

The Reporter

McMINNVILLE, OREGON, NOV. 15, 1883.

Republican politicians claim that the democrats are the friends of whiskey.

Well, why don't you deny it?

An exchange says "the republican party must go, because it's a protectionist." It's a mistake; that isn't it. It's because the democratic party wants to go to bed.

Protection is robbery. The prudent will lock their doors and protect their houses with all manner of burglar alarms and rob the poor (foreign) tramps of many a free (trade) meal.

Before we had any tariff, wheat was 30 cents per bushel, oats 10 cents, butter 5 cents a pound, eggs 3 cents a dozen, wages of farm hands $8 per month, whisky 10 cents a gallon, and women spun and wove their own dresses and the men's clothes. Oh, for the good old days of free trade! We can't stand prosperity.

The West Side, of Independence, is on our table, a bright, spicy, newsy little sheet, with J. H. Stine as publisher and proprietor. In typographical appearance it is a model of neatness; has a good list of advertisers, and we dare say with a careful management will prove a success. Here's our 1¢, Bro Stine.

"Senator McDonald said in his great speech at Des Moines, Iowa, 'there are many poor men in the State of Iowa who are paying more taxes into the United States treasury than Jay Gould or Vanderbilt, under our tariff system.'—Register.

Yes, or Samuel J. Tilden, either.—But then these Iowa people are always patriotic. It's real mean, though, for me to kick Samuel J. on the blind side, that way.

The Standard wants to know "what in thunder 'nasal shades' of Yamhill means. Well, 'classic shades' means or pertains to authors of high rank and deep obscurity. Yamhill has the authors that have the 'obscurity' but not the 'high rank,' and as our county name is pronounced with a nasal twang, and some dude reporters think that the Yamhill authors and orators are only a cross between pioneers and Missourians, that speak with a backwoods drawl, it's a logical conclusion to call it 'nasal shades,' don't it?

One of the most shocking murders to our knowledge occurred on Saturday, Nov. 3rd, at one o'clock p. m., six miles southeast of Albany, Oregon, on the Brownsville road. A youth 15 years of age, grandson of Mr. J. J. and Mrs. Jennet Finlayson, brutally murdered the latter by stabbing her twenty-five times with a common pocket knife, and horribly mangle and crushing her head with an ax, during the absence of her husband. After committing the bloody deed, he took what money there was in the house, and left for parts unknown, and since that time has not been heard of.

The Oregonian can change to more sides of the prohibition, license, liquor question than a chameleon has colors to his skin. In one issue it knocks the whisky element "sky west and crooked," causing them to have to double their license fee by threatening them with prohibition, and throws open its columns to fanatical prohibitionists.—Then if a prohibitionist raises his head to help on the fight, he is "out of order" that he is in advance of public sentiment, and prohibition cannot be enforced. Is it the kind of toddy the barkeep mixes on him or the number of "fingers" the editor has "chambered" that makes him act so?

In the elections that occurred in the Eastern and Southern States, last week, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Nebraska and Pennsylvania went republican by good majorities, while New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Mississippi and Virginia went democratic. In New York, however, the republicans have a neat working majority of the legislature and elected their secretary of state by about 19,000 majority; and though the democrats elected the balance of the state ticket, they were, really, defeated, as the state was conceded to them by 50,000 to 100,000 majority. We see nothing in the present outlook to indicate that "the Republicans must go," the Register and Standard to the contrary notwithstanding.

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.—Many democrats are advocating the use of money for campaign purposes, and we presume that the necessary "committees" will be around before long promising post-offices, clerkships and other minor positions to the gullible members of the party, providing they will put up so much ready cash to carry on the presidential campaign. We don't suppose that any of them ask our advice or will accept it when offered; but we are going to suggest that if any of them really want an office badly enough to buy one, that they go to those who have the article for sale; see that you get the goods when you pay the money.—Democratic newspapers say that republican office holders are the most corrupt villains on the face of the earth. If this is the case a democrat may easily buy himself into position; and if he can't buy the whole ticket, he can start a pure and honest administration, and make a name for himself.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The President of the United States has issued the following:

In furtherance of a custom of this people, at the close of each year, to engage, upon a day set apart for that purpose, in a special festival of praise to the giver of all, I Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do hereby designate Thursday, the 29th day of November next, as a day of National Thanksgiving. The year which is drawing to an end has been replete with evidence of divine goodness. The prevalence of health, fullness of harvest, stability of peace and order; growth of fraternal feeling, spread of intelligence civil and religious liberty—all these and countless other blessings, are causes for reverent rejoicing. I do, therefore, recommend that on the day above mentioned the people rest from their several places of worship, express their devout gratitude to God, that he hath dealt so bountifully with this Nation, and praying that his grace and favor abide with it forever.

SALEM, NOV. 5, 1883.

In accordance with a long established custom, and in conformance with the recommendation of the President of the United States, I, Z. F. Moody, Governor of the State of Oregon, would recommend that Thursday, the 29th day of November, 1883, be observed by all citizens of the State as a day of praise and thanksgiving to the Supreme Ruler of the universe for the many blessings vouchsafed to us during the past year, and would further recommend that all secular pursuits be suspended upon that day, and that our people resort to their respective places of worship for the purpose herein set forth.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the State hereto attached this 5th day of November, A. D. 1883.

