

Newspaper Decisions.

1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from a post-office, whether directed in his name or another's, or whether he subscribes or not, is responsible for payment.

2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and then collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not.

3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them in the office, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

4. The Postmaster-General has decided that postmasters who fail to notify publishers when subscribers remove, or fail to take their papers from the postoffice, shall be responsible for their subscription.

NOTICE!

Notice is hereby given that MR. C. E. CONNER has associated himself with the "YAMHILL REPORTER" and is interested in the publication thereof.

OUR PEER-AMID.

Bank of McMinnville is open. Christmas goods at H. Fisher's. Holiday goods, at Rogers & Todd's. Read the new ads. They're numerous. Autograph albums at Robison & Baker's.

1883 will soon be numbered with the past. Popcorn is cheap at B. F. Hartman's, for Christmas. Holiday Goods for old and young at Robison & Baker's.

Ladies' kid gloves, 5 hooks, Foster patent, $1.25, at H. Fisher's. Go to Robison & Baker's and see those nice Christmas presents. The city has chosen J. E. Magers for its attorney for the next year.

Don't fail to get some of those nice cranberries at B. F. Hartman's. Christmas, one week from next Tuesday. Children, get your stockings. Rogers, of Rogers & Todd, has gone below to lay in more holiday goods.

Mr. M. V. Jones started for his home at Crescent City, Cal., last Friday. Experience teaches us that the maple syrup that B. F. Hartman sells is pure. Remember that B. F. Hartman gives 10 per cent. discount on all goods for cash.

Ladies' fine velvet embroidered slippers at H. Fisher's. Nice Christmas presents. Mrs. Carrie Scott, of Portland, came up to attend her grandpa's funeral, last week. Sunday School Concert at the C. P. Church, to-morrow—Friday—evening, Dec. 14th.

Robison & Baker have just received the finest line of Holiday Goods in the city. Jimmy Turner was up from Portland, during the week, paying the folks a visit. For the holidays, velvet frames, rustic frames—a large assortment at H. Fisher's.

Thanks to L. H. Cook for a quart of that maple syrup, which we found to be excellent. Rev. George Branson is expected to preach at the C. P. Church next Sunday at 11 a. m. Presents for everybody at "Santa Claus Headquarters"—call in time to have first choice.

If you want a nice Christmas present, don't fail to see those things at B. F. Hartman's. Children's Linen and Paper toy books, holiday and miscellaneous books at Rogers & Todd's. Charley Francis says "I buy my cigars at Rogers & Todd's, because they keep the best in town."

Elder Morrison has lately held a series of religious meetings at the Christian Church, McMinnville. At the last regular meeting of Custer Post Band, they decided to give a ball on Friday evening, Dec. 28th. Dr. Trullinger's Excelsior Lotion for all sprains, bruises, calous lumps, pain in the back, sore throat etc.

Another invoice of those fine single and double breasted "Corkscrew" suits of clothes arrived at H. Fisher's. Do not forget that it is but a short time until Christmas, and B. F. Hartman has some nice goods that are cheap. Sheriff Collard collected taxes at this place last Friday, and informed us that people responded in a very clever manner.

Choices lot of Tahiti Oranges, lemons, figs, nuts, (new crop) and candies in endless variety, at "Santa Claus Headquarters," which is at the Bakery and Confectionery.

The "Villar" and "Upman" are the names of a new stock of cigars just received by Robison & Baker, and we can vouch for their being A. No. 1. Go there and do likewise. Go to Wm. Hall's and see that silver set that some lucky man is sure to get away with on New Year's Day. Day $5 worth of jewelry and you get a ticket entitling you to a chance.

There is a new firm at this place. We refer to that of Cooper & Magruder, surveyors, the latter having associated himself with the old standby, Success to Cooper & Magruder. Remember that with every $5 worth of jewelry purchased of Wm. Hall, the purchaser is entitled to a ticket to the lottery where a full silver set valued at $60 will be drawn on New Year's Day.

Carlton speaks! Yamhill to the front! The only wild turkey on the Pacific coast can be seen at Blackburn & Peckham's who have a fine assortment of holiday goods, at prices lower than the lowest. Sheridan's live real estate and collection agent, Capt. C. Lafollet was in town Monday and Tuesday and dropped in to see us. He reports everything running smoothly along in and about his home town.

