

THE REPORTER

McMINNVILLE, OREGON, DEC. 13, 1883.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

We had aimed to give this document in full in supplement form, but were a trifle too late in ordering it from below. So, as our space is too limited to admit our publishing it in full, we will have to be contented with giving a review upon the most important points of the message by the Oregonian of the 5th inst.

"Beginning with matters of local interest it will be noticed that the president favors the establishment at once of a civil government for Alaska. He refers approvingly to Secretary Teller's recommendations respecting Indian affairs and the prevention of frauds under the pension laws, and the repeal of the pre-emption and timber culture acts. He thinks the evils resulting from the reciprocity treaty with the Hawaiian government have been exaggerated, but says the provisions of the treaty should be modified wherever they have proven damaging to legitimate trade between the countries. The Chinese officials, he thinks, will cooperate with the United States in securing the faithful observance of the law restricting Chinese emigration and that therefore, there is no cause for alarm because a few laborers from the flowery kingdom have come here in violation of it.

"One of the most important and radical recommendations of the message is the repeal of the act upon which the territorial government of Utah depends and the resumption by congress of the entire political control of the territory. He is convinced that polygamy is so strongly entrenched that it is professed to attack it with any but the strongest weapons which constitutional legislation can devise. This is the first time a president has struck at the root of the evil, and if his recommendation is promptly followed by a law authorizing the appointment of a commission which the government of the territory, the doom of Mormonism is sealed.

"Referring to statistics of illiteracy the president wisely suggests that federal aid should be extended to public primary education, where provision is not adequately made by the states. He is opposed to a government telegraph mainly because it is undesirable to increase the civil list to the extent that it would require, but thinks the government should be authorized by law to exercise some sort of supervision over this inter-state communication. He is more radical in his treatment of the railway question, recognizing the great evils resulting from the power of railroad managers over the business of the country and he advises that congress, just so far as it has constitutional authority, should protect the people at large against the acts of injustice which the state governments are powerless to prevent.

"The president thinks that satisfactory results will follow the reduction of letter postage, and recommends a return to the old rate of one cent on drop letters in towns where there is a regular delivery by carriers. He advises that trade dollars should be retired, by a provision for their redemption as a bullion by the treasury. He thinks that good has resulted from the civil service law, and is pleased with its operations.

"He recalls the recommendation of his last message, that all excise taxes except those on distilled spirits should be abolished, and that substantial reductions should be made in taxes on imports, and while he thinks that further reductions might be wisely made, he does not advise radical or sweeping changes in existing laws in the interval which must lapse before the effects of the act of March 3, 1883 can be definitely ascertained. If there is still a large surplus then, it may be largely expended upon harbor defenses and the increase of our navy. He is in favor of repealing the tax on the circulation of national banks, and so changing the banking law that the banks may issue bills for an amount equal to 90 per cent. of the market value, instead of as now the full value of deposited bonds.

"The message is an admirable one, and the radical recommendations for the destruction of polygamy, and for the recovery by congress of the powers of sovereignty which have been usurped by the railroads, as well as other wise suggestions, display great sagacity in the president, and they will be read with great satisfaction by the people."

Although Patrick O'Donnell has been convicted of willful murder in the slaying of Carey the Phoenix Park informer, and sentenced to execution on the 19th inst., it is quite probable he will escape his threatened doom. Times and trials bring many changes. Throughout our own country O'Donnell shared liberally in public sympathy, from the first. When his hands appeared to be stained with the gore of an appalling murder, even then, condonations rang loudly from all quarters as if to justify the deed as one of righteous vengeance. And now, it appears as a development of O'Donnell's trial that he had not tracked Carey by stealth with premeditated murder in his heart, but that he simply acted in self-defense, when he himself was violently assaulted by Carey. Such is the representation made to President Arthur by several Congressmen, while interceding in the doomed man's behalf. The President will use his best influences for a stay of execution, and quite likely his offices may save the prisoner from British vengeance.

The name of the Twocannon river, W. T., is said to have originated as follows: At the time of Lewis and Clark's exploring expedition through the country, they were closely pursued by hostile Indians, and in order to make more rapid retreat they buried two cannons in that gulch, hence the name Twocannon.

Congress has done nothing worth mentioning, as yet.

FACTS ARE FACTS AND SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS.

LOOK HERE! Sit down and read this, and common sense will tell you that any merchant who advertises with a spirit of malice,

Cannot be Trusted.

It is "nonsense and humbugging to blow and try to blind people about good goods." I claim to have

AS GOOD GOODS

as any other storekeeper, and not any better. They all come from the SAME FACTORIES, and every merchant has to keep different qualities of goods to suit his trade. For instance: if a man wishes to purchase a suit of clothes for $12 he doesn't want a suit of clothes for $35, and so vice versa,

Why, it is Ridiculous to say

I keep good goods, and therefore can't sell them as

CHEAP AS MY NEIGHBORS

as every child that goes to school knows better than that.

ALL GOODS that I advertise in our Local Paper, the "Oregon Register", and "Dayton Free Press" are Always to be Found in Stock and not "just out of them." TOO THIN! Furthermore, I will say that I am buying my goods

Strictly for Cash, at Bedrock Figures, and Discount my Bills;

therefore, I can make a REASONABLE PROFIT and still sell goods for LESS MONEY than those storekeepers do that are buying on time and leave the wholesale houses and manufacturers wait from 12 to 24 months for their money. In the first place, they can't expect to buy as cheap as the man who buys FOR CASH, and in the second place the wholesale houses will

Charge Interest after four or six Months

whenever the account becomes due. I will add that I devote my Whole Attention to the Dry Goods and Clothing trade, and everything pertaining to it, and leave all other outside business alone.

These are all Facts that I am Willing to Prove.

I don't propose to have my goods lie on the shelves for years. Whatever old goods remain over by the 1st of January will be thrown into THIRD STREET LAKE, instead of letting moths get a hold of them, as has been the case in other stores, here.

Remember that H. Fisher

First-Class Dry Goods and Clothing House, and is receiving goods every day and has always a FINE ASSORTMENT OF GOODS in stock. Farmers of Yamhill County, I am prepared to do an Extensive Credit Business this year in my line, and all those that are responsible for the debts they contract will find it to their advantage to buy their DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING of H. FISHER, as you will SAVE from 25 to 40 per cent. in purchasing your goods.

MONEY SAVED IS MONEY MADE.

You will find every week my GOODS AND PRICES ADVERTISED. Very Respectfully Yours, HUGO FISHER.

What we Believe!

There is no question about it:

B. F. HARTMAN'S

Is the place to buy GOOD GOODS. No humbugging or blowing about best quality of goods of any kind for less than half what they can be made for. That is simply nonsense, and is only done to get you in their stores to find them "just out" of the goods advertised at less than half value, or to show you an article too worthless for any use, with the hope of selling you their goods at big prices. Talk is cheap, and so are all kinds of goods, and when you want to buy

Good, Durable Goods,

You cannot do better than to buy them of B. F. HARTMAN.

Ladies will find all kinds of Latest style Cloaks, Dolmans, Ulsters and Wraps, Dress Goods, Silk Lace, Mull, Bobonett, Darn-Vit Ties, and everything pertaining to Ladies' Wardrobe.

All kinds of Dry Goods, and any and everything in Gents' Furnishing Goods. Also, Groceries, Glass and Queensware, Hardware and is SOLE AGENT for the best on the coast. Also, Farming Implements of all kinds, all for the lowest prices. Also, remember 10 per cent. discount is given for cash. Call and see him.

Star Mixed Paints,
