The sale of the personal property of John Dowling, deceased, by Executor Bingham, on Saturday last, was well attended and everything went at "way up"figures—though the terms were cash. A gentleman of this place says that "there's no use talking about money being so scarce when so much ready cash was paid for articles as was done at the sale on Saturday."

The part es who were here with the roller The part es who were here with the roller skates, and were the means of creating quite a sensation, left for Salem, on Sunday. In consequence it has been quiet this week; but it will not emain so long, as nigh onto a hundred pairs of skates have been ordered from below, and when they arrive fun will begin again.

Mr. T. C. Davis, of North Yambill, was in town list Thursday and made us a pleasant visit. "Uncle Tom" spoke of the rapid growth of the town, but said "My goodness," what a horrible mud hole you have up on the main street of town. It is the worse place in in the county, and I don't see how your town prospers with the main thoroughfare in such a condition." And he is not the only man that expresses himself in this manner.

The Teachers Meeting, on Saturday last was rather slimly attended. All that were present were Prof. Hutchinson, of Lafayette, Prof. Worthington, of Polk county. The two Misses Skinner, of this place, and Professors Freund and Williamson, of our public school. From some cause, unexplained at this time, Supt. L. H. Baker failed to put in an appearance, After discussing two branches of study—Geography and Arithmetic—the meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks, one week from next Saturday, Dec. 8th, when it is to be hoped that there will be a better attendance.

The Suffrage Meeting.

EDITOR REPORTER:-The Woman's Rally, the meeting at Mohawk Hall on Thursday evening last, in honor of the recent victory in Washington Territory, proved to be one of the most enthusiastic and profitable one of the kind ever held in Yamhill county. One peculiar feature of the meeting was that it was the first ratification of an event, the enfrachisement of women, that has ever been held on Oregon soil. "Yamhill in the front" again. The grand opening exercises began at an early hour with music by Custer Post Band, of McMinnville, of which no word of comment or praise need be given, as they, on different occasions throughout the state have so manifestly acquitted themselves as to need nothing further. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. S. M. Kelty, of Lafayette, who read the account of the recent action in the Washington Territory Legislature, and the grand ratification meeting held at Olympia, the following Monday evening, after which." Our Greeting" was finely rendered by the in Washington Territory, proved to be one of order by Mrs. S. M. Kelty, of Lafayette, who started for the home of her parents at Joliet, Ill., yesterday.

Lotter from Aunt Sallie. Moscow, W. T., Nov. 14th, 1883. ED. REPORTER :- I noticed in your issue of ED. REPORTER:-Having traveled some the 22d inst. that your Sheridan correspondent took occasion to refer to the fact that I, distance since last writing to the REPORTER, I will try and give you a brief description of James Barkley had two Indians arrested for a portion of the country over which my journey lay. We left Portland on the morning of Oct. 24th, taking the N. P. train for Wallula. The trip up the Columbia was wallula. The trip up the Columbia was splendid although a great portion of the time it was so rainy and foggy that a satisfactory view of the country along the river could not be obtained. We arrived at The Dalles at 11:30 and were allowed twenty-five minutes for dinner; it rained very hard while we were at The Dalles and nothing occurred to excite our interest here except that swhile we were at The Dalles and nothing occurred to excite our interest here except that a poodle dog had to go without his dinner because there was no chicken; poor dog! From The Dalles until we reached Wallula, where we arrived considerably behind time, it rained and stormed terribly. Here we were allowed twenty minutes for supper, which was excellent and a credit to the Co.— The N. P. switched us off here outo the O. S. & R. N. Short Line for Walla Walla; we arrived there at 8 o'clock, and darker than a stack of black hats; we were hurried into a vehicle and driven to the Stine House. If you should ever travel that way, give the Stine House a wide berth unless you want to get bilked. Walla Walla is quite a city, situated in the midst of a beautiful farming country and in a splendid place for the making of a fine city; there seems to be considerable business carried on in the place but as we did not stop there any length of time I cannot give a very full description of the city; we were detained an hour at the depot waiting for the arrival of the first class freight train that was to carry us to Texas Ferry. Passing over considerable farming country we reached Prescot—a railroad town on the banks of the Touchet river—in time for supper. We were told by the conductor that we could get supper here and of course myself and others went out to do so, and were informed by the landlady that she did not get supper for passengers, but for the train men only; nevertheless we seated ourwere informed by the handady that she did not get supper for passengers, but for the train men only; nevertheless we seated our-selves at the table and ordered a cup of tea, which we found to be excellent, but Oh, that look! The tea was hurriedly drank and we started to view the town which we found to ine farms we finally reached Colfax without any serious mishap, and met no highwaymen, which was well for them as we were well armed with an old umbrella owned by a foreigner who had passed over the read several months ago. Stopping at the Baldwin House for aree days we took in the city.—The city seems to be in quite a flourishing condition; the railroad has reached the place at last and in consequence it is quite ively at present. It is situated between two hills that are so close together that they are being excavated to obtain building room. I did not learn the population but should judge that it was between 700 and 800. It has an academy and public school and three churches—the Baptist, Methodist and Congregational, which speaks well for the place.

The Ratification Meeting.

A meeting was held at Mohawk Hall last Thursday evening to ratify the action of the Washington Territory Legislature on the Washington Territory Legislature on the Woman suffrage question, and a good audicates was present. At seven o'clock the meeting was called to order by Mrs. S. M. Kelty, President of the Yamhill county W. S. A., who said that the object of the meeting would be stated by Mrs. H. A. Loughary. That lady, in a few words fully explained the object: said that numerous persons from different parts of the county had signified a willingness to be present and assist in carrying out the programe, but supposed they were kept away by unforseen reasons. Then there was music by the Glec Club, after which speeches were made by Messrs J. E. Magers, J. J. Spenosr,—Blum, E. Russ and Mrs. Loughary. reading of congratulatory letters, more music and passing of a resolution of thanks to those who had assisted in the exercises, after which upon the suggestion of Mr. Magers three rousing cheers were given for the cause of equal rights, and the meeting adjourned. The zeal and energy exhibited by the ladies interested in the cause, show that they are thoroughly in earnest in the work before them, and will leave nothing started to view the town which we found to be a flourishing little place, several buildings going up and everything wearing a business aspect: we found here two stores and three saloons—no schools and no churches, as yet. We were detained here sometime again to take on wood and water. From here we traveled in darkness to Texas Ferry where we were landed safe and sound on board the steam toat Almota at 8:20, and remained at the Ferry until five o'clock the next morn-ing when we were awakened by the puffing at the Ferry until five o clock the next morning when we were awakened by the puffing and blowing of the famous little steamer and soon we were gliding smoothly out into Snake rive: and traveled up this stream 25 miles to Alnota, reaching there at 1 o'clock. Taking this place in at a glance, we boarded a two seated buckboard for Colfax, over the little 18. that they are thoroughly in earnest in the work before them, and will leave nothing undone that shall redound to the advancement of the cause of equal rights, liberty and justice. God speed the day when they shall have accomplished the desired end.

From thence we traveled along or near the Palonse river a distance of 15 miles to Pullman, another of the little towns that have sprung up since the railroad has made its advent in this country.