Z. F. MOODY, Governor.

Attest,

R. P. EABHART, Secretary of State.

Before the tariff was fixed on cut nails we were importing them from England at 25 cents a pound. A duty of 5 cents a pound made such a competition between home manufacturers that nails sold for 2½ cents a pound in 1870—just one-half the duty.

FACTS ARE FACTS AND SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS.

LOOK HERE!—Sit down and read this, and common sense will tell you that any merchant who advertises with a spirit of malice,

Cannot be Trusted.

It is "nonsense and humbugging to blow and try to blind people about good goods." I claim to have

AS GOOD GOODS

as any other storekeeper, and not any better. They all come from the SAME FACTORIES, but every merchant has to keep different qualities of goods to suit his trade. For instance: if a man wishes to purchase a suit of clothes for $12 he doesn't want a suit of clothes for $35, and so vice versa,

Why, it is Ridiculous to say

I keep good goods, and therefore can't sell them as

CHEAP AS MY NEIGHBORS.

as every child that goes to school knows better than that.

ALL GOODS that I advertise in our Local Paper, the "Oregon Register," and "Dayton Free Press," are Always to be Found in Stock and not "just out of them." TOO THIN! Furthermore, I will say that I am buying my goods

Strictly for Cash, at Bedrock Figures, and Discount my Bills;

therefore, I can make a REASONABLE PROFIT and still sell goods for LESS MONEY than those storekeepers do that are buying on time and leave the wholesale houses and manufacturers wait from 12 to 24 months for their money. In the first place, they can't expect to buy as cheap as the man who buys FOR CASH, and in the second place the wholesale houses will

Charge Interest after four or six Months

whenever the account becomes due. I will add that I devote my Whole Attention to the Dry Goods and Clothing trade, and everything pertaining to it, and leave all other outside business alone.

These are all Facts that I am Willing to Prove.

I don't propose to have my goods lie on the shelves for years. Whatever old goods remain over by the 1st of January will be thrown into THIRD STREET LAKE, instead of letting moths get a hold of them, as has been the case in other stores, here.

Remember that H. Fisher

keeps a

First-Class Dry Goods and Clothing House, and is receiving goods every day and has always a FINE ASSORTMENT OF GOODS in stock. Farmers of Yamhill County, I am prepared to do an Extensive Credit Business this year in my line, and all those that are responsible for the debts they contract will find it to their advantage to buy their DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING of H. FISHER, as you will SAVE from 25 to 40 per cent. in purchasing your goods.

MONEY SAVED IS MONEY MADE.

You will find every week my GOODS AND PRICES ADVERTISED.

Very Respectfully Yours,

HUGO FISHER.

What we Believe!

There is no question about it:

B. F. HARTMAN'S

is the place to buy GOOD GOODS. No humbugging or blowing about best quality of goods of any kind for less than half what they can be made for. That is simply nonsense, and is only done to get you in their stores to find them "just out" of the goods advertised at less than half value, or to show you an article too worthless for any use, with the hope of selling you their goods at big prices. Talk is cheap, and so are all kinds of goods, and when you want to buy

Good, Durable Goods,

You cannot do better than to buy them of

B. F. HARTMAN.

—o—

Ladies will find all kinds of Latest style Cloaks, Dolmans, Ulsters and Wraps, Dress Goods, Silk Lace, Mull, Bobonett, Darn-Not Ties, and everything pertaining to Ladies' Wardrobe.

Sale of Personal Property.

NOTICE is hereby given that by virtue of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Oregon, approved October 21st, 1878, entitled "An Act to provide for Liens for Laborers, Common Carriers and other persons on Personal Property," I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, on the farm of J. W. Cowles, near McMinnville, Yamhill County, Oregon, and on the 17th day of November, 1883,

at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, the following described personal property, belonging to Newby Henry: About 10 head of stock sheep and about 100 pounds of wool, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to satisfy my lien against the same for pasturage of said sheep, amounting in all to about $28 and the costs of this notice and sale of said personal property J. L. SPARKS.

Oct. 25, 1883—3544.

Guardian's Sale.

Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of an order of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, made at the August term 1883 thereof, in the matter of the Guardianship of Lizzie J. Brooks, Rachael A. Brooks and Daisy D. Brooks, minors, and to me as Guardian thereof directed, I will sell at Public Auction on Friday, the 30th day of Nov. 1883,

at one o'clock p. m., at the Court House door in Lafayette, Yamhill County, Oregon, for cash in hand, all that tract of land situate in Yamhill County, Oregon, and bounded as follows to wit: Commencing at a stake marked "1," 3.75 chains South of the corner of Sections 2, 3, 19 and 11, Town 3 South, Range 4 West; thence South var. 20 deg. 45 min. 9.66 chains to a stake marked "C. S.," thence East var. 20 deg. 45 min. to a stake marked "C. S.," thence North var. 20 deg. 45 min. 9.66 chains to a stake marked "J.," thence West 20 chains, to the place of beginning, containing 18 and 12-100 acres.