We received a pleasant call from W. H. Harrison, one day last week. He was about to take his departure for Cedar Rapids, Iowa where his mother, who accompanied the pioneer excursion, is lying dangerously ill. Tune up the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It will make you feel like a new person. Thousands have found health and relief from suffering by the use of this great blood purifier when all other means failed.

It's fun to hear Henry Ridgeway talk about that little daughter of his. Says she weighs 64 pounds and he knows very well is smarter than any other girl in Oregon of her weight. And then he sings; "It's nice to be a father," etc. We must say that looking through H. Fisher's stock of dry goods and clothing, he has a fine selected stock of goods. Of some articles you can't find a better selection in any store in any metropolis, and prices are very reasonable.

Mr. Horace Ramsdell, who came up on a visit and was attacked with typhoid fever and had a "tough siege" a portion of last week, so far recovered as to be able to go to Portland to his work, Monday. He looked very well, however. Messrs. Longacre & Fletcher have closed their market for the present. They have done well during their business career, but as Mr. Longacre wished to move onto a farm just purchased by him, they concluded to shut down for a time.

The rise in the Yamhill pleases the Yamhill Lumbering Company. They have recently brought to their mill from up the North Yamhill several hundred thousand feet of logs and are now ready for their winter's run at the mill. In a 60-yard race between — McKinney, of Deane County, and H. L. Holman, of this place, one day this week, for $2 a side, the latter won by three feet. McKinney and Lawrence Woodruff ran the same distance and the race was declared a tie.

A slight blaze occurred in Dr. W. H. Boyd's office—Garrison's building—last Thursday evening but was discovered in time to be extinguished without calling out the fire department and before damage further than burning a hole in the floor and carpet had done. Elsie Wright now carries her hand wrapped up in a manner that shows that he has been working about sharp edged tools. It was his little circular wood-saw that caused this Elsie was feeding the saw and ran his right hand against it, and an ugly gash was made in that member.

Forty years' experience in every clime on earth, has proved Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to be the most reliable remedy for colds, coughs and all lung diseases. Neglected colds often become incurable ailments. Deal with them in time, and prevent their becoming deposited in the system. There will be a grand Masquerade Ball given at Alderman's Hall, Tuesday evening, Dec. 24th, to which a cordial invitation is extended to all. There will be good music, good order—in fact everything to insure a pleasant and enjoyable time to all who may attend.

Mr. L. A. Mewby has for sale a piece of choice city property in the eastern portion of McMinnville. The property consists of about three acres of land—that for agricultural purposes none better can be found—with a good dwelling. For further particulars call on or address L. A. Mewby. The proprietors of Mohawk Hall are enlarging the building by taking out the partition near the center of the building and building an addition onto the east side near the south end. Besides making more room, it will make a frontage on Third Street that will make quite a showing.

The Teachers' Meeting at this place last Saturday was a pleasant and profitable affair. Ideas were exchanged on the mode of teaching arithmetic and geography. The meeting adjourned to meet at Lafayette on Saturday, Dec. 22nd. All teachers are earnestly requested to attend these meetings. If you wish to save costs, you must settle your account by the first day of January, 1884. All accounts not settled by that date will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. D. L. CONNER, Lafayette, Or. Born—in McMinnville, Dec. 10, 1883, to the wife of G. V. Snelling, a daughter. And of course Yint couldn't go to Portland that day, and so he came along to tell the Klamath folks about it, and then the boys all smoked those Havannas with their best wishes for the little stranger.

