whatever business he may engage.

Local Correspondence.

SHERIDAN. Nov. 5, 1883. The hills around Sheridan are green with rapidly growing grass.

A petition is being circulated and numerous signed, asking that Charles Whitmer be appointed post master in place of C. H. Messenger, deceased.

The ground is in splendid condition for plowing and the farmers are busy as bees. Joseph Howard, druggist at Prineville, Crook county, was visiting at Capt. Lafollett's, last week.

A five year old child of Montgomery, N. Y., died of diphtheria, last week of membranous croup, and not diphtheria, as has been reported.

The Good Templars and their friends had a splendid time at their Necktie party, and netted therefrom the sum of $35.

Capt. Lafollett has two hundred bushels of Burbank seedling potatoes. Thomas Stakely, of Jackson precinct, Polk county, lost a child three or four years old, last week, with croup.

It is announced that a meeting will be held at the Town Hall on Friday evening next to organize the usual debating society. Let the men attend, as well as the boys and girls. Musicians and singers especially invited.

The appraisers were engaged last week in appraising the property of the estate of C. H. Messenger. There is at A. S. Bible's store six potatoes taken from one hill by Mr. Porter, that weigh 1 1/2 pounds—the largest weighing 4 1/2 lbs.

The freeze out last winter has not deterred the farmers from sowing winter wheat, for it is believed the acreage will be as large as usual. Mr. Green, the gentleman who purchased the Millsaps farm, has just arrived overland from California.

Several strangers have been here, looking for land. John Bunn has a very sick child. Dr. Littlefield is tending it. Miss Oriole Laughlin has gone to Portland to continue her study of music with Miss Sedall.

George Messenger and brother, of Palouse, W. T. formerly of this place, are down on a visit. J. L. Stewart and family have gone to Portland on a visit.

Baker Sappington, wife, mother and sister, of Gaston, visited relatives near here several days ago. John Bateman steps around quite lively, dove Cause—his wife presented him with a nice girl baby Nov. 1.

Dave Caldwell and mother returned yesterday from Missions and say they are glad to get home. Dave is much improved in health. NEWBERG. Nov. 5, 1883. Occasionally a little rain.

The heaviest frost this season was last Saturday morning. Nearly everyone is out with their plows, turning up the black soil. Lewis Hoskins has rented J. T. Smith's place; and Johnnie, who knows, stands behind the counter just waiting to sell you something that will make you happy.

Miss Maggie Inglis has gone to Forest Grove to teach the Indian girls the dress making business. This makes the fourth lady from this place that is helping in the Indian school. Mr. Sink and family started for east of the mountains, last week.

Miss Bertha Brutscher, who has been visiting near Wheatland, returned yesterday. John Hadley, who has been east of the mountains for some time, has returned home. Some of the girls have almost shed tears, the past week, to think that R. S. has left the country, and there is no chance for any more back news with him.

Thomas Clemens, of Linn county, is visiting at his son-in-law's, Riley Smith. Sheriff Collard was in town last Saturday. Quite a number were down from Dayton, yesterday.

Prof. Owen, the phrenologist, is back again and intends to lecture to-night at the Brutscher school house. There was a large crowd at the Social Temperance meeting yesterday. We were disappointed in not having Mr. Magers present, but had a good meeting any way.

ABOUT THOSE "OREGONIANS." EDITOR REPORTER.—In reply to "S. Dan" in REPORTER of Nov. 1st in regard to the "Oregonian" not coming to time I would say in reply that the "Oregonian" of the 27th just came to this office all right, but it was the Reedville package that was sent to this office instead of the Sheridan package. The Reedville package was addressed to Sheridan and the Sheridan package, I suppose, was sent to Reedville. If "S. Dan" would call on the post master here for an explanation he would not need to appear in the REPORTER so often. He could get a very good explanation of him on the subject and save a great many of the readers of the REPORTER a great deal of personal matter that does not interest them. I hope he will call on the post master for an explanation when they fail to come again, and save himself the trouble of an item in the REPORTER.

W. C. W. Deputy post master, Sheridan. Woman Suffrage Question. LAFAYETTE, Or., Nov. 5, 1883. EDITOR REPORTER.—As you have so kindly submitted a space in your valuable paper to an occasional article, on the subject of "equal rights," you'll probably deem a few thoughts on the subject mentioned, not untimely. The present is certainly a time fraught with great interest to the women of Oregon, and they should be keenly alive to their own interests and "be up and doing," so that voters may know that in casting their ballots next June for the pending amendment, the same will meet with the cordial approbation of their mothers, daughters, sisters and wives.