FAM LADY! While that lover of yours is cudgeling his brain in feverish anxiety in search of a suitable present for you, just give him a gentle hint that one of those elegant boxes of Indies' popatere, neatly printed by Snyder the Printer, would be just the ticket. No noster gift than this can be devised. Blanche, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Fisher, had one of her feet burned very severely, one day last week. She was sitting by the stove, when her mother, in removing the tea-kettle spilled some of its boiling contents on the little one's foot, scalding it severely. But by proper treatment, Blanche is able to be about again. Look out for fun, tomorrow. A stern husband and father had received anonymous notification that by that time he must furnish his wife with $500 with which to buy herself and child a home; he says he can't do it and thus he will be, as the notice says, "roughly dealt with." So, says expert "there'll be razors a-lying in the air." Strayed from the premises of the undersigned, about two months since, seven head of sheep—six ewes and one buck lamb—with the eyes being branded with the letter "O" in red paint on the hip; none unmarked. Any person knowing of the whereabouts of such sheep will confer a favor on the owner by letting him know of the same. L. H. BAKER, Dayton, Or. Tom Gilbert, the Indian who chafed and pieces Wapato Dave, an old Indian chief and his squaw, on the Grand Round agency a year ago, was allowed to plead guilty at the present, was allowed to plead guilty at the present, and was sentenced by Judge Stott, sitting pro-tem to one year in the penitentiary and to pay $100 fine. Tom was convicted of murder in the first degree on a former trial and sentenced to death, but the Supreme court granted a new ground, on error. To save his neck he was permitted to plead guilty to the lowest degree of manslaughter. When such an atrocious blotching can go unpunished in measure commensurate with the crime it is time to pull down the temple of justice and proclaim Judge Lynch supreme.

Mr. Dyer, living on the L. T. Nichols farm accidentally but very nearly chopped off the end of his right thumb, one day last week.—Dr. Boyd very skillfully replaced the severed end, and now Mr. Dyer rejoices in a whole thumb, again in its place. The hotly contested case of Sheppard vs DeLashmitt and Youm, appealed from Polk county, was again decided in favor of Plaintiff, on Friday last, at Dallas. The case will be remembered as in connection with a robbery case at Sheridan in 1877, and this is the second time that Sheppard has secured a judgment, which amounts to $19,136. Grandma Goodell's remains arrived last week Wednesday and were interred in Masonic Cemetery, her remains being followed to the grave by a large number of relatives and friends. A biographical sketch of this lady's life will be given in the columns of the Reporter as soon as it can be obtained from her son, Rev. S. C. Adams, who is in California.

Drs. Cartwright and Goucher operated on the eye of Miss Minnie Fraser, yesterday, for strabismus, (squint), and which completed will add greatly to the personal appearance of the young lady. The Dr. informs us he will stay here a short time yet, and all who have need of surgical skill would not lose the opportunity of securing his services while he is here. A little son of Mr. Porter of Amity, was accidentally shot by Frank Smith, yesterday, the bullet striking the bridge of the nose and passing through the right eye and lodged in the temporal muscle, in front of the ear. Dr. Goucher was summoned from this place and extracted the bullet with considerable difficulty, and to-day the little fellow is doing well and will probably recover, with the loss of an eye.

Will men never learn to be cautious? It comes to us that a stranger drove into town one day last week, and compelled his team to enter Third Street Lake against the wish of the residents. He left pictures, and the Lake team began floundering about and the driver was thrown out of the wagon.—Striking head downward he would probably have drowned had it not been for timely assistance reaching him. Santa Claus has arrived, and dropped his first bill of holiday goods at W. H. Bingham's. Don't miss the opportunity of securing pictures of all kinds, brackets, and picture frames—in fact a line of such goods second to none that ever arrived in Yamhill County. Also, can be found new and neat furniture—all to be had at the lowest prices. Don't miss our word for this, but go and see for yourself.

Ryan, the foot-racer, was up here last week looking for a foot race. But he didn't get it. From some cause the "Yamhill Boy" doesn't seem to have a very great amount of love for Ryan and when they met Billy told him he was a grass hopper; Ryan told him he was another and after talking each other in this style for a while they separated.—Harting took to his home up the Yamhill and Ryan taking the train for Portland. We received, on Saturday last, a pleasant call from Mr. T. B. Henderson, of Amity, who in company with his wife recently returned from their trip east, with the pioneers. Mr. Henderson says that he had a splendid time and that his health had improved much benefited by the trip. But he prefers the "Oregon mist" to the "blizzards," one of which he encountered in Minnesota.

The old college building has all been removed, and if it were not for the new church building that stands near by, the grounds occupied by the old servant would appear desolately deserted. On Saturday last the college bell was taken from the tower and removed across the creek to the new college building, and all that remains to remind us of by-gone days is the old tower, which will be taken down also and removed to other quarters soon. Our genial friend, D. I. Corker, Lafayette's Hardware and Furniture man, came here on Monday, full of life, as usual. He smiled so blandly that we asked him what was the matter, and he told us—confidentially, mind you—that he had "made a snash" and expected to be married in a few days—or as soon as he could make collections sufficient to enable him to purchase a wedding suit and license. Nothing like it, D. I. By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the Bank of McMinnville has opened and is now doing business in its line. The gentlemen connected with this enterprise are widely known throughout this country, and Mr. Wortman, the cashier, fully understands the business, anything entrusted to him will be transacted with safety. Hurrah for the Bank of McMinnville. It is a thing long needed here, and now that it has come, let our people give it a boost.

Obituary. DIED.—At the residence of her oldest sister, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Dec. 7th, 1883, of gastritis, Mrs. Maria Abby Harrison, in the 67th year of her age. Thus has passed away the widow of Hon. T. R. Harrison, full of years and usefulness. None knew her but to love her—to love her for her wealth of intellect and purity of character; for her goodness of heart; for her broad sympathy and unselfish charities. While she will live in memory in the hearts of a large circle of friends in which she moved, there is one place where the sacred word MOTHER never seemed so dear as now, and that was her home, where her smile was a perennial welcome, and where her counsel was received with joy. Deceased was born in Litchfield, New York, Sept. 13th, 1817. She was one of five sisters, three older and one younger, all of which survive her. She came to Oregon in 1858 with her husband, and settled on a farm near Amity, where she has lived since except a temporary absence of three years at Oregon City and four years at Forest Grove. She left her Amity home Oct 2d on the pioneer excursion so return East to visit the homes of her youth and spend a few months with loved sisters. But when she arrived at Cedar Rapids at her oldest sister's she was taken so ill that she could go no further and slowly and surely sank into death's arms, surrounded by loved ones who, with physicians, done all that mortals could do to relieve the disease. She leaves two sons and a large circle of relatives to mourn her loss. Mrs. Harrison's remains are expected to arrive in Amity on Saturday, Dec. 15th and her funeral services will be attended in the Baptist Church, at Amity, on Sunday at 2 p. m. Rev. S. Monroe Hubbard delivering the sermon. S. M. H.

A VALUABLE PUBLICATION. Each number of the "West Shore" is an improvement upon its predecessors and a pleasant surprise to the subscribers. "Progress" is the publishers' watchword and perfection his aim. With its January number the journal enters its tenth year, and will then appear in an entirely new dress of type, be generally remodeled and have eight pages added to its present size. More attention will be devoted to literary features than formerly, and its artistic features will also be improved. The improvements will make it almost indispensable to every family in the Northwest. The "Northwest News" of November 27th speaks of it as follows: "The scotchman and the west coast newspaper would do credit to any city in the Union. Well written descriptions of the scenery illustrated are given, and the number also contains concise and interesting articles on mining, agriculture, fisheries, transportation, etc. It is exclusively an Oregon production, and has done a great deal towards making the resources of the Northwest known abroad, having been devoted especially to this work. Mr. Samuel has just purchased at a large expense a complete new dress for his journal, and from a view of the advance sheets of the January number it is safe to assert that it will be the handsomest work ever published in Oregon." "The Northwest News" of the 28th inst. says: "The 'West Shore' is recognized as the most powerful instrument in drawing desirable immigrants and in making known the resources of the Pacific Northwest. With the January number it begins its tenth year and will then be entirely remodeled and enlarged, and will be made far more attractive, artistically and in its literary features. While it will continue to devote as much attention as formerly to the resources of our country it will enter more fully the general field of literature. The improvements will make of it a journal that should find its way into every family circle and counting room on the coast." By all means secure this source of information and pleasure for 1884 by sending $2 to the publisher, L. Samuel, Portland, Oregon.

MARRIED. At the residence of the bride's father, Adam Andre, six miles southwest of McMinnville, Dec. 12th, 1883, by Rev. J. W. Crawford, we, the bride and groom, Miss Minnie I. Andra, both of Yamhill county. The young couple took their departure at once for the town down by the sounding sea—Astoria—to spend a few days, when they will return to their home at this place. Mr. Francis came from the East a little over a year ago, and is an exemplary, straightforward young man, while the bride is one of Yamhill's fairest daughters, and we join their large circle of friends and acquaintances in congratulating them. The printers all smoke.