A number of women are apathetic on this vital question, for which various reasons can be assigned, yet, often it has been decided in the affirmative, they'll speedily realize, as their fathers, brothers, husbands and sons now do, that it is not only a study but a great privilege to exercise a right in making laws by which they are governed. Voters of Oregon, it is for you to decide whether your own loved ones shall be on an equality with you yourselves. It is out of your power to represent them. You can readily see that you are just as powerless in this direction as you are to vote for the masculine members of your own family. We all, of both sexes, have a God-given individuality of our own, such being the case it is no more than just that we each have an opportunity, women as well as men, of representing ourselves. Respectfully, M. F. COOKE.

DR. SAYLOR'S MARRIAGE. Says the "News" of Friday last, Nov. 2nd: One of the happiest gatherings of the season was assembled last evening at the residence of the Hon. J. F. Caples on Taylor street. The occasion was in celebration of the wedding of the accomplished daughter, Miss Carrie, and Dr. W. H. Saylor, the well known physician of this city. The fact of the engagement had been whispered about for some time past and last evening witnessed the happy culmination of the betrothal. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Geo. W. Lizer, surrounded by a few intimate friends and the family. At 8:30 o'clock a reception was held and the parlors were filled to overflowing with a multitude of the friends of bride and groom, who were kept busily engaged for hours receiving the hearty congratulations of the callers. The handsome couple occupied a position in the parlor of the second parlor, and beneath a huge umbrella of roses, heliotrope and nymphettes. The bride was attired in an elegant silk of asbes' of roses, tastefully embellished with orange blossoms. A handsome pair of solid ivory diamond ear-rings, a present from the groom, adorned her, and she looked the incarnation of happiness. The Doctor's portly figure contrasted well with the petite elegance of his bride, and joy irradiated his every feature.

The wedding presents were numerous and costly, and were displayed to the admiring gaze of all comers in the front parlor. A rich and beautiful collation was spread in the dining room, under the supervision of Alisky, Baum & Co. The elite of the city were present, and the evening passed in a most agreeable and enjoyable manner. At 11 o'clock the last of the guests had departed, leaving attended one of the pleasantest receptions that has taken place in this city for years past. This cordiality and warmth of feeling was due to the universal popularity of both bride and groom, each of whom is the center of a large circle of admiring acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Saylor left for Astoria this morning. From there they will take the steamer for San Francisco, and spend a few weeks in the balmy atmosphere of California.

SHERIDAN'S BUSINESS MEN. A friend kindly furnishes the following list of the business men of the metropolis of South Yamhill: G. C. Epperly, drugs and books. A. S. Bible, dry goods and groceries. E. Jacobson, same. H. F. & L. Mayer, same. W. T. Hash, same. Chas. Lafollett, attorney at law. Victor Gross, harness and saddles. J. W. James, blacksmith. H. Grindle, same. McBeeson Bros, livery and feed stable. Chas. Whitmer, stoves and tinware. Gus Anderson, saloon. John Cain, same. J. W. Eaton, boots and shoes. A. C. Southmyd & Potter, real estate agts. Ed McCoy, real estate agent. D. C. Coleman, Wells, Fargo & Co's agent. H. B. Soumerville, dealer in produce. S. Potter, hotel and warehouseman. B. F. Patterson, hotel and livery. — Gardner, O. R. M. agent. Jack Martin, mail carrier. D. W. Cox, M. D. practicing physician. Morrison & Embree, millers. Chas. Whitmer, postmaster. R. McKinnis, Marshal. D. C. Coleman, Recorder. S. Potter, Justice of the Peace. S. Prof Hill, school teacher. Rev. McIntire, minister.

Ed Sherman was arrested and placed in the city jail on Friday night. Saturday he was taken before the Recorder, plead guilty and was fined, but not having the money to pay his fine, he was remanded to jail to serve out his sentence, he to be kept on bread and water. Sunday morning Marshal Shuck took some cold tea and a basin up to feed the prisoner, but imagine his surprise on finding that "thebird had flown." Yes; he had taken his little knife, whittled a little hole through the floor, forced his little body through the hole, crawled from under the building, and was gone. We would suggest to our marshal that hereafter he search the pockets of prisoners, to ascertain whether or not he is locking up a full set of carpenter's tools.

E. R. Harrison can find his lost pocket book at this office. IMMENSE BARGAINS The attention of the public is called to the immense bargains now offered at the Peoples' Store.
